THOMAS WILLIAM BROWN, son of Samuel and Mary Brown, was born in Snickersville, Loudoun County, Va., August 16, 1837; died at his home, Gardenville, Baltimore County, Md., July 30, 1917. Brother Brown was a son of a local Methodist preacher, and had all the advantages of an early Christian training. He was licensed to preach on October 24, 1857. In 1861-64 he served Rock Creek Circuit. The Conference of 1867 met in Baltimore, and here, on March 8, Brother Brown applied for admission. A serious question was raised as to receiving him, as he had been ordained to eldership according to the usages of the Baptist Church. His reply was: "Take me as I am or not at all." He was received and served the following charges: 1868-70, St. Mary's; 1870-72, Shenandale Mission; 1872-73, Berkeley Springs; 1873-77, Taylor's Circuit; 1877-81, Kent Circuit; 1881-82, Hyattsville; 1882-86, Freedom; 1888-90, Fincastle; 1890-94, Luray; 1894-96, Elkton; 1896-99, Lewisburg. At the Conference held in Washington, D. C., in April, 1899, Brother Brown superannuated. He married Mary Helen Biddison February 3, 1863. God gave to them one son, Alpheus Wilson Brown, and two daughters, Mrs. Mary A. Clark and Mrs. Ella J. Cauffman. Lewisburg, W. Va., was Brother Brown's last appointment, and he moved from there to Gardenville, on Taylor's Circuit, where he had found his bride nearly fifty years before, and where he had spent eight years as pastor. Here he lived quietly for nineteen years. On February

3, 1913, they celebrated their fiftieth anniversary. The last two years of his life were marked by intense suffering. After services at his home he sleeps in the Bid-dison burying ground and waits the resurrection of the last day. No one ever had any doubt as to where he stood on any question. He was a man of few words and deep conviction. He was a student—he studied to know the truth and never entered the pulpit without the most careful preparation. His sermons were forceful and finished. A man of the old school is gone.—Claude M. Hesser.

WILLIAM LEE SMITH.—At the close of a beautiful day in October, 1917, just as the sun was sinking to rest, the Rev. William Lee Smith was translated into the presence of his Lord. The earthly ministry which he thus peacefully and triumphantly completed was in part an inheritance, for he was born in the parsonage at Charles Town, W. Va., December 19, 1866, being the child of Rev. Robert and Mary Smith. The early years of his life were spent in many places, as his parents moved from charge to charge in the itinerant ministry of the Church. At the age of fifteen he was genuinely converted to God in the old church at Manassas, Va. Almost coincident with his conversion came the call to preach, and six years later, at White Sulphur Springs, he asked for and obtained license. Brother Smith at once took work in the active ministry and for two years (1888-89) he served as junior preacher on Montgomery Circuit. When the Conference met at St. Paul's, Baltimore, in the spring of 1890, he was admitted on trial and appointed to Linganore Circuit. At the Conference of 1892, held in Harrisonburg, he was received into full connection and ordained deacon by Bishop Keener; two years later, in Fredericksburg, he was ordained elder by Bishop Granbery. In addition to those already named, the following appointments were served during a ministry of almost twenty-seven years: Freedom, Potomac, Patuxent, Hillsboro, Md., Greenville, Laurel, Strasburg, Prince George, and Brunswick, where he ceased both to work and to live. Brother Smith was a master workman. He was an indefatigable pastor. Each interest of the Conference had his careful attention. He was loyal to every obligation laid upon him. Weary though he often was in body, his mind was ever alert, and on his bed just a few hours before his death with his own hand he wrote the reports for an approaching Quarterly Conference and arranged for every business to be transacted. He loved the gospel that he preached, and with a firm grasp upon the fundamentals of faith and a rich experience of divine grace, he loved to preach that gospel as the power of God unto the salvation of men. Never very strong, Brother Smith was for years a sufferer from indigestion, which at times became acute. Warned by several attacks in recent years, he felt that the end could not be very far away, and kept his house in order. While apparently recovering from a severe visitation of the old trouble, a sudden recurrence took place and instantly the conversation he was carrying on with his devoted wife was broken asunder, as his tired heart ceased to beat and his spirit took its everlasting flight. The end came on October 20, 1917, in the midst of a splendid and successful pastorate. Brother Smith was married February 22, 1893, to Miss Lorena Day, who, with one son, Lee Burgess Smith, survives him. The funeral was held in the church at Brunswick, a congregation which overflowed the auditorium testifying to the tender love which the people had for their pastor and the large place he had won for himself in the esteem of the community. The interment was at Glenelg, Md. There, in the shadow of the church where he often preached, his body was laid to rest and waits "the dawning of that day whose coming maketh all things new."—H. M. Center.

EPHRIAM LEE KREGILO was born near Taneytown, Carroll County, Md., July 22, 1829; died at Shepherdstown, W. Va., on November 17, 1917, in the eighty-ninth year of his age. He was converted and joined the Methodist Church in early life. He entered the active ministry in Washington County, Maryland, in April, 1852, at the age of twenty-three. His first charge was Boonsboro, which embraced Sharpsburg and an adjacent appointment. A year later he was admitted into the Baltimore Conference in a class including, among others, the late Bishop Alpheus W. Wilson. At the time of his death he was the oldest member of the Conference and the last surviving one of his class—his ministry having covered an unbroken period of sixty-five years. Brother Kregilo's first appointment in the Baltimore Conference was Covington and Warm Springs Circuit as junior preacher. This was in 1853. The years following the outbreak of the Civil War he served successfully Lexington, McClintontown, Emitsburg, Luray, and Collierstown. In April, 1861, he was transferred to the Tennessee Conference and was appointed for one year each to churches in Maury County, Tenn., and Athens, Ala. He was then transferred back to his own Conference and was appointed in 1864 to Shepherdstown, where he served for three years. His next charge was Hillsboro and his last Winchester. In 1870 a serious throat trouble forced him to retire from the active service. For several years he sustained a supernumerary relation. For several years prior to his death he had been granted a superannuate relation. Brother Kregilo was a man of polish and culture, having received his education at Gettysburg College, in Pennsylvania. He was a wide reader and a close student and his preaching was of a high order. In May, 1855, he married Miss Martha W. Hull, of Rockbridge County, Va. After more than thirty years of happy married life she preceded him to the better world. In 1906 he was married to Mrs. Katherine McQuilkin, of Shepherdstown, W. Va., a woman known throughout the Conference for her loyal Methodism and who was untiring in her devotion during his last illness. Brother Kregilo's character never had a question mark against it. From boyhood to the time of his death his life was hid with Christ in God. None who knew him ever had to question his stand on any moral issue. He prayed much in secret and was wonderfully gifted in public prayer. A great student of the Bible, he was never troubled by doubts as to its teachings. They were to him verities as immutable as the very throne of God. He was a devoted father, and to him was given in return, by his son and daughter, still living, a reverent love, which was a further testimony to the father's noble life. He died in the peace and calm of those who know in whom they have believed. His body was laid to rest by the side of the wife of his youth in Lexington, Va.—Absalom Knox.

JOHN MARSHALL TURNER was born February 22, 1848, in Erie, Monroe County, Mich.; died at his home, near Alpine, Oregon, January 19, 1918, in the seventieth year of his life. The funeral services were conducted by the writer in the M. E. Church at Alpine, and he was buried in the cemetery near by. Brother Turner was converted in early life and united with the M. E. Church in Petersburg, Mich. He came to Corvallis, Oregon, in 1871, and remained in this State almost continuously until his death. A few years were spent in California, and also in Idaho and Washington, but Oregon was his adopted State, and here he delighted to dwell. On December 13, 1869, he was married to Miss Hattie White, of Deerfield, Mich., with whom he lived in happy wedlock for forty-eight years. To this union eight children were born: Orrin, of Alpine, Oregon; Gem (wife of William Graves), of Monroe, Oregon; Welcome and Frank, of Boise, Idaho; Dr. J. G., of Portland; Bessie (wife of Paul Hansen), of Salem, Oregon; Nellie (wife of Delbert Bechtel), of Salem, Oregon; and Emma (wife of Ray McAlester, formerly of Heppner, Oregon), deceased three years ago. Nearly all the children were with their mother at the funeral, as were also two of his sisters. He served the following charges in the Columbia Conference: Brownsville, Lebanon, Independence, Louisville (four years), McMinnville, and Junction City Circuit. In the East Columbia Conference he served Boise Circuit, Lexington, Covello and Waitsburg, Grass Valley, and Creston and Peach. He was admitted on trial at Lebanon in 1892, was ordained deacon in 1894 by Bishop Hargrove, and elder in 1896 by Bishop Duncan. He was superannuated at Milton, Oregon, in 1908. His retirement from the regular work was graceful, and without a murmur against his brethren. He was sick for about six weeks; and while his sufferings were intense, he never complained, but frequently raised his hand upward, with a smile of exultation and joy, showing his anticipation of the opening of the gates of the diviner life. Peace to his memory. —H. S. Shangle.

STEPHEN BARTLETT TABOR was born in Tazewell County, Va., January 22, 1853; died at his home in Boise, Idaho, May 26, 1918, in the sixty-sixth year of his life. When three years old his parents moved to Missouri and settled in Grundy County, where at the age of sixteen he was converted and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, to whose interests he devoted his life. He joined the Missouri Conference in 1877; was ordained deacon by Bishop John C. Keener on September 14, 1880, at Richmond, Mo.; was ordained elder by Bishop A. W. Wilson at Chillicothe, Mo., September 16, 1883. On December 6, 1882, he was married to Miss Laura Snyder, at Carrollton, Mo., and moved to Montana in 1890, where he served as pastor the important charges of his Conference: Deer Lodge, Bozeman, Stevensville, Butte, Big Timber, and Belgrade. For four years he served as presiding elder of the Helena District, which embraced the whole of the Montana Conference. His Conference elected him delegate to the General Conference at Baltimore in 1898, which position he filled with credit to himself and Conference. It was at this Conference that the writer of this sketch first met him, and he has ever since entertained the highest appreciation of him as a man to be trusted and loved. Because of poor health Brother Tabor moved to Boise, Idaho, in 1906, and engaged in the insurance business for a livelihood. Two years ago he was readmitted into the East Columbia Conference, and was appointed to Wingville. He also served as supply pastor for several years at Boise Valley, where his name is held in highest esteem by the people of the valley, both in and out of the Church. Last August he returned to Boise from Wingville and again settled down in his home, feeling that his life work was practically at an end. In March he had a stroke of paralysis, but was not entirely helpless until the second stroke came four days before he passed away. During those four days he opened his eyes and spoke one word only to his wife, then relapsed into unconsciousness, from which he never recovered until the end came. His life was an open book. He was without guile, stainless in his moral life and Conference relations, true and faithful as a minister, in business always above suspicion, modest as a woman, and unswerving to the line of duty. The world was made better because he lived. We thank God for his pure and guileless life. We miss his genial smile and the cordial grasp of his hand, but some day we shall meet again. We know where to find him. —H. S. Shangle.

Ques. 21. What preachers have died during the past year? W. B. F. Ball. 1.

W. B. F. BALL was born April 16, 1862, in Tazewell County, Va.; died August 19, 1918, at Charleston, W. Va., where he had lived for almost four years. He was married to Miss Mary Payne, of Giles County, Va., in 1887. This union was blessed with five sons and four daughters, all of whom are now living except one son, who died in infancy. He was converted when about fifteen years of age, and licensed to preach when a young man. He joined the Western Virginia Conference in September, 1896, after serving as a supply the previous year. He served the following charges: Raleigh, two years; Osborne's Mills, two years; Roane Street, Charleston, two years; Buchanan, Ky., two years; Reedy, two years; Elizabeth, three years; Buchanan, Ky., two years; Rupert, one year; Greenup, Ky., two years; Rocky Fork, one year; East Bank, one year; Big Otter, one year. After spending twenty-two years in active service, he superannuated one year ago on account of declining health. He seemed to rebuild for a few months, but finally broke down and was in the balance for some time; then he rallied again and seemed to be improving until one hour before his death. He was a tender, sympathetic, and patient husband and father, whose life speaks impressively to his family. He was a fine neighbor, always deeply concerned for the welfare of others. He was indeed a Christian man, ever impressing the congregations to whom he ministered with what the grace of God could do for an individual. As a pastor, he lived close to his people. He was a splendid gospel preacher. He loved to preach on fundamental themes, such as Justification by Faith and the Witness of the Spirit. He loved the brethren of the Conference. We know where to find him.—A. M. Martin.

Ques. 22. Are all the preachers blameless in their life and official administration? Their names were called, one by one, in open Conference, and their characters examined and passed, except in the case of S. W. Walker.

Ques. 23. What is the number of local preachers and members in the several circuits, stations, and missions of the Conference?

GEORGE NICHOLAS BUFFINGTON passed away in his own home, at Erlanger, Ky., on Monday, November 19, 1917. He was the son of J. H. and Columbia L. Buffington, and was born in Guyandotte, W. Va., in 1850. His parents later moved to Covington, Ky., and he joined the Kentucky Conference in the year 1869. He served Williamstown, Falmouth, Shannon and Sardis Circuit, Covington (the second charge, now St. Luke's), and Orangeburg Circuit. His health failed on this last charge, so he took a supernumerary relation and moved to a farm on the Lexington pike, two miles south of Florence, where he resided for thirty-seven years, until he changed his residence to Erlanger in 1912. In 1871 he was married to Eloise Reid, sister of Dr. Clarence F. Reid. No alliance could have been happier than that of George Buffington and Eloise Reid. Mutual respect, abiding affection, and unity of purpose gave to forty-six years of married life a solidity, a joy, and a significance that can hardly be measured. Although President of the bank in Erlanger for four years, he in no sense became secularized. It was an interpretation of a larger opportunity for service during his enforced inactivity in the pulpit, and he supplied small charges in the neighborhood, as he was able, to the end of his life. His noble father gave several thousand dollars to Mexico and a large sum for work in Soochow, China, establishing Buffington Institute, in which at one time, under Dr. A. P. Parker, all our Chinese preachers had been trained. The son himself gave liberally to both these fields and left the bulk of his property to be administered by the General Board of Missions. Sudden heart failure ushered in the end. Rev. C. B. Ribble, of the Christian Church, officiated at the service, Brothers Arnold and Sadler assisting.—W. R. Lambuth.

WILLIAM ALEXANDER PENN, son of Lou-riotious and Nancy Ellis Baird Penn, was born January 30, 1856. From the Penn family he inherited a vivacious, aggressive, noble spirit, while from the splendid Baird family came a pious strain of unadulterated blood. His father died when he was but a boy. Being energetic, he took to business early. When quite young he joined the M. E. Church, South, at Zion Church, on Raven Creek, in Harrison County, Ky. Not being clearly converted, he was frank to seek instruction from mature Christians. While in the academic department of Vanderbilt University, Nashville, Tenn., he was clearly converted and to the day of his translation gave an unequivocal testimony to the knowledge of the witness of the Spirit, and exhorted others to have a similar experience. He also attended the Normal School at Lebanon, Ohio. As a preacher he was not a place seeker, nor did he count popularity; he aimed at usefulness. He was licensed to preach in early manhood, and as a local preacher acceptably filled the unexpired year at Williamstown when the pastor transferred to Florida early in the Conference year of 1885-86. He applied for admission into the traveling connection of the Kentucky Conference in 1886 and continued in the same till September, 1914, when poor health caused him to take the supernumerary relation, which relation he sustained till the call came, on February 4, 1918. In 1887 he was married to Miss Lillian May Tevis, the accomplished and pious daughter of Dr. R. M. Tevis, a cousin of Julia A. Tevis, founder of Science Hill, Shelbyville, Ky. His wife proved a very efficient help and strong support in his work. To this union there remain, to sorrow with the widow, two daughters, Mrs. Naomi Short and Mrs. Jennie Reynolds, and a son, William. In the itinerancy he served Williamstown Circuit one year, Foster's Landing Circuit one year, Berry charge three years, Petersburg two years, Mt. Olivet four years, Visalia one year, Mackville one year, Perryville four years, East Maysville one year, Hinton four years, Oddville four years, and New Columbus four years. He established Penn Grove Camp Ground, Mt. Olivet, Robertson County, in 1893, and held sixteen annual encampments, during which time he brought to the pulpit some very strong preachers and many were saved at the altar. He was a successful and popular pastor, always having conversions and additions to the Church under his ministry. On the morning of February 6, his funeral was conducted in the Methodist Church in Cynthiana. His body was laid to rest in Battle Grove Cemetery.—J. D. Redd.

WILLIAM FLETCHER TAYLOR was the son of Thomas Hinde and Susan B. (Westlake) Taylor, and was born in Crittenden, Ky., January 3, 1839. In his boyhood he attended the common schools and, for a time, a school of higher grade. I do not think he ever had the advantages of a college course. For several years during his early life he engaged in business, and it was probably during this time that he came to Covington and became attached to Scott Street Methodist Church. Here he was converted in October, 1857, and was licensed to preach in April, 1862. In September, 1863, he was admitted on trial into the Kentucky Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and remained in unbroken connection with this body for nearly fifty-five years. He died at St. Petersburg, Fla., April 23, 1918, having entered upon his eightieth year. When Dr. Taylor entered the ministry, he brought to his work a well-disciplined mind and a heart full of devotion to his Master's cause. His piety was always deep and uniform and dominant. He excelled as a pastor. Here was his forte. He loved his people, loved to be among them, and constantly sought their spiritual well-being. In an active ministry of forty-five years Dr. Taylor was pastor of only nine charges. He was agent of Kentucky Wesleyan College one year and presiding elder of the Covington District two years. His first work was Winchester. Then followed four years at Paris and two at Newport, which pastorate was broken at the end of two years by the College Agency of one year. After this he served four years at Versailles, Nicholasville, Danville, Scott Street, then back to Winchester and Danville, then to Shelbyville four years, Maysville two years, Nicholasville again four years, then two years on the Covington District. To three of these charges he gave two terms each, spending twenty-two of the forty-five years at Winchester, Danville, and Nicholasville. Dr. Taylor was a member of the Centennial Conference of Methodism at Baltimore, in 1884, and delivered one of the missionary addresses at that Conference. He was a member of the General Conference at Richmond, Va., in 1886, and also of the General Conference at Birmingham, Ala., in 1906. He was appointed one of the representatives of our Church in the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America in 1906. His devotion to Kentucky Wesleyan College was one of the outstanding features of his life. The service he rendered the college during his lifetime was beyond estimate, and in his death he remembered the college with a bequest of $15,000. On June 30, 1869, Dr. Taylor was married to Miss Mary E. Price, who gave him most loving and tender companionship and was indeed a helper in his work. She died in September, 1906. During his second year on the Covington District Dr. Taylor was stricken with inflammatory rheumatism, and was never able to resume his active labors. He suffered much during these years of affliction, but was patient and uncomplaining. Faith sustained him, the promises of God brought consolation and comfort.—W. E. Arnold.

JOHN R. PEEPLES—was born in Henry County, Tenn., March 20, 1840, and died May 1, 1918. His father was an itinerant Methodist preacher in Tennessee and his mother was a woman of superior Christian character. He was reared in a home of the old-fashioned Methodist type, and was converted and brought into the Church in his early boyhood. He had five brothers, four of whom were Methodist preachers. He began early an educational preparation for usefulness and service, but was interrupted in that preparation by the outbreak of the Civil War. He enlisted in the Confederate army in one of the first companies formed in Tennessee and became a valiant soldier. He received a bullet wound in the spine at the battle of Missionary Ridge, which sent him staggering and suffering to the hospital, and from which he never fully recovered. Many years after the war he suffered a stroke of paralysis as a result of that wound. Sometime during the period of war service he secured a license to preach and afterwards joined the Tennessee Conference. On account of pneumonia and threatened tuberculosis of the lungs he transferred to Texas. From there he was driven the next year by severe chills and fever to St. Louis. The next year he was sent to a prairie circuit in Missouri, where his health was still poor, so he was transferred the next fall to the Kentucky Conference, where he labored long and hard until the Conference placed him on the superannuate list to suffer and wait the Master's will, which he did with manly courage and Christian fortitude. He served prominent circuits and stations, also poor and humble charges, and filled the office of presiding elder with ability and acceptability. His integrity was unquestioned, his faith firm and unshaken, his service loyal and effective. He was a loving and indulgent father, a true and noble husband, a kind and generous neighbor, a wide-awake, public-spirited citizen, a faithful minister of Jesus Christ. His first marriage was to Miss Addie Murphy, of Fulton, Ky. She lived only about two years and died, leaving a daughter, Addie, who was present as a faithful attendant at the bedside of her honored father during his illness, and lives to mourn her loss. His second marriage was to Mrs. Ellen Gardner, of Irvine, Ky., who has been a faithful companion in all his joys and sorrows, and still survives to cherish the memory of her husband. His other two accomplished daughters, Mary and Pauline, are with their mother.—E. G. B. Mann.

Ques. 22. Are all the preachers blameless in their life and official administration? Their names were called, one by one, and their characters passed, except in the case of George Froh. Rumors affecting his character having been reported to the Conference, the presiding elder of the Shelbyville District was instructed to investigate his case.

Ques. 23. What is the number of local preachers and members in the several circuits, stations, and missions of the Conference?

Ques. 21. What preachers have died during the past year? A. C. Browning. 1.

A. C. BROWNING was born at Highland, Doniphan County, Kans., Oct. 20, 1860. His parents, George W. and Nancy Browning, were members of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. Brother Browning was converted at Moberly, Mo., in January, 1886, under the ministry of L. B. Madison, and united with the Moberly Methodist Church on February 26, 1886. His conversion was an old-time conversion, and his growth in grace was gradual but continuous. In 1889, at the Second Quarterly Conference of the Moberly Station, the Missouri Conference licensed him to preach. T. G. Whitten was preacher in charge and J. H. Pritchett presiding elder. The Queen City Circuit recommended Brother Browning for admission on trial into the Annual Conference in June, 1890, and in September he was received into the Missouri Conference on trial at Fayette, Mo., Bishop Joseph S. Key presiding. In September, 1892, he was ordained as deacon at Montgomery City, Mo., by Bishop Charles B. Galloway, and was ordained as an elder by Bishop E. R. Hendrix at Carrollton, Mo., in September, 1894. The following charges were served by him: Queen City Circuit, Callao Circuit, Shelbina Circuit, Brockfield Station, Kirksville Station, Plattsburg Station, and Liberty Station. In addition to these pastorates, he served as presiding elder on the Mexico, Plattsburg, and Gallatin Districts. It was during his last year on the Gallatin District that the sickness that resulted in his death, on June 15, 1918, was contracted. Brother Browning was sick for something over a year, but during the whole time manifested a spirit of patience, and unto the end earnestly tried to get well, that he might engage again in the work that was so dear to him, the preaching of the gospel of the kingdom. His remains were buried in Oakland Cemetery, Moberly, Mo., June 17, 1918. C. N. Broadhurst and S. E. Hoover had charge of the funeral service. Quite a number of his brethren of the Missouri Conference were present and took part in the service.—A. C. Johnson.

Ques. 22. Are all the preachers blameless in their life and official administration? Their names were called, one by one, and their characters examined and passed.

Ques. 23. What is the number of local preachers and members in the several circuits, stations, and missions of the Conference?

JAMES W. PAYNE was born in Fauquier County, Va., April 24, 1849; died January 12, 1918, in the sixty-ninth year of his life. He died at his home, in Kansas City, Kans., surrounded by his loving family. He came with his parents to Missouri in 1867. In 1886, at Atchison, Kans., he was married to Miss Jessie Harrison, who, with two sons and four daughters, survives him. He united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, when a young man, and was licensed to preach in 1874, his first charge being Nebraska City Station. For thirty years he was a member of the Western Conference, and served the following charges: Atchison, Kansas City, Council Grove, Arkansas City, Bucyrus, Wyandotte Circuit, and as presiding elder in Kansas. He had two full quadrenniums each in Council Grove and Seventh Street Church, Kansas City, receiving an appointment of one year to the latter on the third quadrennium. This unusual record indicates the strength of his character and the popularity of the man. His keen wit and cheerful disposition overcame the handicap of dullness in hearing. He was a favorite with the people, a loved pastor, and a strong preacher of the gospel of Christ and the peculiar doctrines of Methodism. His preaching was always spiritual, often pathetic, and sometimes powerful. He was a true itinerant Methodist preacher, always accepting his appointment without complaint. If it was a hard place, he set himself to make it better. He served the Church well during the years of active ministry, and retired to the inactive roll gracefully. We all remember how pathetic his last message was, when he asked to be placed in the superannuated relation. Through this message, as through the whole life of this good man and faithful preacher, runs the vein of cheerful submission to the will of God and the wish of his brethren. His end was as peaceful as the close of a perfect day. He was tenderly laid to rest by loving hands in the Oak Grove Cemetery, after a beautiful service in the Seventh Street Church.

JOHN C. SHACKLEFORD was born in Saline County, Mo., August 4, 1829. As he grew to manhood amid the surroundings of a simple farm life, his active mind took hold upon great things, and he early formed the resolve to get an education. Following this resolve, he went to Yale College (afterwards university) and applied himself as only those do who hunger for knowledge. He took the full college course, receiving the M.A. degree. He then decided to study law, and while engaged in this the Westminster Confession of Faith attracted his attention. He took it up and became deeply moved and greatly perplexed religiously. While passing through this experience he was impressed that he must give up law and take up the ministry. At this time he had an opportunity to visit a session of the Missouri Annual Conference. There he met such men as Marvin, Capers, and others. As he observed them he thought that they were the happiest men he had ever seen, and he resolved at once to enter the same work. In 1854, at the age of twenty-five, he joined the St. Louis Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. For ten years he gave himself without stint to preaching "Christ and him crucified." His health failed under the hard work of the pioneer preacher, and he took the supernumerary relation. From this time on he was effective at intervals, as health and circumstances would permit, but always an itinerant to the last. He was for sixty-four years in the harness. He was married to Miss Martha Neal on November 6, 1858. Four children were born to this union. Two sons died young, but his two daughters, Mrs. Saylor (wife of Rev. J. C. Saylor, of Marshfield) and Miss Emma, survive him. These ministered to him with great tenderness during his feebleness and last illness. Brother Shackelford was a scholarly man. Besides having a college education, he applied himself to the reading of great books and the study of great questions. He contributed to the Church papers and was the author of many pamphlets, etc. He was a man of deep convictions, and had remarkable moral and spiritual force. He died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Saylor, on July 11, 1918. He passed away as a child falls to sleep. He was buried at Sweet Springs, Mo., beside his companion, to await the resurrection of the just.

WILLIAM ARTHUR BREWER quietly and suddenly passed to his home above from his earthly home in Springfield, Mo., on April 15, 1918. He was born in Indiana on April 7, 1854, and came West with his parents when a boy. At Anadarko, Okla., at the Southern Methodist Mission, on February 7, 1892, he was married to Miss Elizabeth Shiak, who, with their two daughters, survives him. The year of his marriage he was also converted, and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. On the following day he was licensed to preach. In November, 1892, he was admitted on trial into the Indian Mission Conference. For four years he served as a missionary to the Comanche and Kiowa Indians, preaching in huts and tents, suffering the privations and hardships of those uncivilized peoples, and preaching the gospel of the grace of God to the rude savage. In 1901 he was transferred to the Western Conference, and for five years he did heroic and faithful work in this difficult field. He often walked his circuit and preached three times a day. He became a member of this Conference in 1906, where he faithfully served the following charges: Niangua, Lowry City, Norwood, and Sleeper. Three years ago his health failed, and he was given the superannuate relation by the Conference. He was an untiring worker, a strong preacher, and possessed a well-stored mind and a warm heart. Uncomplainingly he set himself to the hardest tasks, and succeeded. He was a most careful student of the Bible and well versed in its teaching. He excelled in exegesis. His sermons were strong and his thought clear. His manner was serious and devout. He leaves behind him the influence of a godly life. He was engaged in revising some manuscript when the end came. The last sentence placed is: "O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory?" Then he calmly fell asleep.

W. M. MCALLISTER, who for many years was a faithful servant of his Lord, an efficient minister of the gospel, and an honored member of this Conference, departed this life in great peace in the eighty-ninth year of his age. He joined the Conference in 1876, and did effective work for many years, until he was compelled by failing health to retire from the active ministry. His preaching was clear, strong, and convincing; his conduct so gentle and kind that he won and held men by the force of his Christian character. His devotion to the work of the ministry secured for him the esteem of his brethren that will linger now that he is gone from us. We pray that the mantle of his saintly life will fall upon other shoulders. We shall miss him. The end of his earthly life came in peace, and his body was buried in the soil of Oklahoma, to await the resurrection.

JACOB SHOOK died in the hospital at Springfield, where he had been taken from his home in Morrisville, Mo., for special care. He was seventy-two years of age at the time of his death, and had been a minister of the Southwest Missouri Conference since 1889. In the later years of his life he sustained the superannuate relation. During the years of his active service he faithfully and efficiently performed that part of the work to which he had been assigned. Brother Shook lived well, preached well, and was loved by the people among whom he lived and labored. Peace to his memory.

JAMES COLUMBUS PETRIE died at his late home, in Elkton, Ky., March 6, 1918, in the eighty-seventh year of his life. He was the son of Hazel G. and Paulina S. Petrie, and was born in Todd County, near Elkton, Ky., July 8, 1831. He had the good fortune to be well born. His parents belonged to that class of people who were noted for their frugality, industry, and piety. Their home was the preaching place in that community for the pioneer Methodist preachers, where Cartwright, Axley, and others laid the foundations of Methodism in that early day. Speaking of his early experience, he said: "I cannot remember a time when I did not feel that God intended that I should be a preacher." His educational advantages were limited to the public schools of his day, with one year in Cumberland University, at Lebanon, Tenn. At the age of sixteen he was converted at a camp meeting, held at Herman, near Elkton, Ky., and united with the M. E. Church, South. At the same place, by a Quarterly Conference which was held on August 20, 1853, under the presidency of Dr. N. H. Lee, he was granted a license to preach and recommended to the Annual Conference for admission on trial. Accordingly, he was received on trial by the Conference which met at Owensboro on October 3, 1853. He thus began a ministry which reaches across a period of more than half a century of our country's history. During the fifty years of his active work he filled the following appointments: From October, 1853, to October, 1854, junior preacher on the Cadiz and Lafayette Circuit; 1854-55, West Point; 1855-56, Eighth Street, Louisville; 1856-57, Lafayette Circuit; 1857-58, Smithland; 1858-59, Bowling Green, 1859-60, Smithland; 1860-61, Middletown; 1861-63, Cadiz Circuit; 1863-64, Hopkinsville and Elkton; 1864-66, Lafayette; 1866-67, Fairview; 1867-69, Hopkinsville; 1869-71, Allensville; 1871-75, Adairville; 1875-79, Corydon; 1879-83, Elkton Circuit; 1883-87, Morganfield Circuit; 1887-91, Hardinsburg; 1891-92, Henderson; 1892-96, Trenton Circuit; 1896-98, Corydon; 1898-99, Elkton Circuit; 1899-1903, Hartford Circuit. This completed for him fifty years in the active ministry, and at the session of the Conference which was held in Marion, Ky., in October, 1903, he asked for and was granted a superannuate relation, which relation he held at the time of his death. A study of his record as written by his own hand will show that his success as a preacher was unusual, and that he was acceptable in every place to which he was sent. He made the unusual and enviable record of filling eight quadrenniums during his fifty years of active work. This speaks volumes as to his faithfulness and popularity. Few among us have been more successful in winning souls. He was unique in his personality. His independence of established customs and traditions made him interesting and entertaining. While perfect frankness characterized him in expressing his opinions, he was never lacking in that courtesy which has regard for the feelings and opinions of others. He was preeminently a man of prayer. Early in his Christian life he formed the habit of praying three times a day, and this he continued with little interruption for sixty years. While stationed at Smithland, Ky., he had the good fortune to meet Miss Annie Wilson. Their acquaintance soon ripened into love, and during his pastorate at Bowling Green they were joined together in holy wedlock, on November 22, 1858. This was a happy marriage, and yielded much of genuine pleasure and contentment in his life. It also made a large contribution to his popularity and success as a minister of Jesus Christ. Two noble sons live to revere the memory of their sainted parents, while other children passed on years ago to await the coming of father and mother on the other shore. For forty-three years this faithful wife walked by his side in the pathway of life. Sharing with him uncomplainingly the hardships and toils, as well as the joys and triumphs of his ministry, she was a constant source of inspiration in his work; but in 1901 she entered upon eternal life. On September 15, 1903, he was married to Miss Amanda Walton, who survives him. For about fifteen years she was to him a constant companion, and the source of great pleasure and contentment. On his last Sabbath on earth he was able to attend both the morning and evening services at the house of God, and was heard to refer frequently on the following day to the great pleasure and profit derived from the day of worship. Those who were present on that day will not soon forget the spirit of fervor and unction in which he offered the last public prayer of his consecrated and prayerful life. On the following day his feebleness and illness increased. Loving hands and medical skill did all that could be done to bring relief, but his illness grew worse until the following Wednesday, March 6, 1918, when his spirit was released from its house of clay into the "house not made with hands."—T. L. Hulse.

WILLIAM THOMAS REID was born in Ohio County, Ky., November 3, 1823. He was the son of devout parents, who had united with the Methodist Church on the day of their wedding and reared their children in the atmosphere of Christian love. He was converted in early life and was for a number of years useful in the Church as a layman. In 1858 he was licensed to preach, without his request, and the following fall accompanied his pastor to the meeting of the Louisville Annual Conference. He said of himself that he was a timid man and would not ask for an appointment, but when the appointments were read he found himself as a supply on the Green River Circuit, which lay between Henderson and Owensboro. About this time he was married to Miss Mary Smothers, of Owensboro, Ky., who lived only a few years. Their one child, Mrs. Mary Laydon, of Winona, Mo., died some two years ago. In 1859 he was admitted on trial into the traveling connection and reassigned to the Green River Mission. Brother Reid served the following charges: Whiteside Mission, 1860; Flint Island Mission, 1861-62; Smithland Circuit, 1863; Empire Iron Works, 1864; Eddyville, 1865-66; Smithland Circuit, 1867-68; supernumerary, 1869-73; Parkersville Circuit, 1873-74; supernumerary, 1875-82; Kuttawa Circuit, 1882-83; supernumerary, 1884-87; superannuated, 1888 until death. The most fruitful years of Brother Reid's ministry were spent in that territory which extends from Smithland to Hopkinsville. He had under his care at one time the whole of that territory. He delighted to tell of those early days of his ministry, and often referred with joy to the fact that in one year he saw over four hundred persons converted and united with the Church on his circuit. In April, 1865, he was married to Miss Mary A. Martin, and they journeyed together for more than forty years. On May 13, 1908, Sister Reid went home to God. To them were born five daughters, who survive, and one son, who died some years past. The daughters are Mrs. George W. Stone, of Marion, Ky.; Mrs. J. H. Cummings, wife of Rev. J. H. Cummings, of Tillar, Ark.; Mrs. D. F. Brightwell, of Kuttawa, Ky.; Mrs. Lillian Reid, of Sikeston, Mo.; and Mrs. Frank Weber, of Union City, Mich. Some thirty years ago Brother Reid's throat gave way and he was forced to retire from the active ministry. He located on a farm near Glenn's Chapel, in Lyon County, and here continued his ministry as a respected neighbor, friend, and minister. It was the privilege of the writer to see Brother Reid often during the four months of his last illness, and he was always cheerful, bright, and joyous in the love of Christ. He talked of little else but preaching, Conference, and the friends of the early days. He would often sing, pray, preach, and exhort the people to repent of their sins and trust in Christ. The last few years of his life Brother Reid had been quite feeble, and made his home with his two daughters in Kuttawa and Marion. On Christmas day he fell in his room and injured his hip, and from that time he was confined to his bed. His stream of life gradually ebbed away, until Saturday, May 11, 1918, he slipped away to be with those on the other shore. The funeral services were conducted the following Monday morning at Glenn's Chapel, in Lyon County, Ky., and the remains laid to rest in the little cemetery close by the church.—H. R. Short.

WILLIAM WALKER PRINE was born April 12, 1846; died on an Illinois Central train March 13, 1918, one month short of his seventy-second year. At the age of fifteen he enlisted in the Union Army, Company G, 30th Illinois Volunteers, December 1, 1861. At Vicksburg he reenlisted as veteran volunteer, same company and regiment, serving till the end of the war, being honorably discharged July 17, 1865, at Louisville, Ky. He immediately went to Chicago, took a business course, and went into business with an uncle. In 1877 he joined the Illinois Conference, Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and filled appointments in that Conference for several years. He became a member of the Louisville Conference in 1882, serving faithfully until his superannuation in 1911. He was severely wounded in battle, was for some time in the hospital, and from this he suffered all the remainder of his days. He filled the following appointments in our Conference: Cumberland Circuit, Temple Hill Circuit, Magnolia Circuit, Bradfordsville, Buffalo, Mannsville, Sacramento, Cerulean Springs, Eddyville, Smithland, Grand Rivers, Franklin Circuit, Yelvington, South Carrollton, Hebbardsville, Beech Grove, Richardsville, Woodburn, and Rochester. In 1868 he was married to Miss Emerine E. Owen, who died in 1875; in 1877 to Miss Sarah E. Lawson, who died in 1887; in 1888 to Mrs. George Brownfield Fisher, who died in 1914. To each of these unions three children were born, of whom five are living: Mrs. S. A. Beauchamp, Alva, Okla.; Mrs. Thomas B. Terhune, New Albany, Ind.; Mr. A. E. Prine, Paducah, Ky.; Mr. E. S. Prine, Wellsburg, W. Va.; and Mr. Gordon M. Prine, of Missouri. A sister, Mrs. Abigail Johnson, of Poplar Bluff, Mo., also survives him. Brother Prine was a gentleman of high ideals, ardent enthusiasm, sunny disposition, utterly fearless, and loyal to his friends, his convictions, his country, his Church, and his Lord. He was a well-informed man, being a student and reader of good books. His preaching was not of the popular sort, but was always thoughtful and free from controversy. He filled many hard fields, but was never heard to complain. His funeral services were conducted by Revs. George E. Foskett and S. J. Thompson at the Hutchinson Presbyterian Church, in New Albany, Ind., where his son-in-law, Rev. Thomas B. Terhune, is pastor. His body was buried in Cave Hill National Cemetery, Louisville, Ky., March 16, 1918.—S. J. Thompson.

JOHN W. LEWIS was born April 10, 1846, in the village of Keysburg, Logan County, Ky., where he grew to manhood. His parents were Napoleon B. and Margaret Elizabeth Lewis. His father was a member of the Louisville Conference. His education began in the Keysburg village school. At the age of sixteen he attended a school taught by Rev. Mr. Campbell at the headwaters of Muddy River. After two years in this school he secured a position as teacher in a district school at Henryville (now Lewisburg), Ky. About this time, while spending a day with Rev. George R. Browder at his home near Olmstead, as they were walking across a field, that saintly man turned to young Lewis and said: "John Lewis, has not the Lord called you to preach?" On receiving an affirmative answer, he added: "I thought so." (Have we lost the art of discerning those whom the Lord has called to his service?) John Lewis immediately set about preparing himself for the work of the ministry. The farm was sold and with his portion, about $2,000, he entered Kentucky Wesleyan College, then located at Millersburg. Shortly before graduation John Lewis left Kentucky Wesleyan, partly because of impaired health and partly because of eagerness to get at his life's work. While at Millersburg he had been licensed to exhort at a Quarterly Conference presided over by Dr. Charles W. Miller, one of the great men of Kentucky Methodism. In the summer of 1869 he was licensed to preach at a Quarterly Conference held at Fairview, Christian County. That same summer the health of his lifelong friend, Rev. George R. Browder, failed because of throat trouble, and John W. Lewis filled the appointment until Conference. I knew Dr. Lewis intimately for a quarter of a century, and never once did I hear him utter any word that was not chaste and refined. In the fall of 1869 he was admitted on trial into the Louisville Conference. His first appointment was the Franklin Circuit. At the Conference held at Greensburg in the fall of 1870 he was sent to Glasgow Station, where he met his future wife, Miss Lucy Donaldson, of Bowling Green. She made an ideal parsonage wife, pure, loving, and kind. Together they walked in joy and sorrow until God called her home a short two years before Dr. Lewis fell on sleep. It is not necessary in this sketch to enumerate in detail the different pastorates of Dr. Lewis. Early making his mark as a preacher of unusual ability, he was soon in demand in the leading charges in the Conference: Lebanon, Elizabethtown, Olmstead Circuit, Hopkinsville Station (eight years), Jefferson Street, Henderson Station, Middletown Circuit, Chestnut Street (Louisville), State Street (Bowling Green), Walnut Street (Louisville), Louisville District, Lebanon District. In the fall of 1901 he decided to transfer South and was appointed pastor at Central Church, Meridian, Miss. Here he remained two years and was then sent to the Jackson District. A year later he was appointed presiding elder of the Nashville District, Tennessee

Conference; and although this district passed unanimous resolutions asking for his reappointment, he was transferred a year later back to his old Conference and appointed presiding elder of the Owensboro District. Then followed four years on the Hopkinsville District, making in all a residence of twelve years in that splendid and progressive city. He was then appointed to the Bowling Green District, where he remained for four years. At the close of his quadrennium on this district he was appointed pastor at Portland Avenue Church, Louisville. Here he served four years, when he was appointed to the Woodburn Avenue Church, a new mission on the Bardstown Road. Here he was serving with great acceptability when the illness came that ended his earthly life on April 10, 1918. In addition to his pastoral activities he served the Church in other capacities: as a member of the General Conference, as a delegate to the Ecumenical Conference held in Washington, D. C., in May, 1891, as a member of the General Board of Church Extension, and as the editor of the Central Methodist. The pulpit was his throne. He was indeed a great preacher, possessing an unusual gift of interpretation, marked lucidity of style, and at times marvelous beauty of expression. Some of his sermons were accompanied by great spiritual power. He believed in revivals, and blessed seasons of refreshing and conversion accompanied his whole ministry. Hundreds who were led to Christ through his ministrations will rise up in that day and call him blessed. He was a loyal son of the Church. Having pledged himself to her discipline and doctrine at the altar, he had no patience with any lack of loyalty on the part of those in her ranks. This writer was with him much in his last illness, and heard him speak much of the goodness of God. To some of us who knew and loved him, to whom he was a steadfast and un-failing friend, his home-going has left us bereaved and poorer in regard to mortal sight and touch, yet strangely rich in the memory of a noble and gifted life. He has left a large gap in the ranks of the Louisville Conference. Let us close it with more love for each other and with deep and tender sympathy for his children. These are Mr. Marvin H. Lewis, Mrs. George Newman, Mr. John W. Lewis, Jr., Rev. James E. Lewis (a local preacher in the Baltimore Conference), Mr. Howard Lewis, Mrs. May Dunlap, and Mrs. Joseph Will.—Frank M. Thomas.

EDWARD MARTIN GIBBONS.—After seventy mileposts had been passed, the end was reached in triumph, on that May day, when the death angel swooped down from the City of God to the vine-clad cottage among the trees at Horse Cave, Ky., and bore the spirit of the saintly Edward Martin Gibbons to his eternal home. He joined the old Shelby Street Church, Louisville, September 28, 1864, under the ministry of Rev. James H. Owen. He joined the Church as a seeker, and was afterwards converted on the street, on his way home from work. He preached in Louisville as a local preacher for ten years before he entered the itinerancy. He was received on trial into the traveling connection in the fall of 1879 at Madisonville, Ky. He was a systematic student, got much out of his theological course, and was a strong preacher, sound in his theology. He was a successful revivalist. He loved the work of the ministry, and it was a sore disappointment to him when, because of failing health, he was forced to retire from the active work. It was a great joy to him to preach the gospel. During the several years that he sustained a superannuate relation to the Conference he often preached, and for a time he was employed as preacher in charge on the Highland and Munfordville Missions. During his superannuation he never lost interest in the Church he loved so well, and when unable to preach he was faithful to attend Church services. He manifested great interest in the Sunday school and Epworth League, and during his last illness he talked much about the cause to which he had so fully given himself. After a hard-fought battle, he passed away on May 4, 1918. Early in his ministry he was married to Miss Mattie L. Vance, who lives to mourn her great loss. To this union was born one son, Walter Gibbons. Brother Gibbons was a great lover of men. He was ardent in his friendship—never forgot a friend. He was kind and gentle in his disposition, and was careful not to give offense. I have rarely known a humbler man than he was. He made no attempt at display and never sought preferment. His spirit of humility and loyalty was beautiful. He had a great passion for souls. When he was in charge of my home circuit, he invited me to help him in a revival meeting in my old home church. We had a great revival. I remember how fervently he prayed and labored for the people—his people—and how he did magnify the Lord in the salvation of the lost. Many will rise up and call him blessed. The following are the charges he filled: Wayne Circuit, one year; Mt. Lebanon, one year; Burkesville, one year; Morgantown, one year; Nashville, Ind., one year; Burnside, one year; Albany, one year; Glasgow Junction, two years; Shady Grove, two years; Carrsville, one year; Canton, one year; Beech Grove, one year; Morgantown, one year; Grand Rivers, one year; Carrsville, one year; New Haven, two years; Falls of Rough, two years; Stephensport, two years; West Point, two years; Big Clifty, one year. His race is run, the warfare is past, and our brother is crowned at last.—S. G. Shelley.

PITT CUMBERLAND DUVAL was born in Nashville, Tenn., November 22, 1850. His father, Colmore Duvall, was a Methodist, and his mother, Elizabeth Duvall, was a Baptist. He was converted at the Bethesda Church, Trigg County, Ky., in November, 1866, at the early age of sixteen years, under the ministry of Rev. T. C. Peters. He united with the Baptist Church at Blue Springs, Ky. At the age of thirty-one years, he united with the Methodist Church, and in 1882 was licensed to preach by Rev. E. M. Crowe, presiding elder of the Princeton District. He received his education in the public schools of the country, attending a school of higher grade about six months. He was admitted on trial into the traveling connection at Elizabethtown in October, 1882, admitted into full connection and ordained a deacon by Bishop McTyeire, at Louisville, Ky., in October, 1884, and ordained an elder at Bowling Green, Ky., in September, 1890, by Bishop Hargrove. His appointments were as follows: Empire Mission, Carrsville Mission, Smithland Circuit, and Shady Grove Circuit. In 1887 he located, but supplied the Canton Circuit the last half of the year. In 1888 he was readmitted and sent to the Hanson Circuit, and then as follows: Sacramento, Carrsville, Seabee, Slaughterville, Robards, Hopkinsville Circuit, Calhoun, Elizabethtown District, Sonora, Allensville, South Carrollton, Owensboro Circuit, Eddyville, Brandenburg, Lewisport, Beech Grove, and Corydon, which was his last appointment, and from which, after preaching only a few sermons, he passed to his reward. He was married in Trigg County, Ky., April 23, 1873, to Miss Sarah A. Smith, who died November 30, 1884. He was married again January 24, 1886, in Livingston County, Ky., to Miss Emma A. Ford, a daughter of Dr. Ford. Mrs. Duvall was an excellent woman and a faithful companion, in hearty sympathy with her husband in his work. A daughter of this marriage, Mrs. Carr, lives at Burkesville, Ky. I do not know about the other children, but of the two unions I understand there were ten children. Several years ago Sister Duvall died, and a short time before he died, perhaps one or two years, he married again. From the Conference at Hopkinsville, one year ago, he was sent to Corydon. He moved to his new charge and began his labor, but very soon his work was done and he was called to his reward. He had a strong mind, and made good use of the limited opportunities that he had. I followed him on the Elizabethtown District; and although he was sent to one of the charges in the district which was but a little above the average, yet he raised no objection, served it without complaint, and was especially considerate and kind to his presiding elder, cooperating with him in all the enterprises of the Church. He was true to his friends. In his home they always found a cordial welcome. Our brother has answered to the roll call up yonder. He leaves a widow and children to mourn their loss.—S. G. Shelley.

DANIEL T. TARTER, son of Powers and Mary J. Tarter, was born March 17, 1859. He was married to Miss Elizabeth Perkins on July 31, 1879. He was kind and tender as a husband, a good neighbor, and always ready to help any one in need. He was "born of the Spirit" on November 11, 1885, and joined the M. E. Church, South, at New Liberty Church. He was licensed to preach in 1886, under the pastorate of Rev. A. C. Gentle, the Rev. E. R. Harrison being the presiding elder. He felt the call to preach the gospel soon after his conversion. After being fully convinced that the Lord wanted him to make the ministry his life work, he saw his need of a better education and immediately applied himself to securing better preparation for the "battle against sin." So he and his faithful wife sold most of their few belongings and he entered high school at Millerstown, Ky., where he put in three years of hard study. At the end of this time he was appointed to the Brownsville Circuit as supply for one year. Next he supplied the Glasgow Junction Circuit for two years, then the Temple Hill Circuit for one year as supply. He was admitted on trial into the Louisville Conference at Madisonville, Ky., about the last of September, 1895. That year he was transferred to the Arkansas Conference, where he was appointed to the Dover Circuit, in Pope County, Ark., which he filled very acceptably and efficiently for two years. Next he was appointed to the Martinsville Circuit, where he did a most excellent work for two years. Then his health failed and he was transferred back to his home Conference in October, 1899, and appointed to the Munfordville Circuit, which he served only one year. Next he was appointed to the Clinton charge, which he served two years, then he was again appointed to the Temple Hill Circuit, where he performed three years of most excellent service; then he served the Tompkinsville Circuit two years, Rennox Circuit four years, Jamestown four years, then the Slaughtertown Circuit two years, when his health gave way, and he was compelled to take a superannuate relation. He was superannuated at the session of the Conference held in Hopkinsville, Ky., in September, 1917. He deeply regretted to give up "his loved employ," but cancer was doing its fatal work, and there was no other alternative. He suffered intensely for more than twelve months, but I heard no word of complaint from his lips. Finally he went to the famous Mayo Brothers in Rochester, Minn., where the cancer was removed, but twelve days later, on January 31, 1918, he answered the "roll call of the skies." He had a passion for souls, and hundreds were converted under his ministry and added to the Church. Brother Tarter was one of the sweetest-spirited men I ever knew. He was pure and clean in thought and in person. I never heard him say an unkind word of any one. Those who knew him longest loved him best. When the end was near, he sent a message of love and good cheer to his heart-broken wife and relatives.—J. S. Mitchell.

Ques. 21. What preachers have died during the past year? William Lowe. 1.

WILLIAM LOWE, son of Rev. Robert E. and Elizabeth Cook Lowe, was born in Bakewell, Derbyshire, England, December 8, 1842, and was licensed to preach when but a mere boy. He came to America when twelve years of age, landing in New York, where he remained until he reached the age of manhood. He married Emily Harrison, of that city, and later moved to North Carolina. Six children were born to them: Charles, William, Robert, Emily (now Mrs. George Babcock), Fred, and Beulah. The wife, Beulah, and William preceded him to the heavenly land; Charles lives in Freeport, L. I., Fred in St. Louis, Robert in Morehouse, and Emily in Poplar Bluff. He first joined the Annual Conference in North Carolina a few years before coming to Missouri, the exact date not known. He came to our Conference as a transfer in 1889, and was stationed at Dexter, where he remained for two years, when he was sent to Bertrand. He served as pastor twice at Dexter, Bertrand, Bellefontaine, Poplar Bluff, New Madrid, Arcadia, Lutesville, Washington, and Eureka. It was during his pastorate at New Madrid that his daughter Beulah died, and while at Eureka his faithful companion passed away. William died in St. Louis soon after his marriage. Brother Lowe was popular with his people wherever he went. His sermons were full of deep thought, and were much appreciated by people who enjoyed hearing a message filled with profitable information and who wished instruction in the truths of the gospel. He was full of life, and at all times optimistic. He was a good husband and father. He did much for his children, and they were devoted to him. Any person who could count him as a friend was fortunate indeed, for no one ever found a truer one than he. He was of a poetical turn of mind, and many of his poems have real merit. At the Conference session held at Kirkwood, in 1911, he asked for and received a superannuate relation, in which he remained until death. Sometime in the early spring of this year he had a slight stroke of apoplexy, from which he never fully recovered. The end came quite suddenly. On the evening of May 1 he was reading, when his daughter and her husband left him to drive into town, where they remained for about one and one-half hours. On their return he had retired for the night, which proved to be that night of sleep that has no awakening until the great awakening at the resurrection. On entering the house they heard him coughing, so went to him, only to find him dying, but not unconscious. Among his last words were: "I believe the end is almost here"; a little later, "I shall soon know what is before me"; after a pause, "Have come through great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb"; again, "O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory? Thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen, amen, amen." A few moments later he passed away. He was a member of the Masonic fraternity, having his membership at Dexter, where he was greatly loved and admired. His funeral was conducted by his former pastor and friend, Rev. R. L. Russell, and his body was laid to rest in the cemetery at Crescent, Mo., by the side of those of his wife and son William. Thus ended a well-spent life.—W. A. Humphreys.

Ques. 22. Are all the preachers blameless in their life and official administration? Their names were called, one by one, and their characters examined and passed.

Ques. 23. What is the number of local preachers and members in the several circuits, stations, and missions of the Conference?

GEORGE WARD was born in Cheshire, England, about seventy-one years ago. He was educated for the ministry of the Wesleyan Methodist Church, but failing in health he came to the United States and was received into the itineracy of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. After a few years of arduous labor in the West Texas Conference he took the local preacher's relation. He came to the New Mexico Conference and served as a supply in the formation of a circuit embracing Fort Stockton, Fort Davis, Shafter, Marathon, and Sanderson, where he labored most abundantly. He was readmitted into full connection at the Conference held in

Deming in 1901, and has served the following charges and circuits: Fort Davis, Watrous, Magdalena, Odessa, Fort Stockton, and Toyah, taking a superannuate relation at the Conference held in Artesia in 1910. Brother Ward was a good preacher, well grounded in the doctrines of the Bible as proclaimed from Methodist pulpits everywhere. He was gentle and kind in his character, firm in his convictions, and faithful in the discharge of his duty. When he was superannuated he made his home in Fort Davis and was of great service in that charge, assisting in prayer meetings and Sunday school. For the last two or three years of his life he suffered much, but passed away peacefully to his eternal home on October 9, 1917.

Ques. 22. Are all the preachers blameless in their life and official administration? Their names were called, one by one, and their characters examined and passed.

Ques. 23. What is the number of local preachers and members in the several circuits, stations, and missions of the Conference?

Ques. 21. What preachers have died during the year? Alexander Green Dinwiddie, Green P. Jackson, Madison W. Charles, James Wiley Faires. 4

ALEXANDER GREEN DINWIDDIE was born in Montgomery County, Tenn., July 12, 1840, and died in Columbia, Tenn., January 8, 1918, making him nearly seventy-eight years of age. He joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, at the age of seventeen and was licensed to preach the gospel the same year. He joined the Tennessee Conference at the age of nineteen years. He was a faithful Methodist preacher for more than fifty years. Dr. Dinwiddie's opportunities for securing an education were very limited; but being possessed of a fine mind, a good memory, and an ambition to succeed, he acquired an education beyond many who were more favorably situated. He was a close student and read widely. He was an eloquent preacher and a faithful pastor. He began and ended his ministry in the town of Columbia, Maury County, Tenn., where he joined the Conference. Dr. Dinwiddie filled all grades of appointments, from circuits up through the leading stations and districts. He transferred from the Tennessee to the St. Louis Conference, where for eight years he filled some of the leading pulpits; then for eight years he was in the Southwest Missouri Conference. He then came back to the Tennessee Conference to live and die among the friends of his first love. Dr. Dinwiddie was an honorable man—as gentle as a woman, as guileless as a child. He was congenial and sunny-spirited. His name will live and linger in the memory of all who knew him. On November 19, 1861, he was married to Miss Rachel Odil, who was indeed a helpmeet to him amid all the vicissitudes of a Methodist minister's life. "Granny," as she is affectionately called (God bless her!), and four children survive him—one son and three daughters. After services by the writer of this memoir, assisted by Dr. Capers, of the Columbia Institute, we buried him in the cemetery where he had buried so many to sleep until God shall bid them come forth.—W. T. Haggard.

GREEN P. JACKSON, the son of Green and Huldah L. P. (Joslin) Jackson, was born March 27, 1840, in Dickson County, Tenn. He was born in a Christian atmosphere and grew up amid godly influences. He took to all the opportunities which his day offered for the improvement of his talents and was a most diligent and painstaking student to the end of his days. At the age of fifteen he was converted, uniting at once with the Church in whose fellowship he lived for over threescore years. He entertained that vital faith which transforms the things of the spirit world into the most real entities of the soul. His conversion typed his whole ministry, which was always zealous, fervid, evangelic, and evangelistic. He despaired of no one, but labored for and believed in the possibility of the salvation of the most wicked and degenerate among men. At twenty years of age he joined the Conference at Clarks-ville and for nearly a half century served the Church with zeal and fidelity. His first two years' service was as a supply. From that time forward he served independently on circuits, in stations, and on districts, filling with great credit every place from the poorest charges to the best. He was a most diligent pastor. He was a reader of great books and many of them. His library was well selected and constantly used. But his great study was the Bible. He was painstaking in the preparation of his sermons, so that he was never hard to understand nor tiresome to listen to, but made himself clear to all, his chief aim being to convince the mind, stir the heart, and lead men to an immediate acceptance of the truth. Brother Jackson was a most gentle and brotherly man, full of wit and good humor. He was the author of several books, one of which is an autobiography that is a most readable book, as it shows much of the prevailing conditions under which our Church in Tennessee has had its growth and development. Brother Jackson was ripe for heaven. There were no clouds in his evening sky. He often expressed a "desire to depart and be with Christ." The end came very much as he wished. In the blush of the coming spring his soul went out to greet the Easter dawn of the eternal morning.—T. C. Ragsdale.

MADISON WILSON CHARLES was born near Manchester, Coffee County, Tenn., March 19, 1856, and died at his home, in Hohenwald, Tenn., February 9, 1918. Brother Charles professed religion and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, at old Asbury, near Hillsboro, Tenn., in his nineteenth year. He was married to Miss Louella Johnson, of Murfreesboro, Tenn., on June 11, 1885, and joined the Tennessee Conference at Fayetteville, Tenn., in October, 1888. He served the following charges: Dover Circuit, one year; Shady Grove Circuit, one year; Marble Plains Circuit, two years; Fayetteville Circuit, one year; Unionville Circuit, two years; Medium Circuit, two years; Sparta Circuit, two years; Olivet Circuit, one year; Linden Circuit, one year. He was in the active ministry only nineteen years. He superannuated twelve years ago on account of failing health. He is survived by his widow, three sons, and one daughter, as follows: J. M. Charles, Monroe, La.; E. L. Charles, who is now a soldier in France; Orman Charles, of Hohenwald, Tenn.; and Genevieve Charles Hyde, of Hartsville, Tenn. He also had one daughter to die at Soule Female College, Murfreesboro, Tenn., February 14, 1904. His educational advantages were limited, but he applied himself diligently. He was buried at Hohenwald, Tenn., with Masonic honors. I knew him all his life, and there was never anything against him.—T. A. Carden.

JAMES WILEY FAIRES, the son of Rev. Andrew and Mary Faires, was born at Cloverdale, Ala., February 16, 1855. He died at his home, in Greenbrier, Tenn., on the evening of July 4, after a severe illness lasting seven months. He came of sturdy religious people. His father, grandfather, and several cousins were Methodist preachers. He was converted at the early age of eleven years and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. He was licensed to preach by the Quarterly Conference of the old Cypress Circuit of the North Alabama Conference and preached his first sermon at Pisgah, his home Church. From childhood to the day of his going away from us he lived a blameless life. I knew him very intimately for forty-five years. We were in school together. In October, 1880, we were admitted on trial into the Tennessee Conference. Since the day we first met I have not for one moment doubted his integrity of character. He was warm-hearted and generous and possessed the highest ideals. There was nothing more prominent in his character than his fidelity to the friendships of life. His early educational advantages were not the best; but his natural abilities were good, and he was diligent in their improvement. He was a faithful and useful gospel preacher and made no parade about it. His mind and heart were saturated with the conviction that his sole business was to save men and to look after the business of the Church. He kept constantly before him the grandeur and glory of his high calling. The larger part of the thirty-eight years of his itinerant ministry was spent on good circuits. He was probably the best circuit preacher in the Tennessee Conference. He did all the work of a Methodist preacher. He gave his children the best of advantages. He took into his home at different times several worthy girls and spent hundreds of dollars in helping them to be fitted for life. He took his afflicted brother and his two daughters and kept them ten years. When the girls were educated and able to support themselves and care for their father, he bought them a home and located them in Florence, Ala. In old Pleasant Grove Church, near Lawrenceburg, Tenn., June 24, 1884, James Wiley Faires and Miss Annie Powers were married. No Methodist preacher ever had a better wife, nor one more suited for the itineracy. Two children were born to them, Mary McFerrin and Lloyd. Mary is the wife of Rev. Berry J. Duncan, an honored member of the Tennessee Conference. Lloyd is a fine Christian young man in the service of the government and at this time is in France. Brother Faires leaves his wife and children, one brother, three sisters, a number of nephews and nieces, with a host of friends, to mourn his departure. Brother Faires's sufferings were long and distressing, but he never complained. He had a strong body, and it was hard for the disease to bring the "tabernacle" down. Death had no terror for him. He has gone from us. The fellowships of many of our dear brethren on earth have been destroyed by that strange something we call death. But they have entered upon that life on which sorrow can cast no shadow and, thank God! over which death has no power. My dear lifelong friend and brother, good-by.—J. T. Blackwood.

Ques. 22. Are all the preachers blameless in their life and official administration? Their names were called, one by one, and their characters examined and passed.

Ques. 23. What is the number of local preachers and members in the several circuits, stations, and missions of the Conference?

Ques. 21. What preachers have died during the past year? A. L. Paul. 1.

ALONZO L. PAUL was born in the State of Iowa on October 24, 1852. In his boyhood, under the ministry of the late Rev. J. H. Neal, he made a profession of faith in Christ. This was the beginning of his long, devoted, fruitful, and earnest career as a Christian man and minister on this Coast. Soon after his conversion he was licensed to preach, and in due course he was admitted on trial and to membership in the Pacific Conference. On October 15, 1882, he was ordained elder, and his active and faithful ministry covered a period of forty years. He served the following charges: Madera, Los Banos, Biggs, Willows, Anderson, Maxwell, Biggs and Gridley, Arbuckle, Lemoore, Mariposa, Potter Valley, Healdsburg, Shasta, Knights Landing, Walnut Grove, Dinuba and Orosi, Selma, Bakersfield, Petaluma, Hollister, Milton, and Le Grand. He was married on September 21, 1881, to Mrs. Clara Virginia Anderson, whose splendid personality and Christian faithfulness had much to do with his great success as pastor and preacher. The Pacific Conference has had no more earnest, sincere, and faithful member than A. L. Paul. Candor and sincerity were great outstanding qualities of his character. As a preacher he ranked above the ordinary; as a pastor he was diligent, kind, and full of the tenderest sympathy. As chairman for years of our Church Extension Board his service was wise, efficient, and worthy of the highest praise. In this Conference he was loved and esteemed as few men have been. His whole life was marked by gentleness, kindness, and unqualified devotion to his Church. Soon after going to Le Grand last year his health, which had not been good for some months, gave way, and after a somewhat protracted illness he passed from us on January 22, 1918. He has left behind him the record of a good and useful life and the heritage of a good name.—
J. E. Moore.

W. A. YOUNGMAN was born May 16, 1867, in Bloomington, Ill., and finished the task the Master assigned him* on Christmas day, 1917, while living in Hollywood, Cal. He was the oldest son in a family of seven children, consisting of five girls and two boys. His aged father and the sisters and brother remain to carry forward the work that he loved and gave his life to promote. Two of the sisters, Mrs. Henry Mann and Miss Clara Youngman, live in Kansas City, Mo., Mrs. Evert Edie and Miss Effie Youngman at Cameron, Mo., Mrs. L. M. Stewart at Los Angeles, Cal., and John F. Youngman at Cameron, Mo. Brother Youngman moved to Cameron with his parents at fifteen years of age, and made his home there until he entered the ministry. He was converted in his twentieth year and the following year was licensed to preach at Gallatin, Mo. He took his college course at Fayette, Mo., joined the Missouri Conference there in 1890, and served the following charges in that Conference: Parkville, Monroe City, Perry, and Rayville Circuits. He was transferred to the Western Conference in the fall of 1897 and served Holton, Kansas City, three years, Arkansas City one year, and Atkinson two years. From there he was transferred to the Los Angeles Conference and stationed at Long Beach, then at Carpinteria; from Carpinteria he was sent to Pomona, where he did three years of hard work. In 1909 he was transferred to the West Texas Conference, where he served Kyle, Luling, and McKinley Avenue, San Antonio. He returned to the Los Angeles Conference, where he served Talbert, Bellevue, and St. Paul charges. St. Paul was his last charge. He was an honored supernumerary during the past two years. We buried the body in a beautiful cemetery near Tropic, a short distance from the city of Los Angeles. The home life of Brother Youngman was happy. He was married to Miss Minnie Ramsey on March 30, 1890. Two children, a son and a daughter, came to cheer and brighten this union. Brother Youngman loved God and was devoted to the furtherance of his kingdom. He was at home with the young and the old of his congregation, making friends in all circles in which he moved. He was a manly man, possessed a big heart, and was a most faithful friend.

There were no shadows on his life. He lived in the open and was easy of approach. He was a good, faithful preacher of the Word and loved the ministry.—A. F. Stem.

J. T. GILLETT belonged to one of the earliest frontier families of Texas, being the son of Rev. Roswell and Martha S. Gillett. He was born in Brazoria County, Tex.,

December 23, 1833; died at El Paso, Tex., in 1918. He was converted at a Baptist Association meeting held at Chapel Hill in 1850; joined the Methodist Church, South, in 1851; was licensed to preach September 22, 1860; received on trial in the old Rio Grande Conference, held at San Antonio, December 5, 1860; ordained deacon and elder by Bishop E. M. Marvin at Seguin, Tex., November 7, 1866. During his fifty-eight years of ministerial life in Texas he filled the following works: Nueces Bay Mission, 1861-62; Helena Circuit, 1863; Missionary to Mann's Battalion, C. S. A., 1864; Clinton Circuit, DeWitt County, 1865-67; Concrete Circuit, 1868-69; located, 1870; readmitted to West Texas Conference, 1880; Sandies Mission, 1881; Victoria and Cuero, 1882; presiding elder, Victoria District, 1883-86, during which term he licensed Rev. A. H. Sutherland to preach; Lockhart Circuit, 1887-88; San Marcos Circuit, 1889; supernumerary, 1890-94; Blanco Circuit, 1895; Llano Station, 1896; San Marcos Circuit, 1897; Luling Circuit, 1898-99. Since the fall of 1899 he has sustained the relation of superannuate in the West Texas Conference, spending the last years of his life at El Paso. His wife was a sister of the late Judge Thornton, of Guadalupe County. A fine family of children were reared by them, an honor to Church and State. In his early days he was active, popular, and a great camp-meeting preacher. Hundreds were converted under his ministry. Of the Conference of 1860, when J. T. Gillett was admitted on trial, only one member now lives, and he pays this tribute to the memory of a noble companion in arms of the early days of Texas.—H. G. Horton.

N. E. BRAGG, son of F. J. and Elizabeth Bragg, was born near Batesville, Ark., August 31, 1856, and at the age of twelve was converted and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. By a true Christian boyhood he honored his early training. In 1870 he was married to Miss Sallie Gasnell, who lived only ten months. Brother Bragg was licensed to preach at Austin, Ark., in 1881. He was a local preacher for four years, and in 1885 was admitted on trial into the Little Rock Conference. He spent four years on the DeWitt Circuit, in that Conference; then located for a few years, to give attention to his deceased brother's family. In 1895 he joined the Indian Mission Conference, was sent to the Fort Gibson Circuit, then to Webber's Falls, at which place he married Miss Emma Cameron. At the close of the year at Webber's Falls he was sent to Batesville, Okla., remaining two years. Next he was at Afton one year, then presiding elder of the Holdenville District four years. By exposure, he contracted consumption, from which he never recovered. He took a supernumerary relation and moved to Carlsbad, N. Mex. He became strong enough for work again and finished out the year at Deming, N. Mex. Then he was at Marfa, Tex., two years, and at San Marcial and Elida one year each. He transferred to the West Texas Conference, and was on the Buda and Eden charges two years each. His health again failing, he was superannuated until his death, January 27, 1918. He was ever ready to lend any assistance possible in Church work and to the preachers. He leaves a wife, two children, brothers, and sisters. A servant in his Master's kingdom, he is now with the King in his beauty and glory.—H. G. Horion.

P. S. SUMMERS died September 25, 1918, and was buried at Austin the next day. In all his charges he left the record of faithful and efficient service. He was the son of Calvin and Lucinda Summers; born in Marion County, Ark., November 1, 1850; converted in 1867; joined the Church at Pleasant Ridge, on the Yellville Circuit; was licensed to preach in 1874; was admitted on trial into the Arkansas Conference on November 4, 1875; was ordained deacon by Bishop Kavanaugh, at Fayetteville, in October, 1877; ordained elder by Bishop Pierce, at Ozark, in November, 1879. At the time of his death he was completing his fortieth year in the ministry. In Arkansas he served the following charges: Mountain Home Circuit, 1875-76; Viney Grove Circuit, 1876-77; Bloomfield Circuit, 1877-78; Center Point Circuit, 1878-80; Fayetteville Circuit, 1880-81; Bentonville Station, 1881-82; Bloomfield Circuit, 1882-83; Danville Circuit, 1883-85; Harrison District, 1885-89; Center Point Circuit, 1889-90; Prairie Grove Circuit, 1890-92; Dardanelle District, 1892-96; Morrilton District, 1896-1900; Clarksville Circuit, 1900-02; Coal Hill and Altus, 1902-04. In the West Texas Conference he served the following charges: Mason Circuit, 1904-07; Flatonia Station, 1907-09; Smithville Station, 1909-11; Liberty Hill and Leander, 1911-12; South Austin, 1912-13; Burnett, 1913-14; Manor, 1914-16; Dilley, 1916-17; Blanco, 1917 and part of 1918. He was a man of fine executive ability, patient, steady, and faithful as pastor.—H. G. Horton.

CLINTON G. HILL was born in Kansas on October 2, 1860. His parents died while he was a child. He was converted when sixteen years of age at a camp meeting in Holt County, Mo. He was called to preach while a very young man, entering the Methodist ministry in the Southwest Missouri Conference in 1885, where he served the Church for twenty-five years. He transferred to the West Texas Conference, where he rendered eleven years' efficient service in the following charges: Stockdale, Lavernia, McAllen, Gregory, Fredonia, Rochelle, and Eden. He died in the Methodist parsonage at Eden, Tex., on September 17, 1918, having been for thirty-three years in the continuous service of the Methodist itinerancy. He was twice married: First, to Miss Anna Craighead, of Calloway County, Mo. To them were born a son and a daughter. His wife died in 1903 and his son in 1912. His second marriage was in September, 1905, at Audrian, Mo., to Miss Emma Lee Dean, who survives him, with a daughter. He preached his last sermon in Eden on Sunday night, September 8, when he expressed a desire to continue in the pastorate until his final summons should come. He was a good man, quiet and unostentatious, painstaking and faithful. His body was laid to rest in the cemetery at Eden.—H. G. Horton.

REUBEN ALBERT WALTRIP, son of J. W. and Mary E. Waltrip, was born May 10, 1878, in Van Zandt County, Tex. When about eight years of age his parents moved to Buffalo, Leon County, Tex., where he grew to manhood and was educated in the public schools. He was converted when fourteen years of age and joined the Baptist Church, in which he held membership until he was about twenty-one, when he joined the Methodist Church. He was married to Miss Kate Lynch in 1899 and taught school until 1901, when he was licensed to preach. In 1902 he joined the Texas Annual Conference, in which he served for about three years and then transferred to the West Texas Conference. In this Conference he served the following charges: Willow City, 1907-08; Center Point, 1909; Smithville, 1910-11; Hyde Park, Austin, 1912; Fred Allen Memorial, Austin, 1913-14; Bandera, 1915; Conference Evangelist, 1916-17; Army Y. M. C. A., 1918. Five children came to bless his home, two dying in infancy and three living until his death. While his corpse was awaiting burial, his eight-year-old daughter, Lila Pearl, died of the same disease (influenza).

enza) and both were buried at Buffalo, Tex., in the same grave. He leaves behind him his wife and two sons: Burrus, aged fifteen, and James Wilson, aged twelve. He fell at his post, being a Secretary in the Army Y. M. C. A. at El Paso, Tex.—V. A. Godbey.

CHARLES THOMAS CARROLL was born February 27, 1842, in Cabell County, W. Va. He was converted and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in 1856, and was licensed to preach two years later, when only sixteen years old. He enlisted in the Confederate Army in 1861, in which he served as a chaplain, and he was a prisoner of war at Johnson's Island for twenty-two months. He was admitted on trial into the Holston Conference at Marion, Va., in September, 1865. In 1867 he was admitted into full connection, and was ordained deacon. Two months later—December 18, 1867—he was united in marriage to Miss Lizzie E., daughter of Milton and Priscilla Brabson Shields. Mrs. Carroll was a sunny-spirited woman, who brightened his itinerant service, and enlivened every circle where she moved. Her death, several years ago, was wondrously triumphant. In 1869 he was ordained elder. His appointments were as follows: In 1865, Bristol Circuit; 1866, Knoxville; 1867, Bristol; 1868-69, Chattanooga; 1870-71, Chattanooga District; in 1872 he was on the sick list; 1873-74, Asheville; 1875-77, Morristown; 1878, sick; 1879-80, Rutledge Circuit; 1881-84, Morristown District; 1885-88, Asheville; 1889, Broad Street, Knoxville; 1890-92, Chattanooga District; 1893-94, Morristown District; 1895-98, Knoxville District; 1899, sick; then a year or two on the Morristown Circuit, and his health became too feeble for further work. From that time until the end he was on our honor roll of superannuates. Dr. Carroll was a Southern gentleman of the old school. His personal appearance was always the perfection of neatness. His habits of life were likewise in order. His tongue was chaste and his heart was pure. Scrupulously conscientious in all his dealings, he was the soul of integrity. This last year found him suffering from a serious heart trouble, which prostrated him often and warned him of the end. He understood its meaning well, and bore himself like the Christian soldier that he was. On his last visit to Morristown, he gave specific directions to an undertaker, so that when the end came they all knew his wishes. After a Saturday evening's drive in an automobile, July 13, 1918, with members of his daughter's family in Knoxville, he went up to his room and retired in usual condition. It was not long until he came to the head of the stairs and told the family below that he was dying. When they got to him he was almost gone. Without a word he "fell on sleep," and the dawn of the Sabbath found him in heaven. Of the seven sons and daughters, four are still living, and were at the funeral in Morristown: Dr. Charles T. Carroll, Jr., Mr. Shields Carroll, Mrs. Frank Alexander, all of Morristown, and Mrs. L. W. Holmes, of Knoxville. With some of his Confederate comrades standing around the grave, we buried him at Liberty Hill, near Morristown, by the side of the wife whom he had gone to meet.—James A. Burrow.

JOHN MILTON MAIDEN was born in Washington County, Va., on December 4, 1854, and passed from earth to heaven on April 17, 1918. His life was only just above threescore and three years. He was the son of William L. and Rebecca Maiden, who were devout Methodists and who created an atmosphere of home life congenial to the development of Christian faith and character in their children. At sixteen years of age our brother professed faith in Christ and took the vows of the Methodist Church. Before he reached his majority he felt the call to preach, and just before reaching his twenty-second birthday he was licensed to preach on September 23, 1876. Brother Maiden spent his youth on his father's farm, seven miles northeast of Abingdon. He profited by such opportunities as were offered by country schools of his neighborhood and prepared himself to enter Emory and Henry, where he completed the junior year, working the while or teaching school to earn the means with which to continue his college work. For some years Brother Maiden taught in the public schools of Washington County. In 1891 he was admitted on trial into the Holston Conference, which met that year in Chattanooga, Tenn. At this time he was also ordained deacon by the late Bishop Charles B. Galloway. Two years later he was admitted into full connection at Knoxville, Tenn.; and in 1896, at Cleveland, Tenn., he was ordained elder by Bishop Galloway, who again presided over the Conference. He was an effective itinerant preacher for eighteen years and served the following charges: Bristol Circuit, two years; Madisonville, three years; Clinchport, four years; Clearfork, one year; Spring Valley, four years; Independence, one year; New River, two years; West Tazewell, one year. While living at Madisonville, Tenn., Brother Maiden suffered a very severe attack of typhoid fever. From this illness there was never complete recovery. The naturally strong constitution was greatly impaired; but he continued in the effective ranks until the fall of 1908, when he superannuated. Brother Maiden was a faithful and useful itinerant preacher, always clear and logical. His sermons were enriched by frequent quotations from the Bible. He was fond of the old themes, and his style was usually expository. He was neat in his personal habits. He had a place for things and kept them in place. He used his time with the same care also. On March 23, 1883, he was married to Miss Sarah J. Grubb. For thirty-five years they lived and labored together. Eight children were born into their home, two of whom died in infancy. With skill and wisdom this Methodist preacher and his devoted wife reared their sons and daughters to be strong, useful citizens and devout and active members of the Church. To each one of them they gave the advantages of education in our own colleges. The funeral service was held in the home on Sunday morning, April 21, and the body was laid to rest in the afternoon at Emory.

JOHN LINDSEY PRATER was born in Tazewell County, Va., on August 24, 1853. He was the son of John Lindsey and Malissa Prater. At a very early age Brother Prater was converted and immediately united with the Methodist Church. While still in his boyhood he heard the call to preach. After the preparatory course had been completed in the schools of Tazewell, young Prater went to Emory and Henry College, from which he graduated in 1878. I am unable to give the record of his being licensed to preach. He was admitted on trial into the traveling ministry of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, at Abingdon, Va., in October, 1879. At this time he was twenty-six years old. He was admitted into full connection and ordained deacon at Wytheville, Va., in 1881, and was ordained elder at Chattanooga, Tenn., in 1883. Brother Prater was an effective preacher for thirty-eight years, during which he served nineteen charges, as follows: Hamilton Circuit, one year; Cleveland Circuit, one year; Athens Circuit, one year; Chattanooga City Mission, one year; Athens Station, one year; Maryville Circuit, one year; Trenton Circuit, three years; Spring City Circuit, one year; Pocahontas Station, three years; Princeton Station, three years; Max Meadows Circuit, four years; Marion Circuit, two years; Radford Station, three years; Cleveland Station, two years; Sweetwater Circuit, three years; Pearisburg Circuit, two years; Mary Street Station, two years; Blountville Circuit, one year; Glade Spring Circuit, three years. On October 13, 1884, Brother Prater was married to Miss Ava Rucker, of Cleveland, Tenn., who lived only a few years. To them were born two children, Alma Ava and Lindsey Rucker. On September 30, 1890, Brother Prater was again married to Mrs. Mary Browning Snodgrass, who shared with him the sunshine and shadows of twenty-eight years of itinerant life and who abides in strength and devotion to the work to which with her husband she consecrated herself at the marriage altar of the Church. Five children were born to them, Ollie Browning, Stella May (Mrs. C. V. Dickenson), Price Eugene, Clara Hope, and Frank Harold, all of whom are living. Almost everywhere Brother Prater went his ministry was blessed with gracious revivals. His preaching was full of fervor. He preached directly to his hearers and expected results, and he was not disappointed. He was very devoted and faithful as a pastor. He talked about religion and read the Bible and prayed with those whom he visited. In the early part of May, 1917, he had spent the night in one of the homes of his charge just north of Meadow View, expecting to preach in the village on Sunday morning; but at breakfast time he was found unconscious in his room. The paralysis was so severe that little hope of recovery was entertained. But after a few days he rallied so that he was able to be taken to his home at Glade Spring. After a few weeks he was able to be out on his work. He even tried to preach a few times. So ardently did he hope for strength to go on with his work that it was difficult to keep him from overdoing his strength. But when the Annual Conference met in Pulaski he saw that he was unable to take work for another year, and with a submission beautiful to see asked that he be superannuated. Soon after Conference he moved to Bristol, where he spent the time with his family and his books until the summons came. A year after the first stroke came a second, which was followed by two weeks of suffering. The end came in the early morning of May 28, 1918, and the earnest laborer was at rest, the faithful disciple was with his Lord. We laid the body to rest at Bristol.—I. P. Martin.

JOHN MELVILLE WOLFE was born near Gate City, Scott County, Va., July 17, 1844. His parents were Emanuel and Sallie Wolfe. The father died when John M. was only about four years of age, and he bore through a long and checkered career the impress of his sainted mother, to whom he owed more for his religious training than to all other agencies combined. He was converted and joined the M. E. Church, South, when he was only ten years old. When a young man he enlisted at the call of his country as a Confederate soldier and served as such during the entire war. Soon after the days of civil strife were ended he was licensed to preach. In 1872 he was admitted on trial into the Holston Annual Conference. He was married to Miss Rebecca McMullen May 14, 1867. Into this home eleven children came, eight of whom lived to be grown; and with one exception they are still alive. The sons are J. E., J. B., and Eugene, all honored and useful citizens. One daughter married Rev. Ira Hicks, while another married his brother, R. V. Hicks. They live in New Jersey. Miss Mollie married Charles Orr, a brother of Rev. J. C. Orr. He was killed by a train near Morristown a few years ago. One other daughter lives with her mother at Dryden, Va. Brother Wolfe was effective for thirty years. He was ordained deacon by Bishop D. S. Doggett in 1874 and elder by Bishop William M. Wightman in 1876. His charges were as follows: Fall Branch, two years; Hillsville, two years; Hawkins, two terms, six years in all; Powell's Valley, twice appointed, four years in all; Jonesboro, three years; Decatur, three years; Sevierville, three years; Madisonville, two years; Louisville, four years. His last charge was Jasper, one year. The average salary allowed him for those long years of arduous toil did not exceed $450 per year, and the average amount received will not exceed $350 annually. In 1902, from Jasper, Tenn., his last charge, he took a superannuate relation and was kept on the honor roll to the end of his life. J. M. Wolfe lived a clean life and was loved by all the people whom he served. He was a strong preacher and prepared his sermons with much care. He was a close, hard student. About six or eight months before he died he was stricken with paralysis, which rendered him helpless. In this state he remained until November 13, 1917, when life's weary wheels stood still, and the immortal part, the real self, was safely housed in the home of his hopes. His funeral was conducted by the pastor of his family and Dr. M. P. Carico, his presiding elder.—R. A. Owen.

JOSEPH ASBURY BILDERBACK was born at Sweetwater, Tenn., January 21, 1846. At the age of twenty his conversion occurred, followed immediately by his union with the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. Five years later, on August 5, 1871, he was granted license to preach; and the year following was admitted on trial into the Holston Conference at Chattanooga, Tenn. His ministerial career included many appointments. Beginning with the Jamestown Circuit, he held successively the following charges: Trenton, Hamilton Circuit, Ooltewah, Jasper, Look-out Mission, Crossville, Riceville, Tracy City, Methodist Hill (Knoxville), East Park, Andersonville, Cedar Bluff, Virginia Avenue (Bristol), Limestone, Tate Spring, Rockwood, Jacksboro, Mosheim, Petros, and Rising Fawn. In 1914 his name went to the superannuate roll. Later he supplied the Ætna Circuit. Brother Bilderback was twice married: First to Miss Mary L. Boyce, December 14, 1876, who departed this life in 1879; on June 16, 1881, he was married to Miss Julia E. Lowry, of Riceville, Tenn. The sons who survive him are Boyce and Robert L., both of Chattanooga, and Lieut. Joseph M., who serves in the army of his country. In assessing the value of a life like this the spiritual elements cannot be overlooked. There was something infinitely beautiful about the closing of Brother Bilderback's life. His was something more than a transition, scarcely less than a translation. He had gone to visit his son, who then resided in Birmingham, Ala. In the home circle he read from the Word of God, bowed with the loved ones in prayer, retired to his room, and quietly fell asleep. It proved to be the sleep of eternal rest. Such a life-close is not death. It is "stepping on shore and finding it heaven; it is taking hold of a hand and finding it God's hand; it is breathing a new air and finding it celestial air; it is feeling invigorated and finding it immortality; it is waking up and finding it home."

At Sweetwater, Tenn., amid the scenes of his childhood, after forty-five years of service as an itinerant, he rests in peace until the resurrection.—E. E. Wiley.

DAVID SULLINS was born two miles west of Athens, McMinn County, Tenn., in July, 1827. The home in which he first saw the light was a Christian home. His paternal ancestors were of that blood which more than any other has made Christian America what she is—Scotch-Irish. Of his mother it was said that her father, four brothers, two sons, and eleven nephews were Methodist preachers. She herself was noted for her piety and power in prayer. Dr. Sullins was converted when twelve years of age, and seems to have felt the call to preach from childhood. His father in building his home made the lower story a place to preach in. He was educated in this home, in the neighborhood schools around home, and at Emory and Henry. He was licensed to preach in Abingdon in June, 1850, and joined the Conference there in the fall of the same year. His appointments were: Burnesville Circuit, 1850-51; Asheville Station, 1851-52; Jonesboro, where he was joint principal of school, as well as pastor, 1852-57; Chattanooga, 1857-58, and Knoxville, 1858-59; Blountville Circuit and service in war and educational work, 1859-65; Wytheville as pastor and principal of school, 1865-68; Bristol, as pastor and president Sullins College, 1868-80; Emory and Henry, as president, 1880-85; Centenary, where was his closing work. On May 3, 1855, he was married to Ann Rebecca Blair, daughter of Hon. John Blair, of Jonesboro, Tenn. To them were born two sons, Charles and William, both of Knoxville, and two daughters, Mrs. George R. Stuart, of Birmingham, Ala., and Mrs. Frank F. Dosser, of Knoxville. There was never a happier home than theirs. His physical appearance was handsome. Intellectually he seemed to have had all the gifts, and also the gift of using his gifts—a poet, a humorist, a musician, an orator, a writer, but withal he was the embodiment of all the practical wisdoms of life. He was sunny-spirited, genial, "a clubable man," a fine mixer, the perfection of tactfulness and discretion, always doing and saying the right thing at the right time. Above all these natural gifts were the endowments and guidance of the Holy Spirit. He would illustrate his idea of approaching death by telling how he used to finish the last plow-row and ride to the mingling music of the trace chains and the wild bird's song, to meet mother coming out to the spring house to get the milk and butter for supper, singing as she came "O heaven, sweet heaven," etc. And when he came face to face with death he was almost semi-humorously happy. "George," said he, lying on his dying pillow; "I've just made a new sermon." "Well, what is it, father?" said George. "The text," said the doctor, "is: 'Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints'; precious because all sorrows are ended; precious because loved ones are waiting; precious because the dying saint is ready and longing to go."—D. S. Hearon.

JAMES HARVEY WITT was born April 17, 1879. He was married to Miss Mattie May Waldrop on April 24, 1904. After his conversion he felt the call to the ministry, but realizing his need of preparation for the work, by means of the assistance of some Chattanooga friends and encouraged by his faithful companion, he entered Hiwassee College, where he spent four years in school preparing himself for his life's work. He also helped very much in the erection of Brunner Hall. With his own hands he prepared the rock and made many of the concrete blocks which went into that magnificent structure. After spending two years of faithful service on the Riceville Circuit he was sent to the Knoxville Circuit, where he spent the last year of his life. He did a great work in building up the charge in every way. He held some splendid revival meetings and greatly increased the membership of the Church. He improved the parsonage and some of the churches on the circuit. I spent a Sabbath with him not long since, and was delighted to hear so many good things said of his work. His ministerial career was short, but successful. He was stricken with influenza, and from the parsonage at Powell Station, early in the morning of October 25, his spirit took its flight, leaving a devoted companion, a small son, father, mother, three sisters, and one brother to mourn his departure. The remains were taken to Etowah, where Rev. W. S. Hendricks conducted the funeral services, after which the body was laid away to await the resurrection.—J. E. Lowry.

Ques. 21. What preachers have died during the past year? C. W. Myatt. 1.

C. W. MYATT died in All Saints' Hospital, McAlester, Okla., December 31, 1917. We regret that there is not available more data on the birth and early ministerial activities of Brother Myatt. He first entered the ministry in the Tennessee Conference, from which he transferred to the Arkansas Conference; then to the Indian Mission Conference about 1880, where he served missions, circuits, stations, and districts till the year 1915, when he was given the superannuate relation at the session of the Conference held in Muskogee, Okla. Our brother was a good preacher and zealous worker. He built a number of churches and parsonages during his ministry in Oklahoma and organized many societies that are now reckoned among our strong churches.—William T. Ready.

Ques. 22. Are all the preachers blameless in their life and official administration? Their names were called, one by one, and their characters examined and passed, except in the case of S. C. Nunley, who was left in the hands of his presiding elder for investigation, because of certain charges.

Ques. 23. What is the number of local preachers and members in the several circuits, stations, and missions of the Conference?

Ques. 21. What preachers have died during the past year? J. W. Tinchier, H. A. Bourland, J. W. Murphy. 3.

JOHN W. MURPHY, son of William and Elizabeth Murphy, was born February 11, 1840, in Bedford County, Tenn. He was converted and united with the M. E. Church, South, in November, 1864, at Marble Plains, Tenn. The following year he was licensed to preach at the New Hope Camp Ground by the Rev. J. D. Barbee. He was admitted on trial into the North Texas Annual Conference, which met in Dallas in 1880, Bishop Pierce presiding. He was ordained deacon in 1874 at Denton, Tex., by Bishop McTyeire, and in 1879 was ordained elder at Sherman, Tex., likewise by Bishop McTyeire. In consulting a brief autobiography we find that he served the following charges: East Fork Mission, Decatur Circuit, Fairlee Circuit, and Rhome Circuit. Three church houses were built under his supervision, and scores of souls were happily converted and brought into the Church under his faithful ministry. On account of sickness in his family, he was obliged to abandon the regular work for a period of thirteen years at one time, but as soon as it was possible to resume his work he did so. He was a man of keen intellect and a bright, discerning mind. Having devoted many years of his life to the work of a teacher, he had acquired a taste for good and wholesome literature, and consequently had stored his mind with a fund of information that greatly enhanced his usefulness both as teacher and preacher. His was a character without alloy. He was every inch a Christian gentleman. During the years of his active life he said, with the great apostle, "This one thing I do," and as he came to the close of his day of service he could truthfully say, with the same immortal hero, "I have fought a good fight." He was twice married and was the father of two children. Both of his companions and his son, Dr. Murphy, had passed on before and there was left an only daughter, Mrs. J. A. Hardy, of Tioga, Tex., at whose home he spent the evening of his life—a benediction to his children and an honor to the cause he loved dearer than his own life. He passed quietly away on the morning of January 4, 1918. His funeral services were held in the Methodist Church in Pilot Point, and his body was laid to rest in the beautiful cemetery near by.—G. A. Lehnhoff.

J. W. TINCHER.—Pure in heart, holy in life, and faithful to trusts reposed, he answered the skeptic's question, "Where is your God?" with a life which revealed the blessed Saviour again and again. He was born near Alderson, W. Va., July 12, 1851, and was converted and joined the Baptist Church on October 6, 1867. At this point he says: "I became dissatisfied with the Church on the communion question and asked for a letter. Being denied, I joined the M. E. Church, South, and was expelled from the former communion." On February 6, 1873, he was happily married to Miss Mary S. Redmon, who survives him. Denied children of their own, the orphans found in them father and mother and to-day they "rise up and call them blessed." For some time he struggled against a call to preach. Finally he yielded and was licensed to preach the gospel by Commerce Circuit Quarterly Conference on October 26, 1891, Rev. George T. Nichols being the presiding elder. Limited in education, he entered Central College, Sulphur Springs, Tex., in the fall of 1892. Here he continued until June, 1894, when Rev. W. L. Clifton, presiding elder, employed him for Reilly Springs Mission. In November following he was admitted on trial into the North Texas Conference and appointed to the same charge. The next three years he was on Greenwood Mission and was ordained deacon by Bishop Duncan. The next three years he was on Rosston Circuit, and during that time he was ordained elder by Bishop Hargrove. Then he was for two years at Aubrey, one year at Era and Bolivar, two years at Trenton, four years at Pilot Point Circuit (then known as Wesley and Bethel), two years supernumerary at Aubrey, and in 1914 he was granted the superannuate relation, in which he continued until death. At his request the writer attended his funeral at Aubrey, June 3, 1918. We shall see him again. Where the sun never goes down and sorrows cannot come we shall meet to part no more.—D. F. Fuller.

HILLEN ARMOUR BOURLAND was born April 11, 1838, at Paris, Tenn. His father was Dr. Reese Bourland, a practicing physician. His mother was Mary Waddy. When a child, his father moved to Lovelace, Ky. He was converted and joined the Church when only fifteen years of age. He soon felt called to preach and entered the ministry at the age of nineteen. He attended college in Georgia and completed his collegiate course at St. Charles College, Missouri. He was married to Miss Priscilla Howland in August, 1863. They had a family of seven children. The surviving ones are Mrs. Mary Boyd, of Baird, Mrs. R. D. Matthews, of Big Spring, Mrs.

J. L. Lea, Jr., of Wichita Falls, and Dr. J. W. Bourland, of Dallas, Tex. Dr. Bourland was admitted on trial into the Memphis Conference and entered St. Charles College, where he graduated in the spring of 1860. His first appointment was Clinton Circuit, Tenn. His second appointment was Briersburg, Tenn. He then served Fulton and Palmyra (Missouri) charges, after which he became President of Central College, at Fayette, Mo. He next held appointments at Mexico, Hannibal, and Kansas City, Mo. From there he was transferred to Dallas, and was appointed pastor of old Lamar Street Church—the predecessor of our First Church—which pastorate he held for four years, from 1877 to 1881. He was then pastor at Sherman for two years and four years financial agent of the Southwestern University, at Georgetown, after which he served the Belton, Waco, Abilene, Cleburne, and Waxahachie churches, and in 1904 he took the supernumerary relation. In 1915, at his own request, he was given the superannuate relation by the North Texas Conference. His translation took place Thursday morning, February 14, 1918. The funeral services were conducted by the writer. Dr. Bourland was a charming gentleman, a scholarly and helpful preacher, and an accomplished Christian. He was a wise and constructive leader, and the fruit of his labor abides.—S. H. C. Burgin.

Ques. 21. What preachers have died during the past year? W. P. Edwards, S. T. Cherry, J. M. Sollie. 3.

J. M. SOLLIE entered the old Northwest Texas Conference by readmission after he had passed middle life and had served but one charge in the bounds of this Conference. But little is known of his life and work. For health reasons he moved to New Mexico, where he lived until a short while before his death, which occurred in the early part of this year, at the home of one of his children in El Paso, Tex. We learned from his presiding elder that he stood well in the estimation of the people of Albuquerque, where he had lived the most of the time since he had been a superannuate member of this Conference. When Brother Sollie entered the old Northwest Texas Conference he assured the Committee on Admissions that he would never be dependent on the Joint Board of Finance; and, true to this pledge, he never received help from this Board. A good man and true has gone to his reward.—A Friend.

SAMUEL THOMAS CHERRY was born near Holly Springs, Miss., on November 22, 1871, and died at Fluvanna, Tex., February 5, 1918. He came to Texas in the year 1894. At the age of sixteen he joined the Methodist Church. In 1898 he was licensed to preach, Rev. J. G. Putman being presiding elder. He took membership in the Northwest Texas Annual Conference in 1903, and was ordained deacon at Hillsboro, Tex., two years later. In due time he became an elder. He was married to Miss Mary Dodd in March, 1905, and of this union there were six children, the oldest having passed to the home above. This servant of the Lord was intensely religious, being conscientious and prompt in the discharge of all his Christian duties. He did not read many books; but those that he did read were among the best, and his preaching showed a clear knowledge of these books, for he set forth in no uncertain sound the religious thought of his beloved Church and of the age in which he lived. The Bible was his guide, inspiration, and life. His standard was nothing short of his conception of the teachings of the Word of God. Brother Cherry was a lovely character—ever quiet, thoughtful, pure, uncompromising. To him Christ died for all mankind, therefore each person was worthy of his consideration. He preached a warm, vigorous, thoughtful sermon, hence he turned many to righteousness. As a pastor he was energetic, kind, and gave diligent care to every interest of the Church. Suffering was for years his constant companion, for his health was never very good. He was a loving, kind, considerate husband and father. His home was a model Christian home. But he is not there now: he has gone to the home in the sky.—J. T. Griswold.

WILLIS PATRICK EDWARDS was born in Neshoba County, Miss., December 13, 1864, and died at Kress, Tex., November 24, 1917. While visiting in Mississippi he was granted license to preach by the Walnut Springs Quarterly Conference, at the Carolina Church. He was married to Miss Leona Elizabeth Parker at Laurel Hill, Miss., July 3, 1890. His first sermon was preached in the Evergreen church, Bosqueville charge, Waco District. In 1896 he joined the Northwest Texas Conference at Waxahachie, and was appointed to the Bono charge, Fort Worth District. His father, W. H. Edwards, was a preacher. Miss Laura Edwards, missionary to Korea, is his sister. He was one of a large family in which there were seven girls and five boys. As a man he was thoughtful, hopeful, and optimistic. He loved his home and provided as well as circumstances would allow for those dependent upon him. As a husband and father, he was patient, kind, and self-sacrificing. The fellowship in his home was delightful. In his Conference work he was modest and left his appointments in the hands of the proper authorities, believing that God would so direct that he would be sent where he could do the most good. He filled some hard places, yet without murmuring or complaint. With a beautiful consecration he moved from place to place in the spirit of the Master, doing good. He had a good knowledge of the Scriptures and preached with power and zeal, hence many people were convicted of sin and saved by the grace of God. He was the medium through which much comfort came to people, for he knew how to console with the precious words of God and to inspire with his everlasting truths. In the truest sense he was a soldier of the cross and always fought with that courage and faith that would win for God. He is now wearing the crown of everlasting life.—A. L. Moore.

JOSHUA S. L. SAPPINGTON was born in Newton, Ala., December 25, 1858, and died from a paralytic stroke, at Maysville, Ga., November 17, 1917. On December 15, 1881, at Franklin, Ga., he was married to Miss Dicie E. Wood, who, with the eight children born to them, survives him. The children are as follows: Mrs. C. R. Dougherty, Sparta, Ga.; Mrs. G. B. Farriss, Isabella, Tenn.; T. P. Sappington, Jacksonville, Fla.; Sergeant J. L. Sappington, 329th Infantry, A. E. F., France; Corporal F. C. Sappington, Company C, Fourth Regiment Engineers, Fourth Division, France; Dicie Starr Sappington, Sparta, Ga.; Mrs. J. W. Eberhart, Maysville, Ga.; Annah Sappington, Sparta, Ga. In a Conference history of over thirty years, he served the following charges: Admitted on trial in 1885 at Newnan, Ga.; 1885-86, Floyd Springs Circuit; 1886-88, West Cobb Circuit, being admitted to full connection and ordained deacon in 1887 by Bishop H. N. McTyeire; 1888-89, Hickory Flat Mission; 1889-92, Meriwether Circuit, being ordained elder by Bishop J. C. Keener in 1889; 1892-94, Bowden Circuit; 1894-98, Glenn Circuit; 1898-1900, Carrollton Circuit; 1900-02, Culloden Circuit; 1902-04, Lithonia Circuit; 1904-08, Hancock Circuit; 1908-10, Norcross and Prospect; 1910-12, Lexington Circuit; 1912-14, Summerville Circuit; 1914-15, North Rome Circuit; 1915-17, Maysville. A loyal itinerant, faithful in the relatively few things of this life, he shall wear a crown of everlasting praise in our Lord's "Well done."—Elam F. Dempsey.

ROBERT J. McELREATH went from his three years' work on the Bishop Circuit to the mill work of Hanleiter Church, Griffin, Ga., where he found the burdens too heavy for his strength. He did not flinch or falter. When an old lung trouble returned he was forced to give up and go to El Paso, Tex., and at the Annual Conference of 1917 he was put on the honor roll of superannuates. While I was in the Wesley Hospital, a letter came from him cheering me with its optimism. He wrote that he was making a living, preaching when he could, trying to serve God and his fellows. A month later, on March 30, 1918, he died of smallpox at El Paso. He is survived by his wife and four children. No man had a sweeter spirit or a surer sense of consecration to the work of the Master. His history in our Conference is as follows: Received by transfer from the Northwest Texas Conference, at Carrollton, 1912; Bishop Circuit, 1913-14; Hanleiter, 1916-17; superannuated at the Conference in 1917.—W. W. Carroll.

THOMAS HARRIS GIBSON was born in Warren County, Ga., five miles northwest of Warrenton, January 23, 1844, and died at St. Joseph's Infirmary, Atlanta, Ga., January 14, 1918. He was the son of Judge William and Mrs. Martha Rogers Gibson. He entered Emory College at the age of sixteen, and volunteered as a private in the Confederate Army on June 3, 1861, First Georgia Regiment, Col. Isaac Ramsey. He was mustered out of service at Augusta, Ga., March 15, 1862. He soon reenlisted, was elected Regimental Adjutant of the Forty-Eighth Georgia Regiment, and afterwards became captain of Company D, Forty-Eighth Georgia Regiment, July 9, 1864. With General Lee, he surrendered at Appomattox on April 9, 1865. At the close of the war he began the practice of law in Warrenton. On December 10, 1868, he was married to Miss Julia F. Anderson. To this union one daughter, Mary Julia Gibson, was born on October 24, 1869. Brother Gibson's wife, Mrs. Julia Anderson Gibson, died November 8, 1869. In 1870 he was received on trial into the North Georgia Conference, and his appointments were as follows: Roswell Circuit, 1871; Chalybeate Springs, 1872; Little River Circuit, 1873-74. At the close of 1874 he located and practiced law in Augusta until 1880, when he again entered the itinerancy. His appointments were as follows: Little River Circuit, 1881-82; Baldwin Circuit, 1883-84. On December 11, 1883, while on the Baldwin Circuit, he was married to Miss Alma Bayne. His next appointments were: Culloden Circuit, 1885; Baldwin Circuit, 1886; Lexington Circuit, 1887-88. For five years, from 1889 through 1893, he was chaplain at the State Insane Asylum, Milledgeville. After this service, his appointments read as follows: Greene Circuit, 1894; Bowman Circuit, 1895-96; Flowery Branch Circuit, 1897; Harlem Circuit, 1898-99; West Putnam Circuit, 1901-02; Ellijay Circuit, 1903; Austell Circuit, 1904-05. This year completed his labors as an active itinerant, and so at the succeeding Conference he asked for and was granted a superannuate relation, in which relation he remained till his death. Surviving him are his wife, Mrs. Alma Bayne Gibson, Decatur, Ga.; his only sister, Mrs. Charles G. Goodrich, Augusta, Ga.; his daughter, Mrs. J. R. Brooks, Agricola, Ga.; his son, William Bayne Gibson, Decatur, Ga. Turning his back on everything akin to worldly preferment, he entered the North Georgia Conference and gave the best years of his life to the Church in Georgia. Several years ago, realizing that his health was failing, he felt that the time had come for him to retire from the pastorate and take a superannuate relation, and this was done with the sweetest spirit imaginable. His home was in Decatur, but he was not lost to the Church after he ceased the active ministry. Gradually his health gave way, till in January he was compelled to go to a private sanitarium, and there the end came quietly and peacefully. His work was done, his race run; the conflict over, he went home to rest.—C. C. Cary.

JOSEPH ADDISON TIMMERMAN was born in Augusta, Ga., August 19, 1853, and died in Grantville, Ga., March 1, 1918. He was married to Miss Maggie Webb, of Covington, Ga., August 5, 1884. He received his early education in Hephzibah, where he graduated in 1869. In the fall of that year he entered the Junior Class at Emory College, from which institution he was graduated in 1871. He studied day and night while at college, went home broken in health, and never recovered from the effects of those years of hard study. After teaching for some time, he attended the University of Virginia, but after staying there for only a short time he was forced to leave that institution on account of family reverses. He taught school for a number of years, and was quite successful as a teacher. He was converted and joined the Church at Brothersville, in Richmond County. Soon after his graduation from Emory College, he was licensed to preach. At Marietta, in 1878, he was admitted on trial into our Conference. He came in a sick man, and did his work in pain and great discomfort; but, notwithstanding his sufferings, he was a faithful, industrious, and helpful pastor. His ministry was blessed with great revivals, notably during his pastorate in Newnan and Covington. He saw many souls converted and brought into the kingdom. At the Conference in Marietta in 1914, just thirty-six years after he was admitted on trial at that place, he ended his active ministry and his name was placed on the honor roll of the Conference. His last days were days of great weakness and much physical suffering. Brother Timmerman was an unusually gifted man. His mind was in a high degree analytical. He was capable of the most careful study of any subject that claimed his attention, and would look at it from more angles than any man I ever knew. He saw clearly and expressed his thoughts in a clear, strong, elegant, and finished style. Some of his sermons were models. At times he was eloquent, and always safe, sound, and instructive. He was true to Methodist doctrines, and no people who sat under his ministry ever had a doubt injected into their minds. As a pastor he was faithful, industrious, sympathetic, in a high degree resourceful, and was able to bring to pass things that seemed almost impossible. He was a Christian of the highest type. His faith in God was steadfast. I do not remember ever to have heard him express a doubt concerning the great truths of the Christian religion. To him God was real. He loved him, trusted him, and served him. He was a good man.—A. W. Quillian.

ROBERT THOMAS HARRISON was born near Hapeville, Fulton County, Ga., March 22, 1892, his parents being James M. and Frances Elizabeth Harrison. When only ten years of age he was converted and joined Mount Zion Methodist Episcopal Church, South. Receiving from God a call to preach, he was licensed by the Atlanta District Conference on June 16, 1909. To him a call to preach meant a call to get ready to preach. So he spent four years, 1909-13, in Young Harris College. He began his theological training in Vanderbilt University, where he spent one year, 1914. This school being lost by the Church, and Emory University being established to take its place as a "School of the Prophets," he immediately enrolled as a student there. He spent two years, 1914-15, in the Theological Department of Emory University, receiving his certificate in 1915. While a student in Young Harris College he met, wooed, and won Miss Annie Elizabeth Standard for his bride, being married to her in her father's home at Atlanta, Ga., March 22, 1915. Before joining the Conference, he served the Blairsville charge for one year, 1913. During his trial period, and while still a student in Candler School of Theology, he served two years, 1915-16, as junior preacher on the Alpharetta charge. From the Griffin Conference he went to the Hall Circuit, Gainesville District. Here he served two years, 1917-18, until his translation, October 30, 1918. He loved books and read them. He had rather unusual evangelistic gifts. It seems so strangely tragical that he should have to leave his devoted wife, sweet baby girl, and the work for which he seemed just to have achieved such perfect equipment. Ours is the loss. The gain is his.—W. H. Cooper.

GEORGE D. STONE was born March 9, 1866, in Carroll County, Ga., his parents being James and Mary Embry Stone. After several weeks of terrible suffering, he was transferred from his earthly to his heavenly home on October 24, 1918, from Winterville, Ga. His body was laid to rest in the beautiful West View Cemetery, Atlanta, Ga. He was married to Miss Isa Beall Ramsaur, of Rome, Ga., February 5, 1888, and to them were born three girls and two boys, who are left with their mother to mourn the loss of the beloved father and devoted husband. But theirs is an unusually blessed heritage and a glorious hope. George Stone was converted before he reached his maturity. He joined the North Georgia Conference at Gainesville in 1893, and gave twenty-five years of devoted and exceptionally efficient service to the ministry. His appointments were as follows: Blue Ridge, Dahlonega, Middleton, Oconee Street (Athens), St. Luke (Atlanta), Jasper, Calhoun, Thomson, Jefferson, Young Harris (Athens), Payne Memorial (Atlanta), Woodlawn (Augusta), and Winterville. He also served as President of a Conference School at Blue Ridge, as Superintendent of the Orphans' Home at Decatur, and as Conference Evangelist. George Stone was an unusual man—industrious and practical, he was successful in business; clear-visioned, he knew and lived the truth; warm-hearted, he was beloved by friends; tender and sympathetic, he was almost adored by his family; strong of convictions, he was honored and trusted; rich in experience and abundant in labors, he was wonderfully efficient in his ministry. He loved the gospel and gloried in preaching it. His heart overflowed with love for the lost, as a fountain that never runs dry. He seemed to think of his life in terms of the Master, "who came to seek and to save the lost." He rendered a full ministry. He diligently cared for all the interests of the Church. He was genuinely interested in all humanities. He loved the brotherhood of the Methodist ministry, and in return he was greatly beloved by his brethren. He magnified his calling and was always loyal to the itinerancy. He believed in the wisdom of it and went to his appointments in cheerful willingness, regarding each place as a coveted opportunity to tell the story of God's redeeming love in Christ Jesus.—S. P. Wiggins.

Ques. 22. Are all the preachers blameless in their life and official administration? Their names were called, one by one, and their characters examined and passed, except Robert Henry Blackshear, withdrawn.

Ques. 23. What is the number of local preachers and members in the several circuits, stations, and missions of the Conference?

WALTON WILSON CRYMES, son of Dr. A. C. and Mrs. M. R. Crymes, was born at Batesville, Ala., November 1, 1877; was converted and united with the M. E. Church, South, at Midway, Ala., in 1886; was licensed to preach in August, 1900. On June 29, 1909, he was married to Miss Cordelia Banks, daughter of H. C. and Elizabeth Banks Jernigan. To this union were born four children: Elizabeth Cranford, Martha Clayton, Esther Banks, and Walton Wilson, Jr. At the session of the Alabama Conference held at Ozark, Ala., in December, 1900, Brother Crymes was admitted on trial and appointed to Mount Vernon Circuit, which charge he served acceptably for four years; then Broad Street, Selma, for two years. At the session of the Conference held at Eufaula in December, 1906, he was transferred to the Indian Mission Conference and appointed to Atoka Charge, 1907-08; Guymon, two years; Broken Arrow, 1911-12. In November, 1912, he was transferred to the North Alabama Conference, where he served Camp Hill and Waverly one year and Lineville Station four years. At the last session of our Conference he was appointed to Piedmont Station, where he served with great acceptability and success until he was called to his reward, on October 21, 1918. Brother Crymes was an excellent preacher and a good pastor. His preaching was clear-cut, scriptural, convincing, fruitful. While he was preeminently a preacher, he was also an all-round Christian gentleman. Truly a prince in Israel has fallen. He has gone to his reward and "his works do follow him." We dare not enter the sacred realm of home and speak of his tender relations there further than to say that he was an affectionate husband and an indulgent and loving father. He leaves besides his wife and four children, to mourn their great loss, his mother, Mrs. M. R. Crymes, and one brother, Mr. A. C. Crymes, of Birmingham, Ala.; also two sisters, Mrs. E. C. Merritt, of Muskogee, Okla., and Mrs. M. H. Hitchcock, of Midway, Ala.—Robert H. Jones.

NOAH WEBSTER BEVERLY, son of A. H. and M. A. Beverly, was born in Claiborne, Monroe County, Ala., February 4, 1854, and died in Mobile, Ala., March 22, 1918. He was married to Miss H. C. Threadgill, of Marengo County, Ala., on December 18, 1878, and his wife and five children survive him. Those living are: Mrs. O. D. Dismukes, Shiloh, Ala.; Mrs. N. A. Zolaggl, Indianapolis, Ind.; Mrs. C. T. Sowden, Tallahassee, Fla.; Miss Irene Beverly, Tallahassee, Fla.; E. H. Beverly, Willon, Okla. He was converted and joined our Church at the age of fifteen and, called to preach, served the Church in the ministry thirty-eight years. He was a member of the Alabama Conference and later a member of the North Alabama Conference, and was a superannuate member of the latter several years preceding and at the time of his death. For about a year before his death he resided in Mobile, and for the last few months was confined to his room, suffering intensely. In all the intense trial of these months he never uttered an unkind word nor expressed an ungenerous feeling toward any human being. There was no cloud in his spiritual sky, and he manifested in a remarkable degree the overcoming power of vital faith in the Saviour. He said: "My journey has been through the wilderness, with a few flowers near my path; but, thank God, I was permitted to preach the gospel of Jesus Christ." When the end came he passed away like a little child going to sleep. One who heard him preach for years said he was one among a few who always prepared and never preached except with power. His passion for preaching was all-consuming. Revs. O. V. Calhoun, J. E. Northcut, and L. H. S. Chappelle, Jr., assisted by the writer, conducted the funeral service, acted as pallbearers, and, aided by Revs. L. S. Gilmer, J. T. DeBardeleben, J. W. Horn, and W. T. Hutto, laid his body to rest in the Methodist preachers' lot in Magnolia Cemetery.—J. M. Dannelly.

WILLIAM THOMAS PATTILLO was born in Macon County, Ala., November 16, 1840. He was the son of Rev. Nathan W. and Eliza Ann Hightower Pattillo. His parents settled in Macon (now Lee) County in 1838. He was one of a family of ten children. His elementary education was obtained in a small public school in the community where he was reared. At the age of eleven years he was converted and joined the M. E. Church, South, on probation, at Andrew Chapel, on the Tuskegee Circuit. In September, 1850, he entered the sophomore class in the East Alabama Male College, located at Auburn, at its opening session. Here he continued until 1861, when he enlisted as a volunteer in the army of the Confederate States. He remained in the army until the surrender, in 1865. After the war he returned to his home, where he taught school for five years. In the fall of 1865 he was licensed to preach by the Quarterly Conference of Loachapoka Circuit. On November 21, 1870, he was admitted on trial into the North Alabama Conference, at its organization, having been ordained a local deacon on the day before by Bishop McTyeire. He served the following charges: Socapato, four years; Pinckneyville Circuit, two years; Oakbowery Circuit, three years; Van Buren Circuit, two years. At the session of the Conference held in Oxford in 1881 he was appointed principal of the LaFayette District High School to be located at Ashland. After one year he retired from school work and served as follows: Lineville Circuit, four years; Roanoke Circuit, two years; back to Lineville, two years; Pratt City Station, one year; Limestone Circuit, one year; Hartselle Circuit, three years; Oneonta Circuit, one year; Remlap and Mount Pinson, one year. This closed his work in the active ministry. At the Conference of 1899 he was placed on the honor roll. On July 16, 1867, Brother Pattillo was married to Miss Sarah B. Cole, of Macon County. In her he found a helpmeet indeed. To this union were born four girls and three boys. Only one of them—the oldest daughter—preceded him to the better land. He has finished his work. A good man, a model husband, a devoted father, a loyal citizen, he lived his life well and his works do follow him. On the night of July 31, 1918, surrounded by all his family, he quietly fell asleep and entered into his reward. The next afternoon the writer, assisted by Revs. J. W. Norton and W. K. Simpson, laid his tired body to rest in the quiet little cemetery at Montevallo to await the resurrection morn.—J. D. Simpson.

JAMES FRANK RUDISILL was born in Saundersville, Ga., March 22, 1867. He was the son of John W. and Martha Ann Pournelle Rudisill. He was converted and joined the M. E. Church, South, at Anniston, Ala., in a meeting conducted by Rev. John B. Culpepper. He was licensed to preach by Broad Street Church, Columbus, Ga., June 28, 1891. He spent some time in Emory College, Oxford, Ga., but was compelled to leave before he completed the course on account of his failing health. His first work in the ministry was as a supply at Jeffersonville, Ga., for a sick preacher. He was admitted on trial into the North Alabama Conference in 1892, ordained deacon by Bishop Galoway in 1895, and elder by Bishop Key in 1898. He was twice married and the father of four children. Two of these died in infancy, and the other two, with their mother and two stepchildren, survive him. After a short illness he died in Birmingham, Ala., December 22, 1917. Brother Rudisill was consecrated to the work of the ministry and was faithful in the performance of his duty in every charge he served. He was a Bible preacher. He loved the word of God and studied it much. He was always cheerful and optimistic in his disposition. His was a religion of good tidings, and it gave him joy to tell these tidings to others. In all the relations of life he showed the evidence of being a man acquainted with Jesus Christ. His ministry was earnest and faithful. In his home life his real character appeared to its fullest advantage. He was a model husband and father, and his children honored and revered him.—J. D. Simpson.

JOHN GARROTT WALKER was born at Linden, Marengo County, Ala., August 30, 1836, and died at his home, in Columbiana, Ala., September 24, 1918. The son of Christian parents, he was converted and joined the Methodist Church at the age of eleven. The foundation of his literary education was laid in the schools of Moundville and Havana, Ala. The superstructure was carefully directed by the renowned artificers (teachers) of Summerfield, Ala., where he spent four years; thence to the Southern University, Greensboro, Ala., where as a young preacher he continued his course to within three months of his graduation. In 1861, as a Christian patriot, he responded to his country's call, enlisted in the 21st Mississippi Regiment, and served faithfully to the end of the war. Recommended by the Greensboro Quarterly Conference, he soon became an itinerant Methodist preacher. He was a member of the Church over seventy years, a Methodist preacher over sixty-four years, a member of the Sunday school over sixty years, and a charter member of the North Alabama Conference. Brother Walker was thrice married. November 15, 1864, he was married to Miss Winifred Camp in Munford, Ala. To this union were born two children, Sallie and Maggie (now Mrs. Hicks and Mrs. T. J. Weaver, of Columbiana, Ala.). While on Plantersville Circuit, on September 18, 1869, this wife died. In 1870, while pastor of Center charge, Brother Walker was married to Miss Katie Reeves. Again two precious girls, Sudie and Grace. While he was pastor at Guntersville, Sudie died, but Grace was spared to nurse and care for her father in his last years like an angel of love and mercy incarnated. While pastor in Tuscumbia there came the yellow fever epidemic and only Brother Walker and the Episcopal rector remained in the city to represent the Christian ministry. Brother Walker had the fever, but his family escaped. Soon after, however, on August 19, 1878, his wife died, leaving him with three little girls. His next appointment was Jacksonville and White Plains, where he served four years and then superannuated. On February 22, 1881, he was married to Mrs. M. B. Brooks, of Piedmont, Ala. Later he was readmitted to the Conference and sent to Columbiana Circuit, where he remained three years, then to Childersburg three years, thence to Munford. While here he superannuated finally. A cultured, scholarly, chivalric Christian gentleman; a preacher of the gospel, divinely called and commissioned—he spake with authority, the Holy Ghost bearing witness with power. Brother Walker suffered long and intensely, but patiently, submissively, and hopefully. In the Columbiana Methodist Church, which he had served as pastor in other years, his funeral was conducted by his pastor, Rev. A. J. Notestine, assisted by the writer, and his weary form was laid to rest in the city cemetery.—T. K. Roberts.

JOSHUA WARREN was born in Talladega County, Ala., November 13, 1855. His parents moved from East Tennessee to Talladega, Ala., in 1840. They were not able to give their children a collegiate education, hence the literary advantages of the subject of this sketch were limited to the country schools in the communities where he lived. He was converted at the age of fifteen, at Bethel Church, on the Talladega Circuit, and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. He was licensed to preach by the Quarterly Conference of Harpersville Circuit in 1885. He was admitted on trial into the North Alabama Conference at Florence, Ala., in 1886, and received into full connection in 1888. He was appointed to the following charges: Waterloo Circuit, 1887-90; Summit Circuit, 1891; Cleveland Circuit, 1892; Coosa Valley Circuit, 1893-94; New Hope Circuit, 1900; Leeds Circuit, 1902; Piedmont Circuit, 1903; Lincoln Circuit, 1904-05; Boaz Station, 1906; Easonville and Pell City, 1911-14. This was his last pastoral charge. He superannuated at the session of the Conference held at Sylacauga in November, 1914. He was a splendid preacher, and exemplified in his own life the gospel that he preached. He was a good pastor. He had the happy art of visiting the people and praying with them in their homes. He was first married to Miss Amanda A. Goggins, and to this union were born six children. One died in infancy, and another son died at Florence, Ala., when about eighteen years of age, and two noble sons died in the service of our country in the Philippines. He has one gifted son, a graduate of Birmingham-Southern College, who is now serving our country as first lieutenant at Camp Wheeler. His daughter, Mrs. P. H. Holcomb, resides at Woodlawn, Birmingham, Ala. His second marriage, something over twenty-five years ago, was to Miss Mecca Waters. She is still living and, in the midst of great affliction and sorrow, leans upon the Everlasting Arms. He died at Birmingham, Ala., February 12, 1918. He lived in daily communion with God, and was ready when the final summons came. His funeral service was conducted by Rev. Robert Echols, at Woodlawn, assisted by Dr. J. T. Morris, Dr. L. C. Branscomb, and the writer, and his remains were buried in the beautiful cemetery at Woodlawn to await the resurrection of the just.—J. W. Norton.

Ques. 22. Are all the preachers blameless in their life and official administration? Their names were called, one by one, and their characters examined and passed, except J. T. Terry, who surrendered his credentials.

Ques. 23. What is the number of local preachers and members in the several circuits, stations, and missions of the Conference?

CHARLES WESLEY BYRD was born March 23, 1858, in Harnett County, N. C., the son of J. A. and Caroline Byrd. In youth he joined the Methodist Church. He was educated at Jonesboro High School, the University of North Carolina, and Vanderbilt University. In December, 1882, at Raleigh he was admitted on trial into the North Carolina Conference and served the following charges: 1883, Scotland Neck; 1884-86, Morehead City; 1887-89, First Church, Salisbury; 1890, Hay Street, Fayetteville; 1891-92, Central Church, Asheville; 1893, presiding elder of the Shelby District; 1894-96, presiding elder of the Asheville District; 1897-99, Central Church, Asheville; 1900, Settle Memorial, Owensboro, Ky.; 1901-04, First Church, Atlanta, Ga.; 1905-06, St. John's, Augusta, Ga.; 1907-10, West End, Nashville, Tenn.; 1911-12, Central Church, Asheville; 1913-16, West Market Street, Greensboro; 1917-18, Central Church, Asheville. During this long period he was presiding elder for four years and station preacher for thirty-two years. His field of activity was scattered over five Annual Conferences—viz., the North Carolina, Western North Carolina, Kentucky, North Georgia, and Tennessee. During his pastorate in Salisbury he was married to Miss Hattie Bobbitt, daughter of the late Rev. Dr. William H. Bobbitt, of blessed memory, and he found in her a stay and support during the remaining years of his pilgrimage. She still survives, with the only son, William Bobbitt Byrd, now in the service of his country, in the aviation corps in France. Dr. Byrd had just entered hopefully upon the second year of his fourth term as pastor of Central Church, Asheville, seemingly in usual health, when the new year (1918) began. He held the mid-week prayer service on Wednesday evening, January 2, and then made a pastoral call before returning to the parsonage. Before the morning dawned, however, he was mortally stricken, and in a few hours his pure spirit was released to wing its flight to the eternal home. He departed, as he often wished he might, in the midst of active service, for he went literally from labor to reward. The mortal body was lovingly laid to rest in the bosom of the great mountains, in Riverside. He possessed strong native intellect and took full advantage of splendid school opportunities, so that when he came to the pastorate he was richly furnished in mind and heart for his holy task. The studious habits of his youth were continued to the very end of his life, and his mental vigor increased with the years, so that his wide and varied knowledge stamped him in his latter days as a man of very broad culture. He was a brilliant man without vanity, a scholar without pedantry, a churchman without bigotry, a saint without fanaticism, and so sincerely sympathetic that he held as "with hooks of steel" the many friends, of all classes and conditions, whom he attracted by his gentle and magnetic manner. His pastoral visits were benedictions long to be remembered by many who were under his watchful care. His public prayers were scriptural in expression, transparent in simplicity, and uttered with such earnestness and faith that worshipers forgot the sordid things of the world and were lifted into a devout and serious frame. He loved his brethren and was by them beloved and recognized as one of the wise leaders of the Conference. They made him president of the Conference Historical Society and of the Sunday School Board, and he was honored as a delegate to the General Conferences of 1894 and 1898; and at our last session, at Asheville, was elected to the General Conference of 1918. He was loved by the people in all the charges which he served, but he was best known and most loved by the people of Central Church, Asheville, to whom he had ministered in the gospel as pastor and presiding elder for twelve years, or one-third of the full period of his ministerial life.—William L. Sherrill.

JOHN P. DAVIS was a Methodist itinerant for nearly twenty years, serving during those years ten different circuits and stations, undergoing the varied experiences of a Methodist pastor, and through it all preserved the hopeful, buoyant spirit of youth. He never grew old; one might almost say that he never grew up; certain it is that he never became long-faced or solemn-visaged. He was the third child of James W. and Nancy Ross Davis, and was born October 8, 1870, at Palmerville, Stanley County, N. C., where he lived until he joined the Methodist itinerancy. He was converted about the year 1883 and joined the Methodist Church at Palmerville. He attended the following schools: Yadkin Institute, Yadkin Academy, and Bain Academy. He was licensed to preach by the Salisbury District Conference in 1897. He was admitted on trial into the Western North Carolina Conference at its session at Winston, in November, 1898. He was ordained deacon by Bishop H. C. Morrison at Greensboro on November 25, 1900, and elder at Monroe by Bishop A. Coke Smith on November 23, 1902. The record of his service in the Conference is as follows: 1899, Glenville Circuit; 1900-01, Jackson Hill Circuit; 1902, Liberty Circuit; 1903, Epworth-Concord; 1904-05, Salisbury Circuit; 1906, South Reidsville; 1907-09, West Albemarle; 1910-12, Iredell Circuit; 1913-16, Polkville Circuit; 1917-

18, Lincoln Circuit. At the end of his first year in the ministry, on November 30, 1899, he was happily married to Miss Lillie I. Reeves, of Palmerville. Six children came to bless their home, all of whom are living. To Brother Davis the end came as a quiet evening to a peaceful day. He had been ill for only a little more than two weeks. For the first ten days his condition seemed not at all serious, but on Friday he developed pneumonia, on Monday his condition became critical, and on Tuesday night he dropped into a peaceful sleep, from which he awoke only at intervals, and so he gently passed into that land where the Saviour says we shall have rest and peace. On Thursday, February 7, we carried his body from the parsonage at Lincolnton to old Asbury Church, four miles out on the Charlotte road. The funeral was conducted by his presiding elder, John F. Kirk. The stewards of the Church acted as pallbearers and in the large audience present there were representatives of every Church on the charge.—John F. Kirk.

EDWARD KING HARDIN was born in Abbeville, S. C., June 29, 1884. He was the son of Edward K. and Ida Clinkscales Hardin. The father was a splendid citizen of the highest Christian character. The mother also received a college education, being a graduate of what was then known as Williamston Female College, now Lander College. From each he inherited strength and character. He received his early education in the schools of Batesburg, completing the course in the high school in 1900. In the fall of 1900 he entered Wofford College as a member of the freshman class, and graduated in June, 1904. In September of the same year he was elected to the faculty of the Carlisle Fitting School, and remained a member of that faculty for a year. During the summer of 1905 he was selected to supply the charge at Mount Pleasant, S. C. In the scholastic year of 1905-06 he was a member of the faculty of the Wofford College Fitting School. During this same period he was pastor of the Clover Circuit, York County. He devoted full time to the work of the Clover Circuit from June, 1906, until September, 1907. He was a pupil at Princeton University in 1907-08. In the following summer he supplied the pulpit of the First Methodist Church at Greenwood, S. C. In the fall of 1908 he was admitted on trial into the South Carolina Conference and given an appointment as Missionary Evangelist, in which work he was engaged until September of the year 1909. During the scholastic year 1909-10 he was at Vanderbilt University, receiving the degree of M.A. from that institution. During the following summer he supplied the pulpit of St. John's Church, Orangeburg, S. C. From September, 1910, until June, 1911, he was Associate Professor of Psychology and the Bible at Wofford College. In addition to his work as teacher he served as pastor of St. John's Church, Rock Hill, S. C., from December, 1910. At the close of his year's labor at Wofford he devoted his entire time to the pastorate at Rock Hill, until 1913. In December, 1913, he was appointed pastor of Mount Vernon Place Church, Washington, D. C., where he remained for four years. It was there that he did a monumental work. It was during this pastorate that Wofford College conferred upon him the degree of Doctor of Divinity. Last March he was transferred from the Baltimore to the Western North Carolina Conference and assigned to Central Church, Asheville, filling the vacancy caused by the death of the late Dr. C. W. Byrd. He died October 16, 1918, and was buried at Chester, S. C., October 18, 1918. In June, 1911, he was married to Miss Kate Glenn, of Chester, S. C., and is survived by his widow and four children. The world is poorer that he has gone.—Loy D. Thompson.

WILLIAM VANCE HONEYCUTT was born near Statesville, N. C., January 24, 1863, and died in Shelby, N. C., January 2, 1918. He was the son of Wortman Honeycutt, a farmer of Iredell County, and was the ninth of twelve children. His only education was such as the country public schools of his day were able to give. While yet a boy he professed faith in Christ and joined the Methodist Church at Chapel Hill, in Iredell County, having been the first of his father's family to become religious. On April 10, 1884, he was married to Miss Ellen Sherrill, of Cabarrus County. For more than thirty years they journeyed together in loving companionship, till they were parted by her death on January 10, 1917. Although he was cheerful and uncomplaining, he was never well again and did not long survive her. He was received on trial into the North Carolina Conference at Greensboro in 1889; ordained deacon by Bishop Galloway at Asheville in 1891, and elder by Bishop Duncan at Charlotte in 1893. His appointments were as follows: 1889, Big Lick Mission; 1890-92, Salem Circuit, this being a new name, but not a new charge; 1893-94, Connelly Springs

Circuit; 1895-96, Morganton Circuit; 1897-98, Webster and Dillsboro; 1899-1900, Polkton; 1901-02, Monroe Circuit; 1903-05, Concord Circuit; 1906, Bessemer City; 1907-08, Lowell; 1909-12, Belwood; 1913, Alexander; 1914-16, Granite Falls. He was not able to complete the year's work at Granite Falls. After his wife's death his own health declined rapidly, and in the early summer he came to Shelby to his daughters for a month's rest, which he hoped would restore his strength. Instead of improving, he continued to grow worse, and was compelled to surrender his charge before the end of the year. At the Conference of 1917 he was superannuated, and on January 2, 1918, he fell into the sleep that knows no waking. Measured by the best of all tests, Brother Honeycutt was a good preacher. Earnest and practical, and sometimes eloquent, his sermons were addressed to the hearts as well as to the heads of his congregations and were persuasive and helpful. His uniform success was due in no small measure to his faithful pastoral work. He visited his people, and his cheerful presence was always welcome and helpful.—Charles A. Wood.

ROBERT WESLEY PICKENS was born near Weaverville, N. C., November 21, 1824. His father was Rev. Andrew Pickens, who joined the South Carolina Conference in 1810. Robert Pickens's mother was Catharine Weaver, a sister of Jacob and Montreville Weaver, who were among the first settlers and the first Methodists in the western part of the State. He was educated in the best common schools of the country and in the high school at New Market, Tenn. He had an alert and retentive mind and made the best use of his opportunities. He was a lifelong student of books and men. He became a Christian early in life and was licensed to preach while a very young man. He was admitted on trial into the Holston Conference at Athens, Tenn., in 1845, and served the following charges: 1845, Elizabeth Circuit and Johnson Mission; 1846, Waynesville Circuit and Echota Mission; 1847, Jamestown Circuit; 1848, Cumberland Circuit; 1849, Estellville Circuit; 1850, Hillsville Circuit. His work this year was very heavy, his health became impaired, and the next year he was left with a nominal appointment. In 1852, not having regained his health sufficiently for active service, he took the superannuate relation, which he held for three years. In 1855 he was made supernumerary and held this relation for ten years; 1865-66, Catawba Circuit; 1867, Burnsville Circuit, embracing Mitchell and Yancey Counties; 1868, nominal appointment; 1869-78, supernumerary. During this time he served three years as financial agent of Weaverville College, and also did pastoral work on Henderson Circuit; 1879, Leicester Circuit; 1880, Marshall Circuit; 1881-83, Cranberry and Toe River Circuit; 1884, Pigeon River Circuit; 1885, Blue Ridge Circuit; 1886-88, Spring Creek and Hot Springs Circuit; 1889, Eleazer Circuit; 1890, Andersonville Circuit; 1891, transferred to the Western North Carolina Conference and appointed to Polkton Circuit; 1892, superannuated and held this relation until his death. Brother Pickens was married three times. His first wife was Miss Caroline Bickley, of Russell County, Va. His second wife was Miss Sue M. Forgey, of Tennessee, who was the mother of three sons and one daughter. One of the sons is Rev. C. M. Pickens, of this Conference. His third wife was Miss Taletha White, with whom he lived happily for forty years. He was an affectionate husband and kind father. His was a happy home. His children loved him and delighted to do him honor. He was successful as a pastor, loved the old-time revival and the class meeting, was strict and firm in discipline, and his ministry everywhere bore abundant fruit. For several years he had been in feeble health, constantly growing weaker, until at last the worn and weary wheels of life stood still on January 20, 1918, being a little more than ninety-three years of age. His death was peaceful and triumphant. —D. Atkins.

JAMES REECE SCROGGS occupied for many years a position of leadership and prominence in this Conference, and his death has left a vacancy in our ranks which it will be difficult to supply, for he was one of our wisest and best men. He had served all grades of appointments, from small circuits to large stations and districts, with uniform satisfaction, and at the last Conference received his forty-fifth appointment. He had entered hopefully upon his second year on Marion Station when, almost suddenly, the Messenger came to guide him to the Eternal City whither he had been journeying for many weary years. He was a son of the late J. Hial and Sarah Jane (Stevenson) Scroggs, of Iredell County, and was born December 2, 1848. When sixteen years old he was converted, under the ministry of the sainted Rev. John Tillett, and joined the Methodist Church at Center, on the old Iredell Circuit. He took full advantage of his school opportunities, first attending the local district schools and later received instruction at both Olin and Statesville Academies. Feeling that God wanted him to preach the gospel, he accepted the call, and the Statesville Quarterly Conference granted him license in 1873, and in December of that year he was admitted on trial into the North Carolina Conference at Goldsboro. He was ordained deacon by Bishop Kavanaugh and elder by Bishop Pierce. His Conference appointments were as follows: 1874-76, Stokes Circuit; 1877-79, South Guilford Circuit; 1880-81, Buckhorn Circuit; 1882-83, Carthage Circuit; 1884-86, Stokes Circuit; the latter half of 1886, Centenary, Winston; 1887, Shelby Station; 1880-90, Randleman Station, until July, 1890, when he was assigned to Trinity District to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Rev. P. F. W. Stamey. The Western North Carolina Conference was organized in 1890, and his appointments in it were: 1891-93, Statesville District; 1894-97, Salisbury District; 1898-1900, Washington Street, High Point; 1901-04, Greensboro District; 1905-07, Winston District; 1908, Broad Street, Statesville; 1909, Shelby Station; 1910, Shelby District; 1911-13, Charlotte District; 1914-16, Shelby District; 1917, Marion Station, to which he was reappointed at our last session, but in a few short weeks thereafter (December 17, 1917) God called him to the Church above. He was three times a delegate to the General Conference. The various appointments which he received and the many other positions of responsibility which he held prove his worth and ability and that he was regarded as a wise and capable leader. He was a preacher of more than ordinary gifts. His sermons were clear-cut, logical, scriptural. His thought was expressed in the terse language of the people and his illustrations were strong and convincing. As a pastor he went into the presence of sorrow and distress with a measure of sympathy and love that brought comfort to the careworn and broken-hearted. He had great administrative ability and was a great presiding elder. He had a judicial mind. He knew the law and the Discipline and how to apply it wisely. He had strong common sense and sane judgment and could see all sides of a question. He was a man of few words. On March 22, 1872, he was married to Miss Sue Augusta Gunn, of Statesville. He was a gentle and loving husband, and she made him a model wife. They had five children, two of whom preceded the father to the other world. For some time prior to his death his health was feeble, but he was able to carry on his work and expressed the hope that he might be able to preach yet for several years. On the day he died he arose in usual health and ate his breakfast, but in a brief time became violently ill and in a few hours passed beyond. The funeral service, held in the Marion church, was conducted by Rev. Parker Holmes, assisted by the pastors of the town. Then the body was taken to Shelby, where the final service was conducted and the body was laid to rest in the Shelby cemetery until the resurrection morning.—William L. Sherrill.

Ques. 22. Are all the preachers blameless in their life and official administration? Their names were called, one by one, and their characters examined and passed.

Ques. 23. What is the number of local preachers and members in the several circuits, stations, and missions of the Conference?

HIRAM M. GLASS was born near Huntsville, Ala., June 11, 1828. He was received into the Methodist Church on probation in 1841, and maintained an unbroken connection for seventy-seven years. When he was twenty years old he was licensed to preach at Pickensville, Ala. In 1849 he came to Texas and attended school at Chappell Hill for two years. The next three years he taught school in that vicinity, and in 1855 was elected President of the Chappell Hill College. In the same year, in December, he was admitted on trial into the Texas Conference. In the fall of 1856 he was appointed to Centerville. In 1858-59 he was stationed at Anderson; in 1860 at Waverly and Cold Springs. In 1861 he served the Fairfield charge until the fourth Quarterly Conference. He was then released from his charge and joined the Confederate Army. The records to which I have had access are so meager that no accurate statement of the charges he served can be given. He gave, first and last, a good many years to teaching in Methodist schools. In 1869 he joined the old Northwest Texas Conference. He was granted the superannuate relation in 1892. When the Conference was divided he became a member of the Central Texas Conference and was in that relation at the time of his death. After his superannuation Brother Glass continued to have an intense passion for souls, and in the city of San Antonio for many years he went about among the poor and outcast, ministering to the sick, praying for the wayward in every way within his power, seeking to save the lost. And even after he was admitted as an inmate of the Old Soldiers' Home in Austin, where he died, he continued as long as his strength would allow to give spiritual help to all whom he could reach. He believed that as long as God left him here he had some work to do, and he sought for it and found it. He never laid down his armor until the crown was in sight. For seventy-seven years he was a Methodist and for more than seventy years a Methodist preacher. He ceased at once to work and live.—John M. Barcus.

GEORGE W. OWENS was born in Monroe County, Ala., March 25, 1852. He came to Texas with his mother, six brothers, and two sisters in 1868, settling near Calvert. He was converted at Horn Hill under the ministry of Rev. William Graves, in October, 1870, and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, the following December. He was licensed to preach by Rev. Thomas Stanford in November, 1871. He was ordained deacon by Bishop Doggett in 1876, and an elder by Bishop Parker in November, 1882. He was admitted on trial into the old Northwest Texas Conference in October, 1878, at Belton. In the fall of 1878 he was married to Miss Allie Epperson, daughter of the late Petty Epperson, one of our great laymen. He served the following pastoral charges: Reagor Circuit, 1879-80; Ferris Circuit, 1881; Wesley and Rush, 1882; Wesley Circuit, 1883; Lancaster Station, 1884; Bruceville, 1885-86; Lancaster, 1887-88. He was for fifteen years Financial Agent of the Texas Christian Advocate, and for the past twelve years he held a supernumerary relation in the Central Texas Conference. Brother Owens was a successful pastor, having had 150 conversions in his first charge, 160 in his second, 82 in his third, 45 in the fourth, 40 in the fifth, 65 in his sixth, and in like manner to the close of his active ministry. In each of these charges he built a new church or parsonage, or both. After his health failed and he became active in business he was devoted to his Church. The present Tyler Street Church, Oak Cliff, was erected by him at a cost of $5,000. His fine physique, his genial greeting, his happy spirit, and his open face made him attractive in any company of men. To know him was to love him. To him and his noble wife, who survives him, were born three sons and three daughters. They were a happy family. We will miss him at the annual roll call, but he has answered to the call from above.—H. Bishop.

ALLEN LEWELLYN ANDREWS was the son of Allen S. and Virginia Hudson Andrews, and was born in Columbus, Miss., January 22, 1868. His father was one of the leading men of Methodism of his day, a preacher and educator of national reputation. His mother was by nature a gentlewoman, by education cultured, and by grace a handmaiden of the Lord. On November 4, 1890, Dr. Andrews was married to Miss Hassie Martin in Madison, Ala. This union was crowned with eight children: Mrs. Virginia Hudson Manly, William B., Allen S., Mrs. Lila Elizabeth Hill, Ruth De Jarnette, Allen Lewellyn, Jr., Julian Lee, and John Holt. All of these survive him except William B., who met his death at the same time as his father and mother, and Allen S., who died in infancy. Dr. Andrews entered the Southern University before he was sixteen years old, and was graduated in four years with the master's degree. He was a bright student and his college career was a brilliant one. There was hardly an honor offered in the institution that he did not win. He was popular with his fellow students and a trusted leader among them. He joined the North Alabama Conference in 1887, and for two years was stationed at Madison, Ala. In November, 1889, he transferred to the Alabama Conference and served the following charges: Huntsboro and Seale, Clayton, Midway, Wetumpka, Dexter Avenue (Montgomery), and Church Street (Selma). He transferred to the North Texas Conference in 1906, where he served the following charges: Grace (Dallas), Sherman District, Terrell District, and Wichita Falls. In the fall of 1916 he was transferred to the Central Texas Conference and was stationed at First Church, Fort Worth, where, after finishing his first year with great popularity and success, and soon after entering upon his second year, he met his tragic and lamentable death on December 28, 1917. He was twice a member of the General Conference, elected once by the Alabama Conference and once by the North Texas Conference. He was chosen first alternate delegate by the Central Texas Conference to the last General Conference. Judged by effectiveness, he was a great preacher. He edified the saints and flashed the light of a new hope into the hearts of sinners. In Wichita Falls he enrolled more than five hundred converts in one year. He was a great pastor. He knew the art of shepherding. His flock believed in him. In all his pastorates he left a deep impress upon the hearts of the people. His work in First Church, Fort Worth, will long abide as that of a master workman. His labor among the soldiers at Camp Bowie will ever reflect honor upon him as a patriot and lover of men. In his home he was a prince. He dispensed a royal hospitality. All found an abundant welcome. He had nothing for himself. He was an unselfish soul. His family trusted in him. He was their ideal man. It was his delight to serve them. And they in return gave him the unstinted loyalty and love of their hearts. It was a home beautified and sanctified by the atmosphere of self-sacrificing love. It seemed that he died too soon, but he lived long enough to achieve a work that is monumental and a character that shall shine in the hearts of a multitude like stars in the heavens of blue.—F. P. Culver.

MATHIAS HOLLAND MAJOR, son of John Wesley and Sarah Holland Major, was born in Anderson County, S. C., January 5, 1860. He was one of a family of fourteen children—seven girls and seven boys. Under the training of his Christian father and mother he was converted when eight years of age and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. In 1887, when he was only seventeen years of age, he was licensed to preach in the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. Not feeling himself prepared to preach, he commenced a struggle at once for an education. For eight long years he applied himself to this long task, going to school and teaching alternately. In 1885 he joined the South Carolina Conference. He was ordained by Bishop Keener. In 1890 he transferred to the Northwest Texas Conference. When the Conference was divided, he retained his membership in the Central Texas Conference. He served the following charges: Kerens, Blooming Grove, Itasca, Groesbeck, Joshua, Peach Street (Fort Worth), Blanket, Santa Anna, Granbury Mission, Kennedale, Blum, and Rio Vista. He took the superannuate relation in 1913. He was married to Miss Alice Sitton, of Anderson, S. C., September 15, 1886. Of this union there were born seven children: W. H. Major and Mrs. H. M. Ratliff, of San Antonio; Mrs. P. E. Lancaster, of Jonesboro; Towns Major, of Dallas; Morton, Frances S., and D. M. Major, of Fort Worth. His death was a surprise and shock to his many friends. He had been sick but a few days and his illness was known to but few persons. While his wife was sitting by his bed on June 25, 1913, he suddenly passed away. He was a man of strong convictions. He was sure of his conversion and his call to the ministry. The Bible to him was indeed the inspired word of God. He knew, loved, and defended the Methodist doctrine and discipline. He was devoted to his wife and children. He was a good husband and father. A good man has gone from us.—W. H. Mathews.

ROBERT BROWN MCSWAIN was born at Falcon, Ark., July 20, 1875. When he was four years old his parents moved to Emmet, Ark., where he lost his father in 1883. He enjoyed the inestimable blessing of having the careful training of a mother of culture and deep piety, and he joined the Church at an early age. He soon after felt the call to the ministry and was licensed to preach when he was seventeen years old. He attended the public schools of his native State until he was fifteen years old, and afterwards entered Henderson-Brown College at Arkadelphia, Ark. He completed the courses required and graduated from this college in two years. From this college he went to Vanderbilt for his university work, and in two years' time he received both the M.A. and B.D. degrees. In 1897, soon after he was twenty-two years old, he was elected to a professorship at Polytechnic College. He was made President of Polytechnic College in 1899 and acted in this capacity for one year. In the summer of 1900, or soon after he was twenty-five years old, he was elected Professor of Biblical Literature at Southwestern University. In the fall of 1904 he was offered the joint Presidency of Epworth University, in Oklahoma. He severed his relation with Southwestern to accept this position. He found this work delicate and onerous, and his health, never robust, failed under the strain. After one year he found it necessary to resign, and he took nominal work in the Arkansas Conference for two years. His health improved very much under this change of employment. Having been given a Fellowship in Languages at the University of Chicago, he spent the year 1906 in study at this institution. Subsequently, after two summer courses, he was given the Ph.D. degree by the University of Chicago. He served three different charges in the Central and West Texas Conferences. He was appointed to the Burnet charge in 1909, but in the spring of 1910 the white plague fastened its fangs so deeply in him that he was compelled to give up all active work. In 1911 he retired to San Angelo, hoping to regain health in its favorable climate. Here his life was a struggle with this fell disease. He passed away, somewhat unexpectedly, on October 8, 1918. Professor McSwain was married to his boyhood sweetheart, with whom he attended college at Arkadelphia, Miss Mary McKinnon, the daughter of an honored Methodist preacher, just before he entered upon his duties at Southwestern University, on August 29, 1900. Mrs. McSwain was a choice spirit and a woman of unusual culture and intelligence. She died at San Angelo several months ago. They left three children, doubly orphaned, who are living with relatives in San Marcos, Tex.

W. H. HOWARD was born near Louisville, Ky. His father came from the North of Ireland. His mother was a native of Kentucky. He was a third child, two sisters older and three brothers younger. He was reared on a farm and attended the country schools and high school at the town of Jefferson. He did much of his academic work in Forest Academy, Anchorage, Ky. In early manhood he was converted and joined the Church, to which he gave his life of sacrifice and labor. He was licensed to preach in 1879 or 1880 by the Quarterly Conference of Middletown Circuit. Brother Howard entered Vanderbilt University in the autumn of 1880, and was graduated from the Biblical Department in 1882. That fall he returned for a postgraduate course. In September, 1883, he was admitted on trial into the Louisville Conference. The need of men for the mission work of the Denver Conference appealed to Brother Howard, and he transferred to that Conference. He remained there eighteen years, which was longer than any other man ever stayed. In 1883-84 he was pastor at Farmington, N. Mex., where he built the first Methodist church in San Juan County, N. Mex. In 1884-85 he was placed on Mancos Circuit. He was ordained deacon at Trinidad, Colo., July 18, 1885, by Bishop Hargrove, and elder at Las Vegas, N. Mex., July 30, 1887, by Bishop Hendrix. In January, 1885, Brother Howard was stationed at Rico, and remained until Conference and the two following years. At Durango, Colo., he was married to Miss Lizzie Wigglesworth, on July 7, 1886. He was stationed as follows in the Denver Conference: Morrison Memorial (Denver), 1887-88; Las Vegas, N. Mex., 1889-90; Mancos Station, 1890-92; Farmington Station, 1892-96; Durango District, 1893-96; Mancos, 1896-99; Durango District, 1896-98; Durango Station, 1899-1901; Durango District, 1899-1901. In 1901 he was returned for the third year, but was transferred to the Northwest Texas Conference. He was a delegate from the Denver Conference to the General Conference in 1902. He served the following charges in the Northwest and Central Texas Conferences: Midlothian Station, 1901-02; Missouri Avenue (Fort Worth), 1902-05; Vernon District, 1905-08; Ennis Station, 1908-10; Coleman Station, 1910-13; Mart Station, 1913-14; Morrow Street (Waco), 1914-15; Belton Station, 1915-18. From the latter charge, on September 22, at 5:30 on Sunday morning, he went home to heaven. His home life was beautiful, and his relation as husband and father was patterned after the divine ordering. If he ever seemed severe in dealing with his Church, it was because of his intense anxiety for her consistency and usefulness. He was always ready, day and night, to serve his people, and his constancy as pastor knew no limits. I have never heard any one say that his sermons were too long. His mind was naturally quick and strong, and actively trained to think in sermonic order. On Sunday before he went away he told his congregation that the gospel he preached to them had saved and kept him, and it would do the same for them if they would obey. His companion for thirty-two years says that two things he never doubted: his conversion and his call to preach. His last sermon was on the Reality of the Spiritual. In that discourse he said that the spiritual was as real to him as this natural world. At the last he felt resigned to the fates of life as they have come, and to the sure mercies of God for his eternal home.—J. A. Whitehurst.

HENRY STANFORD, pastor of the Methodist Church at Taylor, fell at his post, the victim of Spanish influenza, on October 19, 1918. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Stanford and grandson of Rev. Thomas Stanford, a charter member of the old Northwest Texas Conference. He was born in McLennan County, Tex., February 6, 1881. His parents gave him a college education. With them a call to preach meant a call to prepare their son for the ministry. Henry, the same as the other children, was sent to Southwestern University, where, after four years of hard study, he took his A.B. degree in 1905. The next year he entered Vanderbilt University, where he took his B.D. degree in 1909. He was a close student to the day of his death, reading the best books and current literature, and doing his own thinking as only the trained student can do. His sermons, well prepared, were thoughtful, instructive, and at times sublimely inspiring. He had the rare gift of singing the gospel into men's hearts as well as preaching it to their intellects. As a sweet singer in Israel he ministered to his own congregation.

The Churches that had this man for their pastor, with his accomplished wife and her wonderful voice, were thrice blessed. Brother Stanford's career as a Christian and Christian minister began with his conversion and uniting with the Methodist Church at Spring Valley, when only eight years of age, and his license to preach at Moody in 1901. He joined the Northwest Texas Conference in 1910 and was assigned to Line Street Church, Hillsboro. The next year he was appointed to Handley, and later to Monterey, Mex. While missionary at Monterey Brother Stanford served in the double capacity of pastor of the Methodist congregation and President of Laurens Institute. Owing to disturbed conditions in Mexico in 1912, he transferred back to the Central Texas Conference, and at its session that fall was stationed at Kerens. After this his appointments were as follows: Frost, two years; Rogers, two years; and Taylor, one year and eleven months. In 1913-14, during his pastorate at Frost, he was happily married to Miss Fay Fleming, of Mount Vernon. This union resulted in two children. The baby girl preceded the father to the palace not made with hands, but Henry, Jr., the boy, remains as the comfort and joy of the grief-stricken mother. The writer knew our deceased brother intimately, and greatly appreciated his many manly virtues and his lofty Christian character. He was as gentle and refined as a woman, as chivalrous and as courageous as a knight, and as loyal to the Church and his Lord as martyr or apostle. His unfeigned Methodist faith dwelt alike in his parents and grandparents. From infancy he lived in the atmosphere of the Christian home, associated with religious people, and knew nothing else but to attend Sunday school and upon the ordinances of the Church. Rooted and grounded in the doctrine held by the people called Methodists, he kept the faith, finished the course, and now wears the crown of everlasting life.—John R. Nelson.

Ques. 21. What preachers have died during the past year? J. W. Arnold. 1.

JOHN WESLEY ARNOLD was born in Jefferson County, Ga., January 27, 1856, and died at Buena Vista, Ga., October 10, 1918. Born and reared in a Christian home, he was converted and joined the Methodist Church in early life. At the age of twenty-six he responded to a call to preach. To better qualify himself for his life work, he attended Emory College, two years after which he joined the South Georgia Conference, in the fall of 1884. His first appointment was as junior preacher on the Cairo Circuit. He subsequently served the following charges: Attapulugus, Camilla, Girard, Blakely, Boston, Lumpkin, Trinity (Waycross), East Macon, Perry, Pelham, Talbotton, Pavo, and Buena Vista, where he laid down his armor. He stayed four years each at Girard, Blakely, Boston and Talbotton. While serving his first year on the Cairo Circuit he met and was married to Miss Amanda Melvina Powell, daughter of a distinguished citizen of Decatur County, Ga. To this union were born six children: John Powell Arnold, who died in infancy; Capt. Robert M. Arnold, U. S. A., stationed in Chicago; Sergeant William P. Arnold, now with the Expeditionary Forces of the U. S. A. in France; Mrs. Joseph E. Paulk, Cairo, Ga.; Mrs. Grady Carter, Talbotton, Ga.; and Miss Wessie Arnold, who survived him only about two weeks. John Wesley Arnold was a good man. He loved his Church and gave the proof in a faithful ministry; he loved his neighbor and gave the proof in an unselfish Christian service; he loved his country and gave the proof in the highest type of Christian citizenship; he loved his God and gave the proof in a ministry whose "meat and drink" was to do his will. He was ever loyal to his ordination vows and to his duties as an itinerant Methodist preacher. He was never censorious nor complaining. Orthodox in his faith and scriptural in his preaching, he gave to men no new, man-made evangel. The style of his preaching was plain and to the point. While not classed as a brilliant preacher, yet his preaching was such as led many to repentance and to a higher life. John Wesley Arnold fought a good fight, he kept the faith, and wears to-day the crown of life placed upon his head by the hand of the Righteous Judge.

Ques. 22. Are all the preachers blameless in their life and official administration? Their names were called, one by one, and their characters examined and passed.

Ques. 23. What is the number of local preachers and members in the several circuits, stations, and missions of the Conference?

H. T. GREGORY was born in South Carolina on September 12, 1838, and died in Searcy, Ark., on March 28, 1918, after a long illness. In childhood he removed to Missouri and after a few years came to Pocahontas, Ark., and lived at Pocahontas until he entered the Confederate Army, in 1862. He was converted early in life and was a faithful, consecrated Christian to the end of his long and useful life. Brother Gregory was for thirty-nine years an effective preacher. He was a diligent, thoughtful student of the Bible, and in exegesis was clever and forceful. The doctrines of the new birth and the witness of the Spirit he claimed as a personal experience and earnestly preached them to the people. To our whole doctrinal system and Church polity he was loyal and true. He accepted his appointments as coming from the Lord, and went gladly to every work to which he was assigned. His Christian life was not only above reproach, but was beautiful in its simplicity and influential in its sincerity. Through storm or sunshine, through heat or cold he went to discharge his ministerial duties. He kept a record of every church visited and every sermon preached, and a list of the official members present at the Quarterly Conferences during his entire ministerial life. During his long illness he was patient and kind. He suffered greatly at times, but never a word of complaint came from his lips. His faith in God was strong and his sky was unclouded. His last days were painless, and on March 28 he fell asleep in Jesus. Verily a prince in Israel has fallen.—T. Y. Ramsey.

Ques. 22. Are all the preachers blameless in their life and official administration? Their names were called, one by one, and their characters examined and passed.

Ques. 23. What is the number of local preachers and members in the several circuits, stations, and missions of the Conference?

EDWARD HAMILTON STEWART, son of John F. and Nancy A. Stewart, was born near Murray, Calloway County, Ky., October 5, 1857. In the early morning of December 8, 1917, he quietly and peacefully fell asleep in Jesus. He was converted at the age of fifteen years at Goshen Church, on the Wadesboro Circuit, and immediately joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, under the pastorate of Rev. D. W. Padgett. His first educational advantages were such as the public schools afforded. Having availed himself of these advantages, he took a course in McKenzie College, McKenzie, Tenn., where he graduated June 5, 1878, taking the A.B. degree. He was happily married to Miss Maggie Witt, daughter of the late Rev. John H. Witt, D.D., of the Memphis Conference, April 5, 1882. To this union eight children were born—namely, Dr. John McTyeire, Allen Duckworth, Faith, Hope, Robert Hamilton, Charles Edward, George Candler, and Margaret Love. He is survived by his wife and all the children. He was licensed to preach February 28, 1878, and was admitted into the Memphis Conference on November 15, 1879. He served the following charges: Paducah Circuit, one year; Clinton Station, two years; Columbus Station, one year; Paducah District High School, at Milburn, one year; supernumerary, one year; Stanton and Mason, three years. In the fall of 1888 he transferred to the Pacific Conference and served Lakeport Station one year. He transferred back to the Memphis Conference in 1889 and served Murray and Benton, two years; Dresden Station, two years; Friendship Circuit, three years; Moscow and Cayce, four years; Ralston Circuit, one year; Martin Circuit, four years; South Fulton Circuit, four years; Obion and Rives, two years; Greenfield, one year; Grand Junction and Saulsbury, two years; Bardwell and Wickliffe, one year. He was a superannuate a little more than two years. He had the joyous pleasure of seeing many converted and brought into the Church under his ministry. He said to the writer a while before he passed away: "If I had my life to live over, I should be glad to give it to the ministry of my Lord." Brother Stewart was frail in body, but strong in faith and vigorous in intellect. His mentality abided to the end. He was gentle and kind, modest and lovable. He loved God, the Church, and mankind. He was an affectionate husband and a tender, loving father. He was always helped, strengthened, and cheered by his faithful and devoted wife, who now mourns the sad loss she has sustained. The last year of his active ministry he was in charge of Bardwell and Wickliffe, where he did a splendid year's work and was highly respected and loved by all. He was a good preacher. He has gone from us, but he is not forgotten by us.—E. B. Graham.

THOMAS JEFFERSON MCGILL was born in 1840 and reared and dimly schooled in the poor gravel hills of Benton County. He stepped into the Christian profession at thirteen, entered the Church at fifteen, and was licensed to preach at nineteen; enlisted in Company F, Fifth Infantry of his State, at twenty-one; received his military baptism of fire in Missouri, fought at Tullahoma and Stone's River, was special courier for his provost-general, twice captured, and a prisoner at the close of the war. At twenty-six, emerging from the storm of the Civil War, he went to the marriage altar with Eliza Ann Jackson, the precious bit of a woman on whom he lavished the knightly love of his stainless life till she stole away in that early June dawn a year and a half ago, leaving him with the printed invitations to their golden wedding in his trembling fingers, and with their eight parsonage-born, adoring sons and daughters. The conspicuous truth about the good man was the rare and priceless advance quality of his character under the gospel of God and his shining Christ. Brother McGill was more human and reasonable and lovable to his latest day. With loyal and consuming love for his Church, he escaped the banal blight of being churchly. Impetuous and inflammatory, he did not grow dogmatic, contentious, and impossible. When you went to his home, prayer was as simple and inevitable as good-by. His saving and superior quality was hid in the fact that he took life to be the romance which it is. And the gospel romance got him, got all of him. No wonder he could not be superannuated. Thrice and more he voluntarily retired, not to the smug hoardings of a Ben Franklin thrift, but out of his innate sense of the fitness, to a meager living indeed. And as many times was he recalled mid-year to take some post left vacant by a deceased or derelict preacher. And how the people loved to have it so! And how the Conference listened to his annual accountings! And how his sun-bright head seemed to touch the sky! How glad to God I am for the gift of you to us all!—Clough A. Waterfield.

JAMES MCFARLAND HAMIL was born on the Hamil farm, a few miles from Maury City, Crockett County, Tenn., March 24, 1853, and died in Woodville, Miss., February 26, 1918. Concerning the family life of Brother Hamil only good can be said. He was first married to one of the neighborhood girls, Miss Lenora Boon, of whom those who knew her testify that she was a true and devoted Christian woman. To this union six children were born, of whom the first-born son and the only daughter, together with their mother, preceded the father to that better world. The second marriage was to Mrs. Eleanor C. Scott, whose maiden name was Davidson. The devotion between this husband and this second wife was most beautiful indeed, and the four sons by the first marriage treated this new mother as though she were their very own. This widow and these four sons—James T., of McLain, Miss.; Leon B., of Ovet, Miss.; John S. and Henry Bell, of La Grange, Tenn.—are left to mourn the loss of as good a husband and father as ever blessed any home. Brother Hamil's educational advantages were limited; but he was a student and a thoughtful reader, and by dint of constant effort he acquired a working fund of practical information with which he accomplished much. His preaching was direct and personal and was calculated to carry conviction to the hearts of those who heard. Above all, he had the wisdom which cometh down from above, and his constant passion was for souls. He was much in demand for revival work. No purer-minded man has ever walked among us. It was not until middle life that he turned to God. In a protracted meeting at Paragould, Ark., he was soundly converted and at once felt and accepted a call to preach. For some time he served as a local preacher, and as such he was ordained a deacon by Bishop Keener in Mayfield, Ky., December 4, 1892. On November 14, 1894, at Humboldt, Tenn., Brother Hamil was admitted on trial into the Memphis Conference. At Paducah, Ky., November 18, 1898, he was received into full connection; and two years later, November 18, 1900, at Martin, Tenn., he was ordained an elder by Bishop Hargrove. Brother Hamil spent all his itinerant life as a circuit preacher, beginning at Hale's Point Mission and closing with a two years' term on the Embury Circuit. He loved his people, and he loved the Church; and the fruits of his labors are to be seen in many communities where he lived and wrought. He was a good man, full of faith and full of the Holy Ghost; and he was particularly a man of prayer. In the midst of his last year of service, 1917, trouble with his heart developed, and his physicians advised that he must at once cease to preach. He regretfully complied, and throughout the remainder of the year the preaching in his charge was done by others who willingly came to his assistance. When our Conference met at Murray, Ky., in November, 1917, he was granted the superannuate relation. In the town of Woodville, on Tuesday, February 26, 1918, his heart stood still, and our brother went to be with his Lord. The body was carried to Memphis; and on Friday morning, March 1, the funeral services were conducted by Rev. B. S. McLemore. We took the body to Mount Vernon Church, where, after additional services, his earthly body was laid to rest beside the grave of his first wife. We confidently expect to see him in our Father's house.—A. J. Meaders.

WILLIAM JAMES NAYLOR was born three miles southeast of Brownsville, Tenn., August 7, 1859, and died in the parsonage at Longstreet, some twelve miles south of Memphis, Wednesday evening, March 6, 1918, being not quite fifty-nine years of age. Brother Naylor's early life was spent on a farm near Brownsville. His opportunities for securing an education were exceedingly limited. The common country schools of that time were run at best about three months in the year. Beyond these he had only a short term in the Jackson District High School. It was a common saying among those who knew Brother Naylor most intimately that not one man in a thousand ever accomplished so much with such meager advantages to begin with. He became particularly well versed in the fundamental doctrines of religion, and he became also a fearless and a successful defender of the characteristic teachings of his Church. By the force of circumstances, as well as by virtue of the fact that his mother was a devout Methodist, he was brought up under the influence of the Methodist Church; and so, when at the age of thirteen he made a public profession of his faith in Christ, he at once united with the Methodist Church at Marvin's Chapel, on the Brownsville Circuit. At the Quarterly Conference of the Brownsville Circuit, August 21, 1880, William J. Naylor was granted license to preach. He exercised as a local preacher for two years, teaching school and preaching as opportunity afforded. At Dyersburg, Tenn., November 18, 1882, he was admitted on trial into the Memphis Conference. Two years later he was received into full connection, and on December 7, 1884, was ordained deacon by Bishop Keener. Two years later he was ordained an elder by Bishop Duncan at Jackson, Tenn., December 12, 1886. For thirty-six years Brother Naylor went in and out among us, a faithful and efficient circuit preacher, and there has been the uniform answer, "Nothing against him." We know that always and everywhere he was conscientious, energetic, and faithful. His own people loved him, and it was not unusual for him to hold his own revival meetings, and in these he was remarkably successful. At Massack, Ky., December 1, 1885, he was married to Miss Maggie Alzie Rudolph. To this union were born two children, Rosa Lorena (now Mrs. Buchanan) and Eugene Rudolph, who is now the President of the Memphis Conference Female Institute. Having felt the need of intellectual training himself, he determined that his children should have the very best advantages he could possibly give them, and now they are fitted for any position into which they may be thrust. He was not self-seeking, had no patience with Church politics, and found his greatest joy in unselfish acts of service. He was not a great preacher, yet he was a good preacher. His sermons were well prepared, and those who heard him were edified and benefited. Brother Naylor's death came in the nature of a great shock. He had not been sick, although he feared, and had cause to believe, that there was trouble about his heart; and he had said to those nearest to him that some day he would go suddenly. He was with us on Friday, March 1, when we buried Brother Hamil, and on the following Wednesday evening, having eaten his supper, he was sitting at his desk with his pen in hand. Suddenly his heart failed entirely, his head sank upon his desk, and within a few short moments his life on earth was ended. On Friday, March 8, after service in the home of his brother in Brownsville, in which a number of other preachers of the Conference participated, we laid his body to rest. We humbly bow in submission to the Master's call that Brother Naylor should go home, and there we confidently expect ere long to meet him again in that sun-bright clime. We loved him while he was among us; we cherish his memory now.—A. J. Meaders.

Ques. 21. What preachers have died during the past year? George A. Le Clere, S. D. Horger, J. W. Cullen. 3.

GEORGE AMANDUS LE CLERE, son of Louis and Mary Le Clere, was born in Brownsville, Pa., August 11, 1852. We are not informed as to his early advantages in educational, financial, and social matters; but the final outcome in his life indicates that these were fairly good, for he was a man of many and good parts. He was converted and joined the Church in December, 1864, in his native town, when he was but twelve years old. He was licensed to preach in May, 1878, admitted on trial into the East Texas Conference at Palestine, Tex., December 3, 1879, ordained deacon by Bishop H. H. Kavanaugh at Jacksonville in 1881, and elder by Bishop Linus Parker at Henderson in 1883. He served the following charges: Prairieville Mission, 1879-81; Bellville Circuit, 1882-83; Beaumont District, 1884-85; Longview Station, 1886-87; Palestine Station, 1888-90; Nacogdoches Station, 1891; Willis Station, 1892-93; Cameron Station, 1894-97; Calvert District, 1898; Austin District, 1899-1900; Houston District, 1901-03; Crockett Station, 1904; Harrisburg, 1905; Calvert Station, 1906. This was his last effective work, as he went on the superannuate roll at the close of his service at Calvert. He died at his home, in Houston, Tex., April 12, 1918. His natural gifts, joined with his habits of study and his association with the best people and brightest minds of his day, made him a strong preacher. Brother Le Clere was an all-round preacher and pastor. By the time he had finished his course of study he had developed such an aptitude in administration that at the Conference where he was ordained elder he was appointed presiding elder by Bishop Linus Parker. The first three years of his ministry were spent on the Prairieville Circuit, perhaps the very poorest circuit in the Conference; but his fourth year was on the Bellville Circuit, perhaps the very best one in the Conference. After his two years on the Beaumont District he was assigned to the Longview Station. Thus in eight years of service he had covered all classes of our work. He was interested in and took an active part in our educational work, missions, Church extension, and was at some time in his active ministry a member of all the Boards that handled these various enterprises of the Church. Brother Le Clere, like all men of earth, was subject to trials and tribulation, and at times the storm would break upon him; but by God's help he weathered them all. In the evening time of life there was calm, when the night of death came there was peace, and we do not doubt that he made heaven's port with joy.

SIMEON DAVID HORGER, son of John M. and Penelope Horger (née Blount), was born in Newton County, Tex., July 4, 1857. His parents were poor, and he was reared without any educational advantages on a poor little East Texas farm, where hard work was a part of his heritage. As he grew older, his thirst for knowledge became keener and keener, and he sought, by hard study and application, to overcome as far as he could the limitations that were around him in his school days. He made his Bible his almost constant companion. When sixteen years of age, he was converted and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, at Farr's Chapel, in Newton County. He was licensed to preach in 1891 at the same church, Rev. W. A. Sampey being the presiding elder.

For fourteen years he was a useful local preacher and supplied several charges before entering the regular itinerancy, among them being Orange Mission (1893), Newton Circuit (1894), Wallisville (1903), and Silsbee (1905). At the end of his first year as supply on the Silsbee charge he was admitted on trial into the Texas Conference, at its session at Pittsburg in 1905, and was sent back to Silsbee charge, where he remained until 1908, thus finishing the quadrennium. The other charges served after joining the Conference were: Travis Circuit, 1909-10; Montgomery Circuit, 1911-14; Willis, 1915; Groveton, 1916-17. At our last Conference he was appointed to Sealy, and did a fine work up to the time of his sickness and death. While in the local ranks he was ordained deacon at Palestine by Bishop Granbery in 1897, and elder at Tyler by Bishop Wilson at the session of the East Texas Conference in 1901. He was a guileless man, one whose speech and conduct were in keeping with the highest type of religion. His educational advantages were very limited, but the Bible had great attraction for him, and was the one book that he read, studied, and gloried in. Even when a young man on the farm, he would carry it to the field with him and read it much, making it his companion and guide. His preaching was earnest and evangelical, and his ministry was honored and blessed in the conversion of many. On November 22, 1877, Brother Horger was married to Miss Arthusia Harden, daughter of a Baptist minister. He was an exception to the rule, "A prophet is not without honor, save in his own country," for he had the confidence and esteem of the people in his own home county. The woman whose hand he won in marriage proved to be a helpmeet indeed, and after he was called to preach and entered the itinerancy she took her place by his side with readiness and adaptability that proved of greatest value to him. To this union six children were born, two of them passing over ahead of their father into the "land of the unsetting sun." The other four, with their mother, are left to grieve over the death of our brother beloved. His last sickness and death were peculiarly sad. While visiting the sick and burying the dead in his own pastorate, he was summoned to the bedside of his daughter, Mrs. May Westbrook, back near their old home.

He reached her just a few days before she passed away, and on the day that she died he was taken very sick with pneumonia, and was too ill to attend her burial. For a week he made a brave fight to get well, and kept saying: "I must get back to my work; they need me, and Conference will soon be here." Little did he know that he was walking in the light of the glory world, and that soon he would meet the brethren in the great conference over yonder. But even so it was. Just a week after the burial of his daughter, they laid his body to rest at old Farr's Chapel, in Newton County, to wait the resurrection of the just.—O. T. Hotchkiss.

JAMES WARREN CULLEN, son of Rev. D. P. and Mrs. Ann Cullen, was born in Wynne Parish, La., December 2, 1859. He removed to Texas with his parents when a child and grew up in East Texas. He was converted under the ministry of his father, later joined the Methodist Church at Holly Springs, Tex. He was licensed to preach July 3, 1889, and in the fall of 1891 was admitted on trial into the East Texas Conference, in which he remained three years, serving Liberty Circuit two years and Moscow Circuit one year. He then transferred to the Texas Conference and served the following charges: Dickinson, two years; Pleasant Hill, one year; Cameron Circuit, two years; Lott and Chilton, two years; Ben Arnold, one year; Rogers Prairie, two years; Harrison Circuit, one year; Kelleyville, two years; Canton and Edgewood, two years; Alvin Mission, one year; Cedar Bayou, three years; Groveton, two years; Columbia, one year; Sour Lake, three years; Flynn Circuit, six months. He was ordained deacon by Bishop Fitzgerald in 1891 and elder by Bishop Keener in 1895. Brother Cullen was happily married to Miss Janie E. Duts on March 11, 1894, which union was blessed with two daughters—Mrs. Clairette Smith, of Sweeny, Tex., and Margie, who now lives with her mother at Huntsville, Tex. Notwithstanding the meager support of a Methodist preacher, he gave them both a college education. His friendships were strong and sincere, because he was plain, positive, open, and frank in his dealings with men. His preaching was clear, strong, impassioned, at times almost irresistible, always scriptural and Methodist. He was delighted with his work at Flynn

(and his people were with him) and was planning to hold his own meetings, but the Father had better things in store for him, and on June 11, 1918, he said: "Come up higher." The call was sudden and unexpected, but it found him ready, and with the same alacrity and joy that for more than a score of years he had gone to his fields of labor, he responded to his Master's call. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. W. T. Davis, of Trinity Church, Houston.—J. F. Archer.

Ques. 22. Are all the preachers blameless in their life and official administration? Their names were called, one by one, and their characters examined and passed. J. M. Vondracek withdrew from the ministry and membership of our Church, having joined a sister Church.

Ques. 23. What is the number of local preachers and members in the several circuits, stations, and missions of the Conference?

Ques. 21. What preachers have died during the past year? J. L. P. Sheppard, Houston Armstrong. 2.

J. L. P. SHEPPARD was born near Montgomery, Ala., December 8, 1841. He was converted in early boyhood, was ordained deacon in 1876, admitted into full connection in the Louisiana Conference in 1880, and ordained elder in 1882. From the time of his entering the ministry until his superannuation, in 1909, he served the following appointments: Rapides Circuit, Pineville, Ringgold, Vernon, Athens, Homer, Mansfield, Keatchie, Coushatta, Arcadia District (four years), Alexandria District (two years), Shreveport District (four years). Personally he was a man whom men loved and trusted in social life, in business, and even more so as a minister in spiritual things. Educationally he was a man who had no early advantages of school and college, but the compensation for the disadvantages came in assiduous private study, in breadth of reading in the choicest fields of literature. As a preacher Brother Sheppard was ever painstaking in preparation, logical in presentation, pure in diction, lucid in exposition, warm and winning in exhortation. Along with Thweatt, who founded Mansfield College, and Keener, who saved it from sale, and with many other great souls who have done much for the institution, must come the name of J. L. P. Sheppard. In the hour of seeming disaster his faith never wavered, and he attested it by pledging his own property and word to save the college from closing its doors and from loss to the Church he loved. It is inspiring to us to-day that we have the example of his unswerving devotion, and it was one of the delights of his last years that he could live near the college and see with his own eyes the fruition of his trying experiences in its behalf. For several months he was a great but patient sufferer. On memory's walls he hung no somber pictures, in his flower garden he planted no thorns, in the cup of the wine of life he found no bitter, at the close of the day there was light from the eternal day, and he entered in through the gates into the city.—R. E. Bobbitt and John F. Foster.

HOUSTON ARMSTRONG was born near Henderson, Ky., December 5, 1837. His parents were Benjamin and Evelene Sugg Armstrong. He was converted and united with the Cumberland Presbyterian Church in his seventeenth year, and was licensed to preach in that Church in October, 1857. He said: "I was in college, preparatory to entering the ministry, when the Civil War began. I was in the Confederate army. After the war I studied medicine, then law, trying to rid myself of the conviction that I should preach." After he moved to Arkansas, he united with the Methodist Church in 1871, there being no Presbyterian Church convenient to his home. He was admitted on trial into the Little Rock Conference in December, 1875; and concerning this, he made this interesting statement: "The Conference Course of Study made an orthodox Methodist of me." He was received into full connection December 9, 1877, and ordained deacon by Bishop Kavanaugh at the same time. He was ordained elder by Bishop Pierce in November, 1879. Brother Armstrong came to the Louisiana Conference in January, 1888, spending twenty years in effective work and ten years on the honor roll. He was a good man and an effective preacher, and there were many blessed by his ministry. He was a sufferer from bodily affliction for many years. On November 14, 1918, he quietly passed from this life to that beyond. A man of singular purity of character. He has gone not empty-handed into the presence of his God.—J. D. Harper.

Ques. 22. Are all the preachers blameless in their life and official administration? Their names were called, one by one, and their characters examined and passed, except J. J. Kelly, reported by his presiding elder as tried by a committee during the year and suspended for one year.

Ques. 23. What is the number of local preachers and members in the several circuits, stations, and missions of the Conference?

BASCOM C. GLENN was born in Elmore County, Ala., in a neighborhood called Union, not far from Tuskegee, the son of J. C. S. and Louise Hudson Glenn. He joined the Church when quite a lad, not more than ten or eleven years of age. He was married twice: First, to Miss Caroline Kidd, who died within two years after their marriage; and on May 7, 1878, he was wedded to Miss Sallie Enes Shilletto, of Mobile, who survives him. One daughter, Mrs. Mizell, of Enterprise, was born to him by his first wife. Of his subsequent union five daughters were born: Mrs. P. H. Tippin, of Brewton; Mrs. L. L. Mooror, of Evergreen; Mrs. Mary Brawner, of Andalusia; and Misses Ruth and John, who reside with their mother. He was a kind husband, thoughtful and tender, and a father whose love was never at a loss to express itself. He joined the Alabama Conference at Greenville, Ala., in 1875, Bishop Marvin presiding, and was admitted into full connection in 1877. He served some of the most prominent Churches in the Conference and was for a number of years one of the most efficient and sympathetic presiding elders in the connection. His preaching was marked by the same rigid enforcing of an absolute standard as measured by the Bible that marked his own Christian life. As a preacher he had few equals. Men testified frequently to the force of his logic and religious zeal. In his religious life he was intensely spiritual. To him the spiritual was the real. As a presiding elder he emphasized the spiritual above everything. His Bible was indeed a lamp unto his feet, and his prayer life was as real and as intense as his love for the crucified Master. On December 26, 1917, at ten o'clock, the sun of his life arose in other lands to bear his light and fire along the luminous pathway into a new and mightier service with and for the God whom he served, obeyed, and adored.—Charles B. Pilley and Sanford B. Strout.

G. N. WINSLETT was born near Troy, Ala., December 11, 1865, and died at his home, in Chipley, Fla., January 13, 1918, leaving his wife and four children in sorrow. His happy marriage to Miss Marguerite Colvin took place at Freeport, Fla., January 27, 1897. When a young man he was graciously converted. He joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and was licensed to preach by Dr. O. R. Blue July 12, 1890. He joined the Alabama Conference on December 17, 1893, and filled very acceptably the following appointments: Mount Andrew, 1894; Abbeville, 1895; Freeport, 1896; Echo, 1897-98; Newton, 1899-1902; Chipley, 1903-06; Broad Street, Mobile, 1907; Havana, 1908; Slocomb, 1909-11; Graceville, 1912-13. It was during the latter part of this last year that his strong manhood was attacked and shaken by tuberculosis, and, although he made a manly fight, it took him away within a few years. Brother Winslett did not have the opportunities of a college education, but was a good student and used the time to best advantage. After entering the ministry he showed his splendid gifts for usefulness in a most gratifying way. He was above the average preacher and was faithful in all the duties of a pastor. The interests of the Church never suffered in his hands. He worked hard and did not seem to realize that his physical strength had limitations. No more suitable epitaph could be given than the one which was designed for his monument: "He toiled, he suffered, he rests." I visited him during his illness in Chipley, and we had, as in other days, a great day of social pleasure as we recalled the past, talked of our experience and the power of the gospel to save, the joys of pardoned sin and of our hope of heaven, and it was verily a little heaven that day to us. He has gone to glory, and his body rests in Salem Cemetery, on the Graceville Circuit.—J. M. Shofner.

WALTER B. PARRENT was born at Livingston, Ala., July 17, 1870; was converted and joined the Church under the ministry of the writer in 1886; was licensed to preach in 1898, and admitted on trial into the Alabama Conference at its following session, in Greensboro. He was ordained deacon by Bishop Fitzgerald at Ozark in December, 1900, and elder by Bishop Candler at Pensacola, Fla., in December, 1903. He filled the following charges with credit to himself and with great profit and blessing to the Church: Washington Street, Eufaula, 1899-1900; Opelika Mission, 1901-04; Loachapoka Circuit, 1905-06; Gainesville Circuit, 1907-10; Alabama Street, Selma, 1911-12; Smith's Station, 1913-14; Perote Circuit, 1915-16; Newton Circuit, 1917. Here his health, which for some years had been declining, failed, and at the last Conference, held in Dothan, he was given a superannuate relation. From then till his death, which occurred February 11, 1918, he was unable most of the time even to leave his bed. He was buried at Opelika on February 12. While Brother Parrent was pastor of the Opelika Mission he was happily married to Miss May Andrews, who was in every respect worthy to be the companion of such a man in the Christian ministry. Two bright, promising children were born to them and lived to cheer and bless the mother. The foundations of character and of subjection to lawful authority were laid while he was in the impressive state of infancy and childhood. Hence his vow to "do that part of the work" and "at those times and places" which his superiors in office judged best was made without reservation and kept without violation. Perhaps the strongest traits in his character were integrity, fidelity, and punctuality. He neglected no duty and shirked no responsibility. Brother Parrent was a very exact man in everything—in his private devotions, public ministrations, and in his temporal affairs. He was a man of deep, constant, uniform piety, though not demonstrative in fervor or feeling. He lived on a high but even plane and was not subject to seasons of exaltation or depression. His preaching, while not brilliant, was spiritual, solid, and strong. Honored and loved everywhere, he was most loved and shining at his best in the bosom of his own family. He was ready when the Master called for him. His sufferings were intense, but his mind and heart were stayed on God.—W. P. Hurt.

JAMES WILSON SHORES.—On Thursday morning, March 21, 1918, the spirit of James Wilson Shores took its everlasting flight. He died in his room at Montgomery, Ala. Brother Shores had lived long upon the earth. His vital powers gave promise of even a longer stay. They had resisted the inroad of disease. But all was now in vain; his vital powers gave way, he had finished his course, and the call to come up higher was mandatory. Brother Shores was born in Putnam County, Ga., October 6, 1828. His parents moved to Coweta County, Ga., when he was four years of age. After a lapse of some ten years the family settled in Elmore County, Ala. Here the young man received his early education, his first religious conviction, and his call to the ministry. He was licensed to preach in October, 1850, and in December of the following year was received on trial into the Alabama Conference. Brother Shores was an active preacher of the gospel for nearly fifty years, serving the Church successfully in all grades of appointments. For ten years of this time he was a presiding elder. In December, 1897, he was granted a superannuate relation. He was a man of sunny disposition and had a good word for all. He was a man of keen wit. His mental grasp was strong, his memory was wonderful, his convictions were of a decisive character, and he held tenaciously to faith and duty. He had an abiding faith and a clear consciousness of the divine acceptance. In March, 1852, he was married to Miss Lydia Edwards. Twelve children were born to them, four of whom survive him. His wife left him for the good world in 1879. Funeral services for Brother Shores were held in Dexter Avenue Church, in Montgomery, conducted by Rev. E. A. Dannelly. He sleeps in Greenwood Cemetery.—J. A. Peterson.

J. L. MATHISON was called to his reward from his home in Ozark on March 21, 1918. He was born in Henry County on December 12, 1843, and was thus in his seventy-fifth year and the forty-sixth year of his itinerant ministry at the time of his death. He was converted early in life and spent his days in the service of the Master. His early educational advantages were poor, but his determination and strong mind enabled him to make good use of such opportunities as he had, and he was truly a "self-made man." When the Civil War came he responded to the call of his country and enlisted in the Confederate army in 1862. He belonged to Company H, Thirty-Seventh Alabama Regiment. He was a valiant soldier. Being severely wounded at the battle of Missionary Ridge, he was unable to render further military service and was honorably discharged. In 1866 he was happily married to Miss Amanda Weatherly, daughter of Rev. Wade Hampton Weatherly, who shared his joys, sorrows, and labors for over fifty years. To them eleven children were born, six of whom reached maturity. No greater evidence can be given of the character of this Christian home than the fact that the three sons gave themselves to the service of God in the ministry of the Church. He was licensed to preach in 1870, was admitted into the Alabama Conference in 1872, was ordained deacon in 1874 and elder in 1876. The following is a list of the appointments served by him: White Pond, 1872-75; Perote Circuit, 1876-79; Ozark Circuit, 1880-82; Marianna District, 1883-86; Clayton Station, 1887-88; Troy Station, 1889; Aberfoil Circuit, 1890; Spring Hill Circuit, 1891; Brundidge Circuit, 1892-95. He was superannated from 1896 to 1898. He was placed on the effective list and served Daleville Circuit in 1899; Sepulga Circuit, 1900-02; Georgiana Circuit, 1903-06; Asbury Circuit, 1907-08. He was superannated again in 1909. Wherever he served, on circuit, station, or district, he did his work well and left the odor of a good name behind him. His was not a gloomy religion. The joy of the Lord was in his heart and beamed in his face. To see his happy countenance, to hear his joyful experience and the note of victory in his prayer, one could readily perceive there was a man who knew the way and who walked with God. His was an eminently clean, pure, and useful life. He lived well. Though for the last four years of his life he was a great sufferer and the last two almost helpless, he maintained the family altar until the very last. One thing he asked of the Lord, "a peaceable hour in which to die." The Lord granted his request, and when the end came it was one of peace.—J. E. McCann.

THOMAS F. DAVIS was born at Autauga-ville, Ala., October 25, 1855, and died at Opelika, Ala., June 5, 1918. His early education was obtained in the common schools of Autauga County, after which he took the four-year course necessary to graduation in the college at Auburn, Ala., graduating in 1876 with honors. In 1877 he was happily married to Miss Mattie Lumby. To them were born eight children: four boys and four girls. Five of these still live. Brother Davis was reared in a Christian home and in early life showed signs of deep piety. He was converted and joined the Church when about fifteen years of age. In July, 1877, he was licensed to preach, and in the fall of the same year joined the North Alabama Conference. In 1883 he located on account of his wife's health. He joined the Alabama Conference in 1904 and continued in the active work until stricken down in the pulpit in May, 1916. At the approaching session of his Conference he was granted the superannuate relation. His first wife died in December, 1912, and in September, 1915, he was married to Miss Mary Winningham, who survives him and who proved a devoted helpmeet indeed. As a preacher Brother Davis was both ornate and logical. Some of his word picture were gems. He was as modest as a timid girl. As a pastor he was diligent and faithful, neglecting none. In point of intellect and character he measured up to the full stature of a man. He was of no mean scholarship. He was a sufferer in his last illness for nearly two years and never complained, but bore it with that same fortitude that had been so characteristic of him through the years. His sun went down while it was yet day; it will shine again and forever.—E. C. Moore.

J. W. KILLOUGH, the son of a Methodist preacher, was born in Choctaw County, Ala., October 26, 1853, and died in Sweetwater, Ala., June 25, 1918. Both parents died during the Civil War, thus depriving him of educational advantages in childhood. When ten years old he moved to Mississippi, where he grew into manhood. In 1875 he was married to Miss Melissa Hawkins. She died, leaving one child, now Mrs. J. S. Busey, of Monroeville, Ala. In 1879 he was married the second time, to Miss Louise Bevell. To this union were born two sons and three daughters. He was converted when ten years of age, but it was not till about the time of his second marriage that he felt his call to preach. He joined the North Mississippi Conference in 1882. After preaching a few years, feeling the need of better equipment for his work, he located and entered Southern University in 1887. For three years he pursued his studies with great diligence. In 1890 he was readmitted into the Alabama Conference. He now began a career of usefulness that has been surpassed by but few men. As a preacher he was Scriptural, spiritual, and evangelistic. Wherever he went great revivals followed. As a pastor he went everywhere, saw everybody, and carried to all the cheering story of hope and love. He was a lover of children and always preached to them with great success. They were converted and brought into the Church wherever he went. During the twenty-six years he was a member of the Alabama Conference he served ten charges. Two of these years he was agent of the superannuate homes. On his last charge he visited everybody, preached everywhere, held revivals, built a church, repaired the parsonage, pouring all of his strength and time into his work, till on July 15, while in the pulpit, a paralytic stroke fell upon him. During the two remaining years he longed to tell the gospel story. A few times he was able to preach, while sitting down, to the profit of all. He walked with God and communed with him to the end of the way. Unknown to any one, sometime in the night of June 25 he stepped into the chariot of God, and when called to breakfast next morning he was not. His was a useful life and a triumphant death.—J. A. Seale.

WILLIAM ERNEST GIBSON was born in Richmond County, N. C., October 11, 1875, and died November 29, 1918, at his home, in Coffee Springs, Ala. He joined the Methodist Church when he was about grown, at Aberfoil, Ala., under the ministry of Rev. A. L. Sellers. He was married to Clara Augusta Adams, of Columbus, Ga., January 16, 1900. To this union two daughters, Eunice and Mabel, were born. Brother Gibson served the Floralla charge as a supply in 1889; the following year, Red Level charge. In 1900 he joined the North Alabama Conference at Lafayette, Ala., and served the following charges in that Conference: Selfville, Spring Valley Circuit, Waterloo and Riverton, Hazel Green Circuit, and Meridianville. At the close of the year at Meridianville his health failed, and he moved out on a farm to regain his health. While there he took typhoid fever and spent some time in a hospital at Huntsville, Ala. After resting from active service for a while, Brother Gibson transferred to the Alabama Conference and served the following charges: Magnolia Circuit, Pine Hill Circuit, and Coffee Springs Circuit. At the close of the first year on Coffee Springs Circuit his health failed again and he superannuated. While living at Coffee Springs, the first year after his superannuation, Brother Gibson had a stroke of paralysis, which made him blind for several months. Later he had another stroke, which affected his throat and vocal cords. He never recovered from the effects of this last stroke. Although Brother Gibson was an incessant sufferer, he remained cheerful and energetic through it all. The end came at his home on November 29, 1918. He was a warrior who indeed bore the marks of battle.—R. J. Haskew.

HENRY COGSWELL MOUZON was born February 5, 1859, in the district parsonage at Charleston, S. C., his father then being presiding elder of that district. His conversion occurred after the death of his father, at twenty-six years of age. While his life was up to that time built on high moral ideals, his conversion changed his plans of life, which had been to succeed in the business world. Now he felt the call clear and strong that his life work must be the Christian ministry. He was admitted on trial into the South Carolina Conference in 1888, at Winnsboro, S. C. For twenty-nine years he faithfully served the Church, twenty-five years in the Conference and four years in the local ranks. Brother Mouzon was a good preacher and an Israelite indeed in whom there was no guile. At our Conference in Clinton he looked well and was cheerful, but, returning to Hickory Grove Circuit, where he had labored one year, he gave one Sunday to the work and went in the severe cold on Monday following to visit a relative at Gastonia, N. C., where he was taken very ill, and after a few days of great suffering he fell asleep and passed away in great peace on December 19, 1917. He was married in 1893 to Miss Mamie L. Varnadoe, of Ridgeville, S. C., who was a most congenial companion. Sister Mouzon was much afflicted all their married life and left him for the heavenly life a little less than a year before he went. They sleep side by side in Blacksburg's beautiful Mountain View Cemetery, in the lot given to the preachers by the Blacksburg Church. He leaves an only sister, Miss Lillie Mouzon, of Charleston, S. C. —J. B. Traywick.

JOHN ELAM CARLISLE.—In the life of Brother Carlisle we have an example of the best. The outline of his life work alone is given when the names of his appointments are tabulated. Think of forty-one years of such a life of service! Brother Carlisle lived the gospel which he preached. As the light seems to shine more brightly when it is dark, so these beautiful characteristics were the more observable in him in the times of his trial and testing. None who knew him will be surprised to know of his entire submission during the prolonged final illness. It was a benediction to try in the least way to minister to him. At the time of his death, April 10, 1918, he was in his sixty-seventh year, having been born May 10, 1851. He was born in Cokesbury, S. C., where his father, in whose footsteps he so faithfully followed, was pastor. The most of his life was spent in a Methodist parsonage. He was eighteen when he entered Wofford College, and in four years he graduated with the A.B. degree. Post-graduate work gave him his A.M. In December of the year of his graduation (1873) he joined the South Carolina Conference, having been licensed to preach in the summer of 1872, at Sumter, S. C. His certificates of ordination bear the names of Bishops Keener and Doggett, who ordained him deacon and elder, respectively. Brother Carlisle served sixteen stations (one of them twice) and two districts, as follows: Cheraw, 1874-75; York, 1876; Chester, 1877-78; Anderson, 1879-82; Union, 1883-84; Orangeburg, 1885-87; Spring Street, Charleston, 1888-89; Summerville, 1890-92; Darlington, 1893-94; Laurens, 1895; Union (second time), 1896-97; Lancaster, 1898-99; Walterboro, 1900; superannuate, 1901; Antreville, 1902; Conway, 1903-04; Cokesbury District, 1905; Kingstree District, 1906-09; Latta, 1910-11; Newberry, 1912-14. At the end of his third year at Newberry he superannuated, at the Conference held in Sumter, historic in the annals of South Carolina Methodism, especially because of the division of the Conference into the South Carolina Conference and the Upper South Carolina Conference. Brother Carlisle's lot fell in the "Upper" Conference. Among the places of responsibility which he filled were: Treasurer of Board of Missions, 1883-90; Wofford College Trustee, 1892-98; Manager of the Belin Fund, 1906 to the end of his life. He actually turned over the books to his successor while upon his deathbed. In all these, as everywhere, he was found faithful. He was first married in 1877 to Miss Emma Lagare Jones, daughter of Dr. S. B. Jones, of the South Carolina Conference. In 1895 he was married to Miss Katherine Roland, of Laurens, S. C.—Walter I. Herbert.

SAMUEL LANHAM ROGERS was born in the Walnut Grove section of Spartanburg County, S. C., June 24, 1872, and died in the Methodist parsonage at Clifton, S. C., June 10, 1918. On November 25, 1896, he was married to Miss Josephine More, of Union County, and to them were born six children: Llewelyn, Pauline, Annie, Haskel, Emily, and one other who died at the age of three. In 1914 he heard and answered the call to preach the gospel, and in December was admitted into the South Carolina Conference on trial. Sent the very first year to West Greenville, a charge where unusual difficulties presented themselves, he displayed marked ability in dealing with the situation, and in two years, under the blessing of God, set the work in order and upon a solid foundation, leaving for his successor a splendid charge. His second charge, Clifton and Glendale, afforded a wide field for faithful service. In February of his second year on this charge he fell sick, and, though able to be out a few times, his strength gradually waned until he fell on sleep. His ministry was marked by fidelity and earnestness. His preaching was straightforward, practical, helpful. The writer keenly feels the loss of a good friend and true yokefellow. The Church has lost a consecrated and useful servant. The faith of Brother Rogers was serene. He died as he lived—trustful and obedient. He has gone to be forever with the Lord.—E. S. Jones.

TILLMAN ARISTOTLE SHEALY was born in Edgefield, (now Saluda) County, S. C., December 8, 1883, and died in Swansea, S. C., October 14, 1918. His early years were spent on his father's farm, with such educational advantages as the country schools then afforded. In 1906 he entered Leesville College and graduated from that institution in 1909. He was licensed to preach by the Columbia District Conference, at Leesville, June 2, 1912. In December of that year he entered the South Carolina Conference on trial, spending three years on his first charge at Grover, two on Ridgeway Circuit, and was just rounding out his first year at Swansea when, as a result of influenza, he died of pneumonia. He was a Christian man. His whole life had been spent under the most benign Christian influences. His parents were not wealthy in this world's goods—they never tried to be. Their affections were set on things above, and God blessed them and their household. In a large family of children, all were Christians and two are ministers of the gospel. On August 23, 1911, Brother Shealy was married to Miss Delle Snelgrove, of Lexington County. God blessed their union with two children, Laura Mae and Tillman Ashburn. Those who have heard him say that he preached well. His ministry was fruitful instrengthening and building up the charges he served, but he will be remembered most by his close friends for the purity of his character. A man of purer lips or more transparent soul is not among us. Wherever he served, congregations asked for his return. Though he served his last charge less than a year, few pastors have ever had a greater hold upon the people of Swansea.—C. E. Peele.

ROBERT EDWARD TURNIPSEED.—“He died at his post”—so William Crook used to sing at our memorial services, while the Conference wept and shouted. So we say today with hushed voices and saddened hearts, for the grim reaper has cut down one of us in the full strength of his manhood and ministry. Robert Edward Turnipseed preached his last sermon at Greer on October 6, 1918, returned to his home and laid him down to wrestle a few days with the prevailing influenza, and on October 14 passed into the paradise of God. Brother Turnipseed, son of Barnwell Rhett and Matilda Turner Turnipseed, was born in Richland County, S. C., November 21, 1873. He attended the home school, Mount Zion Institute, Wofford College, South Carolina College, and pursued his education to the end. He was converted in early manhood under the ministry of Rev. J. C. Stoll, was called to preach, yielded himself to the will of the Lord, and was received on trial into the South Carolina Conference in 1897. He was appointed to the Iva Circuit for the year 1898, and in succeeding years to more and more important charges, until at the time of his death he was serving the Greenville District. He was an unusual student of the Bible and preached thoughtful and effective sermons. He was a man of heart and sympathy and was faithful as a pastor. Through the years it was seen that he had marked business ability, and he was called to serve on many boards and committees. He was Assistant Statistical Secretary of the Conference from 1901 to 1907 and Statistical Secretary from 1907 to the end of his life. He was deeply interested in missions, served as Missionary Secretary from 1912 until his death, and was a member of the General Board of Missions from 1916 until called to his reward. He was a delegate to the General Conference of 1914, and was chairman of the delegation in 1918. He was a hard-working and useful member of both bodies. Full of interest in his fellow men, he united with various fraternal associations, among them the Ancient Order of Free and Accepted Masons; and, impressed by the lessons of brotherly fidelity and search for truth, he went from degree to degree until, when he laid aside his working tools, ceased his war, and sheathed his sword, he was Grand Chaplain of the Royal Arch Chapter of South Carolina, Grand Chaplain of the Royal and Select Masters, and Grand Prelate of the Grand Commandery of Knights Templar. Brother Turnipseed was much loved and trusted, and never failed men as they leaned on him. He was true to all and at all times. His judgment was sound and he was a wise adviser. His lips were clean and ever touched by the law of kindness. He was a lover of man and his heart was fixed on God. On January 10, 1900, he was married to Miss Kate Crawford Isbell. It was an ideal union.—John O. Willson.

JAMES MARION FRIDY was born February 18, 1855, and was therefore in his sixty-fourth year when he died, November 3, 1918. His life reflected the influence of Christian parents. In his eighth year, or near that, he was converted and united with the Methodist Church. A call to the ministry was also felt in early life, and was yielded to as soon as he was prepared for his work. Indeed, he was licensed to preach while he was preparing, during his course at Wofford College. The Quarterly Conference of what is now known as Central Church, Spartanburg, gave him his license. In June, 1879, he graduated, and in the following December he joined the South Carolina Conference. He was ordained deacon by Bishop W. M. Wightman, at the Bishop's home in Charleston. Bishop H. N. McTyeire ordained him elder at the Conference in Greenville, S. C., in December, 1882. On December 23, 1880, he was married to Miss Emma K. Rabb, who was the companion of all his ministerial life. She and five children survive him. Brother Fridy was truly a good man. One could know just where to find him when any question of morals was involved. True to his convictions, he was a faithful preacher of the word of God. Many were saved under his ministry. Near the close of his first year on the Waterloo Circuit he suffered a stroke of paralysis, and for a number of weeks was helpless. At the Conference of 1917, held in Clinton, he was placed on the superannuate list at his own request. He had returned only a few days from a visit to his daughter, Mrs. T. W. Munnerlyn (wife of Rev. T. W. Munnerlyn), when he suffered the second stroke. He lingered from Friday morning until Sunday afternoon and quietly entered into rest. After a faithful life of ministry to others, he has gone to his reward. His body rests in the cemetery at Spartanburg. The following are the charges he served: Rock Hill Circuit, as junior preacher, 1880; Conway Station, 1881; Cainhoy Circuit, 1882-83; North Laurens Circuit, 1884-85; South Union Circuit, 1886-89; supernumerary, 1890-93; Cherokee Circuit, 1894-97; Enoree Circuit, 1898-99; Clinton Circuit, 1900-02; Chester Circuit, 1903-06; McCormick Circuit, 1907-08; Newberry Circuit, 1909-12; Whitmire Circuit, 1913-16; Waterloo Circuit, 1917.—Walter I. Herbert.

JOHN WILLIAM SEWELL ROBINS, son of John Stoakley and Drucilla Bevans Robins, was born June 23, 1853, in Accomac County, Va. His parents were devoted Christians. He was reared in a pious atmosphere. Sewell Robins, as all his friends loved to call him, was descended, on his mother's side, from a long line of ministers. There were fifteen preachers in the immediate family. He was converted at the age of fourteen, at once joined the Church, and soon felt his call to the ministry. He realized his lack of proper preparation for the ministry, but not until he reached his majority was he able to begin that preparation. In 1874 he attended Randolph-Macon College. Home duties then claimed him. In the meanwhile he had been licensed to preach, and on his return home he exercised his gifts on the Atlantic Circuit. In 1876 he attended college another session, assisting during the summer of 1877 on the South Norfolk Circuit. On November 16, 1877, he was received on trial into the Virginia Conference and appointed to Belle Haven, where he remained one year. He thereafter served the following charges in the order named: Dorchester Mission and South Dorchester, one year each; Wicomico and Rappahannock, two years each; Newsoms, one year; Camden and Southampton, two years; Hertford, three years; Whitestone and Bethany, four years; Martinsville, two years; Lawrenceville, Lamberts Point, Chase City, and Whitestone, three years each; Irvington and Kilmarnock, one year. At the last session of the Conference, held at Lynchburg in November, 1917, he was assigned to West Point. He entered upon his new work with joy. He preached only one time. On Sunday morning, December 16, 1917, at six o'clock, his gentle spirit went home to God. His last words were: "O, I did want to preach this morning so much!" Thus passed to his reward one of the most faithful and beloved members of the Virginia Conference. He was an excellent preacher. His soul was aflame with the love of God and with a passion for souls. He was a true evangelist. Modest, gentle, sympathetic, and deeply pious, his life was a continual benediction to others. He was happily married November 28, 1879, to Miss Elizabeth Northern, of Norfolk County, Va. For thirty-eight years she was his true helper in the work of the ministry. They were blessed with three children—Carroll Ray Robins, a son, died at the age of eighteen; two daughters, Lena (Mrs. C. T. Womack) and Evelyn (Mrs. David G. McGavock), both of Martinsville, Va., remain, with their mother, to mourn the loss of an affectionate, wise, and tender husband and father. The funeral services were held Monday afternoon, December 17, 1917, in the church at West Point and were conducted by Rev. William E. Grant. On Wednesday, December 19, another service was held in the church at Martinsville at the request of the membership, which he had so faithfully served, and was conducted by the pastor, Rev. William R. Proctor. The sacred remains were then laid to rest in Oakwood Cemetery, in Martinsville.—James C. Reed.

WILLIAM WILKINSON LEAR first opened his eyes to the light of this world December 5, 1844, in New Kent County, Va., and closed them to the same February 1, 1918, at Culpeper, Va. The son of the late Rev. Joseph Lear, of the Virginia Conference, and Miss Susan Wilkinson, he had a splendid inheritance on both sides of the family. His education was had at public and private schools until 1861, when he entered Randolph-Macon College at Boydton. The next year he matriculated at Roanoke College, but left before the close of the session to enlist in the Confederate Army, where he served until the close of the war, escaping injury, except a slight wound in the head received in the battle at Spotsylvania. He joined the Virginia Conference at Danville in November, 1875, and served a number of circuits and stations, going from Centenary, Richmond, to the presiding eldership of the Charlottesville District in 1905. His last charge was Culpeper, an appointment with which he was greatly pleased. On October 17, 1876, he was married to Miss May Nolley, the daughter of the late Rev. George W. Nolley, of the Virginia Conference. He was very fortunate in this choice, for in her he found a helpmeet indeed. She, with their four children—Prof. J. Merritt Lear, of the State Normal Female School at Farmville, Va., Prof. John E. Lear, of the University of North Carolina, Mrs. William Russell Young, of Dinwiddie County, Va., and Mrs. John W. Broadus, of Bowling Green, Va.—survives him. Some years ago his Alma Mater conferred upon him the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity, a compliment well bestowed. He was a member of the Board of Trustees of the Randolph-Macon system of schools, and also a member of the Executive Committee of the Woman's College. As a preacher, he was far beyond the average. The preparation of his sermons was thorough. They were usually finished products. His style was very engaging and pleasing. It was not developed for the sake of having a fine style, though he was not indifferent to such things; but it had been developed by developing a fine soul, the whole of which was poured out in his preaching. He used no artificial devices or tricks of declamation. As to his character, he was a man of invincible integrity. His character was without a flaw and his reputation for purity of life and uprightness among his brethren was never questioned. His schoolmate and friend, Rev. J. M. Burton, wrote of him on the occasion of his death: "The plain, simple, straightforward, manly young man, hating pretense of every kind, that we knew at college, came among us, old in body, but still young in spirit, serving with all his strength the cause he loved so well. He told me how glad he was to be our pastor, and he meant every word of it." A casual acquaintance did not reveal to you the real man. One had to know him to appreciate, and hence to love him. Studied from any angle, he presents a man of superior mind, heart, and character, leaving evidences everywhere that the great gifts with which he was endowed had been thoroughly cultivated and used for the cause of God and humanity. He still stood in the front rank, with mental and spiritual powers unabated, and ceased to live and labor at the same time. He died with the harness on. He buckled it on forty-four years before and had not laid it off for an hour.—William H. Edwards.

HENRY CHAPMAN BOWLES was the son of Benjamin and Jane Bowles, and was born in Bedford County, Va., on November 21, 1831. Nearly eighty-seven years afterwards—on August 6, 1918—while sitting in the shade of the trees in the yard of his daughter, whose home is Stella, Va., at five-thirty in the afternoon, he suddenly left his earthly tabernacle to be forever with the Lord. Born of Christian parents and reared in a Christian home, his childhood impressions at the family altar led him in early life to accept Jesus Christ as his own personal Saviour, and later to dedicate his life to the Christian ministry. Securing what education he could at the common schools of his day, and completing his course with a session at Emory and Henry, he was admitted on trial into the Virginia Conference in the year 1860. The charges which he served were confined chiefly to the counties of Patrick, Franklin, Henry, and Halifax, in his own native State, and the many years in which he was compelled to remain in the supernumerary and superannuate relations—due to a broken-down constitution which developed while a Confederate soldier. For him, the call to preach was clear and unmistakable. His sermons were prepared with great care, for, while making no pretensions to oratory, he felt that the truth which he proclaimed deserved to be clothed in the best language of which he was capable. He never indulged in any language even remotely akin to slang. Nor did he often find it necessary to impress upon the hearts of his hearers the truth by the use of strong adjectives. He was a close Bible student, and his sermons were enriched by the use of Scriptural passages with which his mind was abundantly stored. His marriage to Miss Sue C. Cobbs, daughter of John R. and Drucilla Cobbs, of Patrick County, Va., took place on October 27, 1869. Besides his widow, who survives him, there are the following children: Mrs. J. R. Robinson, Brother W. H. Bowles (the Associate Lay Leader of the Danville District), and Mrs. H. A. Hardie, all of Rocky Mount, Va.; Mrs. A. A. Anthony, of Stella, Va., and A. B. Bowles, of Lynchburg, Va. His last years were spent in one supreme effort to impress upon his family and loved ones, as well as all others with whom he came in personal touch, the importance of working righteousness, of having a holy regard for the Sabbath, of realizing the fullest possible meaning of prayer, and the spiritual necessity of regularly reading the Word of God.—James W. Bouldin.

LOUIS CABE SHEARER descended from a long line of stanch Methodists. He was born July 17, 1868, in Appomattox County, Va. His parents were James E. and Mary J. Shearer. He was converted at the age of fourteen, and joined the Church under the ministry of Rev. Travis J. Taylor, of blessed memory. The Holy Spirit had impressed upon his young heart and mind in early childhood that he was called of God to preach the gospel. His way seemingly having been closed by adverse circumstances, he endeavored to evade the sacred call. At the age of twenty the call became so clear and so urgent that he could resist no longer, and he began at once to prepare himself for the gospel ministry. In 1890 he entered Randolph-Macon College and spent three years in prosecuting his studies. In 1891 he was licensed to preach by the Quarterly Conference of Appomattox Circuit. After leaving college he taught school for two years in order to repay the money he had borrowed for his education. While engaged in teaching he continued his studies for the ministry and preached as he had opportunity. He was received on trial into the Virginia Conference in November, 1895, and was appointed to West Street, Petersburg. His next appointment was Trinity, Lynchburg, remaining two years. In 1898 he was appointed as a student to Randolph-Macon College. While thus pursuing his studies at college he was employed by the presiding elder to take charge of the work at Hasker Memorial, Richmond. This charge he served most efficiently for two years. In 1900 he served West Point; then Grace Church, Newport News, for four years; Madison Heights, four years; Chesterfield and Churchland, two years each; Central Bedford Circuit, three years. Soon after entering on his third year on Central Bedford he was stricken, on December 26, 1916, with paralysis, from which he only partially recovered. At the last session of the Virginia Conference he was given the relation of a superannuate. He hoped that a year's rest would enable him to take up his work again; but God had ordered it otherwise, and on September 6, 1918, took him to Himself. Louis Cabe Shearer was a fine type of a Christian gentleman and minister. During 1900 it became necessary for him to undergo a very serious surgical operation. Lying for days in bed during the week, yet when the Sabbath came he was found in his place, preaching the Word of God. Sometimes so great was his weakness that he would sit while he preached. His preaching was characterized by clearness and earnestness. He edified the saints, and sinners were brought to know Jesus Christ as their Saviour. He was most fortunate in the choice of a wife. On April 29, 1903, he was married to Miss Daisy Virginia Bell, daughter of E. L. Bell, of Lynchburg, Va. She was indeed a helpmeet. Her presence strengthened and cheered him in his work. God gave them two children—Virginia and Louis Cabe, Jr.—James C. Reed.

EDGAR POE PARHAM was born in Sussex County, Va., May 14, 1856, and died in Petersburg, Va., November 5, 1918, in the sixty-third year of his age. His father was a useful and honored local preacher—Rev. G. W. S. Parham—and his mother was, previous to marriage, Miss Mary J. Hunt, of Sussex County. His father's library was filled with choice volumes, religious and miscellaneous, and the son read with avidity and discrimination, thus supplementing the school advantages of the times and of the neighborhood. Though college and seminary were not accessible to him, he acquired a respectable degree of learning, which he used effectively through the subsequent years. In 1875, at the age of nineteen, he consecrated himself to Christ at Concord Church. Even before his conversion he had leanings toward the ministry as a life vocation, and the matter assumed definite shape in his mind soon thereafter. He decided to give himself to the work of the itinerancy, and, making such preparation as the circumstances allowed, he received license to preach from the Quarterly Conference of his home circuit on October 9, 1880. In the summer of 1882, while yet a local preacher, he was employed as junior preacher on the Middlesex Circuit. In November, 1882, he was admitted on trial into the traveling connection and appointed to Chatham Circuit. In 1883, at the Conference in Richmond, he was ordained deacon by Bishop H. H. Kavanaugh, and sent to West Charlotte Circuit, where he remained two years. For the next two years he served the Montross Circuit. He was ordained to the eldership by Bishop J. C. Granbery at the Conference in Norfolk in November, 1886, and then served successively the following charges: 1887-88, West Lancaster; 1889, King William; 1890-93, Goochland; 1894, Cartersville; 1895-96, Buckingham; 1897-1900, Hyco; 1900-01, Dorchester, Md. In 1903, after a year of service at Blandford, Petersburg, he felt constrained on account of his health to retire to the superannuate list, but after two years of recuperation he reentered the effective ministry in 1905, serving thereafter the following charges: 1905, Spotsylvania; 1906, Urbanna; 1907-08, King and Queen; 1909-10, York; 1911-13, King George. In May, 1913, his health having again failed, he was relieved of pastoral responsibilities, and at the Annual Conference of that year he was again granted the superannuate relation, which he held to the end of life. Brother Parham entered into marriage relations on August 11, 1889, with Miss Fannie S. Dunaway, to whose affectionate and intelligent companionship he owed no little of his subsequent happiness and usefulness. Of this marriage two sons were born—Bernard D. Parham, now with the expeditionary forces in France, and Edgar P. Parham, Jr., now in Richmond. His last illness began suddenly on Sunday, October 27, just after luncheon, and the malady was thought at first to be acute indigestion, from which he seemed to be recovering. But on Tuesday following he was taken with severe pain in the region of the heart, and by the physician's advice was removed to the hospital in Petersburg for further treatment. From this attack he appeared to rally to such an extent that he was preparing to return home on Tuesday, November 5, the very day of his decease. About eight o'clock that morning, after bathing his face, he ate breakfast with enjoyment and then lay down. To the attendant who entered the room a little later he seemed to be resting quietly, but a few minutes afterwards, when she returned to arrange the room, the vital spark had fled. His mortal remains were buried in Blandford Cemetery, Petersburg, the service of the Church being conducted by Rev. Lloyd T. Williams, pastor of Market Street Church, and Rev. Richard B. Scott, of City Point, and the pallbearers being chosen from among the ministers of the community. Brother Parham is survived by his devoted wife, the two affectionate sons already mentioned, and two sisters—Mrs. Willie Epps, of Norfolk, Va., and Mrs. May P. Reives, of Richmond. Our departed brother was a man of energy, piety, and usefulness. His preaching was plain, scriptural, evangelical, and profitable to the careful and intelligent hearer. The spirit of devoutness that he manifested was a means of grace to many. His willingness to serve was an inspiration to his brethren. Thus has passed from our ranks an affectionate husband and father, a faithful Christian, a godly and useful preacher and writer, a cherished comrade.—J. T. Whitley.

ROBERT LEWIS CABE was born in Tennessee, June 15, 1880. When about eleven years of age he moved with his parents to Arkansas and settled in Saline County, where he lived until he entered the itinerant ministry. He was converted in early life and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. He was educated in the common schools and in the University of Arkansas, where he spent four years as a student. At the session of the Arkadelphia District Conference held at Leola in 1911 he was licensed to preach and recommended for admission on trial into the Little Rock Conference, by which body he was admitted at the session held in Hot Springs in November of the same year. He went forward in the Conference by regular stages, being admitted into full connection and ordained deacon by Bishop Kilgo at the session of the Conference, held in Pine Bluff in 1913, and being ordained an elder by Bishop Morrison at the Conference held in Monticello in 1915. His first appointment was to Leola Circuit, which he served for three consecutive years, and from which place he was sent to Kingsland Circuit, where he again served for three years; from Kingsland he was sent to the Hampton Circuit at the last session of our Conference. While attending this session of the Conference he contracted a violent cold, which rapidly developed into a malignant form of tuberculosis. He went home from the Conference sick and really unable to go through the ordeal of moving, but with his characteristic energy and indomitable power of will he lost no time in reaching his new charge at Hampton. From the middle of December to the last of March he pressed on with his work, although he was never clear of fever for an entire day during that time, and was harassed by a most distressing cough. Often-times he preached when he was compelled to cling to the pulpit for support to keep from falling from sheer weakness. He was anxious to go on, but friends and the physicians saw that he was compelled to stop. Acting on the very urgent counsel of his physician, he gave up his work, and, with his family left early in April for El Paso, Tex., where he hoped to find relief from the malady. His health steadily declined, and on the morning of August 13 he breathed his last. His body was laid to rest, according to his own request, in the beautiful Greenwood Cemetery in that city. His funeral services were conducted by Rev. C. K. Campbell. Robert Lewis Cabe was a man of clean lips, pure heart, and blameless life. No whiter soul has ever been admitted to our itinerant brotherhood. He was a diligent student, a careful and thoughtful preacher, a wise and faithful shepherd of the flock of Christ. He was gentle yet courageous, modest yet confident of his powers, kind yet firm in his adherence to the right as he saw it. He sincerely loved his brethren of the Conference and was loved and honored by them. He was married to Miss Sarah Della Hope on October 8, 1905. Seven children were born to their union—the last two being twin boys. All are still living, having returned to their home at Benton, Ark.—J. A. Sage.

ROBERT C. ATCHLEY was born in Colvert Township, Saline (now Grant) County, Ark., September 26, 1839. He was converted in 1852, was licensed to exhort on October 8, 1857, and was licensed to preach on September 25, 1858. Brother Atchley was married to Miss Cornelia J. Anderson on February 13, 1862, and to this union were born ten children, six of whom are living. Brother Atchley was married the second time on March 5, 1912, to Miss Pauline Harrison, who, with the six living children, mourns his departure. He was received on trial into the Ouachita (now the Little Rock) Conference, in November, 1858, and was appointed as junior preacher on the Lehigh Circuit. He served the Red Fork Circuit in 1861, the Center Point Circuit in 1862, and the Rondo Circuit in 1864. Brother Atchley went to the Arkansas Conference and served in the regular work for several years, then came back to the Little Rock Conference and served the Malvern, Lono, and Princeton Circuits. Also, he served Arkadelphia Station at one time, but I am not advised as to the dates. On account of his throat he asked for the superannuate relation some twenty-five years ago, and settled down at Dalark to spend the remainder of his life, which came to a close February 22, 1918. His funeral was conducted on February 24 in the Methodist Church at Dalark by the pastor, assisted by the presiding elder, and his mortal remains were laid to rest in the Dalark cemetry by the side of his first wife to await the resurrection morn. Thus ends one of the most beautiful lives that it has been my privilege to know. He was one of the best men I ever knew. It was a benediction to be in his presence, and it was an inspiration to have him in the congregation while preaching. He was well almost to the last moment, when he just quit breathing, thus ending his life without a struggle, and went home to God.—T. H. Crowder.

OLIVER HAZARD KEADLE was born at Scottsville, Bibb County, Ala., July 18, 1848; died at his home, in Lonsdale, Ark., April 25, and was buried from Central Methodist Church at Greenwood Cemetery, Hot Springs, Saturday afternoon, April 27, 1918. He moved with his mother to Sevier County, Ark., when a small boy, and was married the first time to Miss Laura J. Chilcote on June 15, 1865. To this union nine children were born, three of whom survive: Mrs. C. C. Butler, of Hot Springs, Mrs. Etta Kirby, of Little Rock, and Oliver H. Keadle, Jr., of Pine Bluff. Sister Keadle passed away September 28, 1910, and Brother Keadle was united in marriage the second time to Mrs. M. F. Flemmons (née Miss Vera Spence), of Quitman, Ark., on May 21, 1914. In 1868 he and his first wife joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and in 1877 he was granted license to preach. At the session of the Little Rock Conference held at Prescott in November, 1880, he was sent by Bishop George F. Pierce as supply to the Saline Circuit. He was ordained local deacon at Pine Bluff by Bishop H. N. McTyeire in December, 1881. He was admitted on trial, with a class of ten others, at the Conference held at Hope in November, 1882, and sent to the Caddo and Crystal Springs Circuit. From the Conference held at Malvern in 1883 he was sent to the Cedar Glades Circuit. At Little Rock, in 1884, he was assigned to the Fulton Circuit. At Arkadelphia, in 1885, he was received into full connection and sent to Buckner charge. At Little Rock, in December, 1887, he was ordained elder and sent to Bartholomew Circuit. At the Conference held at Pine Bluff in November, 1889, I do not know his assignment, as I have no Journal for that year; but at Monticello Bishop O. P. Fitzgerald sent him to Dalark Circuit in December, 1890. At Arkadelphia, in December, 1891, he was assigned to Collegeville Circuit. At the Conference in December, 1892, he was superannuated, but at the Conference held at Hot Springs in December, 1893, he was sent to Kingsland

Circuit. At Prescott, in December, 1894, he was sent to White River Circuit. In December, 1896, he was sent to Sheridan Circuit. At the Conference held in Pine Bluff in December, 1897, he was sent to the Rison Circuit. At Little Rock, in November, 1898, he took a superannuate relation; but at Hot Springs, in November, 1900, he returned to the effective list, and was sent to the Chidester Circuit. In November, 1902, Bishop Hosse sent him to the Snyder Circuit, and at El Dorado in December, 1903, he again took a superannuate relation, but became effective at Texarkana in December, 1904, and was sent to Macon Circuit. In December, 1905, he was sent to Sherrill Circuit, but in November, 1906, because of continued ill health, he was enrolled upon the permanent honor roll of the Conference veterans and continued this relation until the day of his translation. He was a good man, of whom it may be truly said that to know him was a high privilege.—B. A. Few.

WATSON D. SHARP.—The message that W. D. Sharp, our pastor at Junction City, was instantly killed by lightning in his back yard on the afternoon of August 16 brought an exceedingly painful shock to all who knew him. He was born at Droop Mountain, W. Va., October 12, 1872. He grew up in a religious home; he was licensed to preach at Burnsville, W. Va., May 21, 1897; ordained deacon at Abingdon, Va., October 1, 1904; received on trial into the Holston Conference in 1904, and appointed to the Nollichucky Circuit, where he served one year; appointed to Bull's Gap, Tenn., in 1905, and served three years as pastor of the Church and principal of McKinley Memorial Institute; appointed to Bland, Va., in 1908, where for two years he was pastor of the Church and principal of the high school. In July, 1910, Bishop Candler transferred him to the Little Rock Conference to take charge of the Mena-Hendrix Academy; but the buildings were lost by fire a few weeks after his arrival and were not rebuilt. That fall he was appointed to Washington Circuit and served two years. In 1912 he was appointed to Waldo Circuit, where he served two years; in 1914 he was stationed at Junction City, where he was closing his fourth year of a successful and appreciated ministry. He was a quiet and unobtrusive man. He was studious and thoughtful. He was painstaking in the preparation of his sermons, and his preaching was effective. He usually held his own revival services. His translation was sudden, but he left all his interests here in good condition, and his new appointment is in heaven.—W. P. Whaley.

Ques. 22. Are all the preachers blameless in their life and official administration? Their names were called, one by one, and their characters passed, except that of H. F. Buhler, whose credentials, which were surrendered by him, were turned in by W. C. Watson and a motion carried to accept them. The credentials of D. A. Williams were also surrendered and accepted.

ARCHIBALD TORRANT DUNLAP was born near Honea Path, in Anderson County, S. C., February 22, 1860, being the son of John M. and Martha A. Dunlap. In the home of his childhood were influences of religion and piety which shaped his character and decided his destiny.

Early in youth he united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, grew to manhood under its instruction and influence, and in 1877 was thoroughly converted to God at her altar. He was taught in youth the lesson of industry and thrift which made his life a success. After getting what education was available in his home school at Honea Path, he attended the Anderson Military Academy, under the instruction of that maker of men, Professor Ligon. He continued a student throughout his active ministry and became a preacher of high intellectual ability and intelligence. He felt the call to the ministry from the beginning of his Christian life, but did not at once respond. He engaged for some years in mercantile business, but was aroused to fully consecrate himself to God in the great revival which came to Anderson in 1886. He was licensed to preach on November 24, 1886, and served the Anderson Circuit as a supply in 1887. By episcopal appointment he was sent in 1888 as a supply to the Santa Maria Circuit, in the Los Angeles Conference. In September of that year he was admitted on trial into the Conference. He served Carpinteria Station 1889-90 and Lompoc Station 1891-93. In December, 1893, he was transferred to the South Carolina Conference, where he served the following charges: Piedmont Station, 1894-96; Pendleton Circuit, 1897-98; Santee Circuit, 1899-1901; Clio, 1902-04; Bennettsville Circuit, 1905-07; Hartsville, 1908-11; Latta, 1912. In all of these he did increasingly efficient work for the Church and the Master. His whole ministry was blessed with revivals. The remainder of his life was in the superannuate relation to the Conference. This period was one of sorrow and affliction, only known by the sympathetic heart of the loving Father above. His sparkling eye, his pleasant smile, his musical voice, his keen wit made him attractive in private and in public. On November 22, 1888, he was married to Miss Cicely Thomas, of Spartanburg, S. C., who stood faithfully by him till she preceded him to the grave in June, 1912. His children are Annie Louise (Mrs. McIntyre), James Earle (now in the army), and Belle. To them falls the heritage of a father's spotless life and untarnished reputation. He died in Columbia, S. C., in 1918, and his body was laid to rest in the cemetery at Latta beside that of his beloved wife.—James A. Attaway.

MILLON MURRAY McLENDON was born near Bennettsville, in Marlboro County, S. C., July 25, 1882. On January 29, 1918, at Bennettsville, S. C., his body was laid to rest, the funeral being conducted by his presiding elder, Rev. Peter Stokes, assister by Rev. J. T. Fowler, W. W. Daniel, G. F. Kirby, and this writer. At the district preachers' meeting in Florence, not quite three weeks earlier, Brother McLendon was present, and no one would have thought that he would be the first of that body to pass to the other shore. But he was not strong and soon afterwards he was stricken, and died at the Florence Infirmary on January 27, after every possible aid had been given to save his life. His father and mother, Thomas Alexander and Maggie Swann McLendon, survive him and are living near the original home. He leaves also one brother, Rev. Baxter F. McLendon, and one sister, Mrs. Mary Pond. Joining Shiloh Methodist Church, on the Marlboro charge, when only nine years of age, Brother McLendon very early felt the call to preach. For a long time he kept this as a secret in his own heart and sought to direct his life in other channels. However, in 1908 he definitely accepted the call and went to Rutherford College to prepare himself for the work of the ministry. On December 21, 1904, he was married to Miss Geneva Morgan, of Wadesboro, N. C., and to them were born five children: Millon Murray, Charles Exum, Mary Grace, Thomas Alexander, and Annie Laurie. All of these survive the husband and father. Brother McLendon's active ministry began in 1910, and he served Midendorf, Liberty, Cypress, Marion Circuit, and was pastor of Jefferson Circuit at the time of his death. The most characteristic trait of his life was his purity of soul, his abhorrence of everything wrong. His soul rebelled against sin in every form. He was devoted to his home, and was never too tired or too preoccupied to play with his children and to read and pray with them. According to those who were near him when he died, he was last heard to say: "The change is so sweet."—J. Emerson Ford.

WILLIAM HAMILTON ARIAIL was born November 1, 1851, in Hall County, Ga. Early in childhood the Ariails moved to Pickens County, S. C., where he got all the educational advantage he had in school. Luke I. and Nancy P. Ariail were his parents. Brother Ariail had French blood from his father's side and Scotch-Irish from his mother. People who knew him were soon aware of the rare combination in him of quick wit and fine social qualities; also a stern sense of duty and devotion to the right things. He never went to college, but he had as fine and keen an appreciation of what a college course means as many men who have been through college. He joined the Church at twelve years of age, and it was not long till he felt the call to preach. He yielded to the call and was licensed by the Pickens Quarterly Conference in 1874. In December of the same year he was admitted on trial into the South Carolina Conference at Greenville. Bishop Marvin presided. The great Bishop's influence was powerful over Brother Ariail and never lost its force. The following charges in South Carolina were served by him: Laurens Circuit, 1875; Greenville City, Marietta Mission, 1876; South Chesterfield Circuit, 1877; Richland Fork Circuit, 1878; Lancaster Circuit, 1879; Lynchburg and St. Luke's, 1880; Hanging Rock Circuit, 1881-83; Tumbling Shoals, 1885-86; Reidville Circuit, 1887; Blythewood Circuit, 1888; Colleton Circuit, 1889-92; Edgewood Circuit, 1893; Abbeville Circuit, 1894-96; McCormick Circuit, 1897-98; Prosperity Circuit, 1899-1900; North Rock Hill Circuit, 1901-04; Hickory Grove, 1905; Rock Hill Circuit, 1906-09; Jonesville Circuit, 1910-13; Black Swamp Circuit, 1914-15; Lamar Circuit, 1916-18. He was a tremendous impulse in the lives of many. He was married twice. On December 19, 1877, he was married to Miss Hattie Elizabeth Yeargin, of Laurens, S. C. On September 28, 1887, he was married to Miss N. E. Ozella Daniel, also of Laurens County. His last illness was very painful and protracted. He was suffering at our Conference in 1917, but nobody knew that a fatal disease had taken hold of him. He was sent to Lamar Circuit for 1918, but he was never able to take up his work again. In March he went to the Florence Infirmary, where he remained till he died, October 9, 1918.—R. S. Truesdale.

by one, in open Conference, and their characters examined and passed.

Ques. 23. What is the number of local preachers and members in the several circuits, stations, and missions of the Conference?

Ques. 21. What preachers have died during the past year? John Henry Evans. 1.

JOHN HENRY EVANS was born April 25, 1823, in old Winchester, Wayne County, Miss., the son of Isaac Thomas and Martha Goodwin Evans, and lacked only a few weeks of completing the ninety-fifth year of his life. Four years a brave and devoted Confederate soldier, and nearly fifty years a faithful and self-denying minister, he had fairly won the rest that came to him in 1894 with his retirement from the active ministry. When a child he moved with his parents to Jones County, Miss., where he seems to have spent the years of his youth. Two indications exist of the devoutness of his parents, and of the wholesome religious atmosphere of the home of his childhood: First, that he was converted and joined the Church when a child; secondly, that in the last hours of life the old saint repeated, over and over, the childhood prayer, learned only at the knee of a godly mother:

"Now I lay me down to sleep;
I pray Thee, Lord, my soul to keep;
If I should die before I wake,
I pray Thee, Lord, my soul to take."

On October 13, 1851, he was married to Miss Elizabeth Echols, who died June 30, 1858, leaving three children: Mrs. S. T. Thorn, of Meridian, Mrs. Bettie Finch, of Montrose, and J. M. Evans, of Pelahatchie. At the beginning of the Civil War he entered the Confederate Army, serving with a courage worthy of the highest traditions of that heroic struggle. He was wounded several times, suffering on one occasion the loss of an eye, and finally receiving, by the bursting of a shell, such injuries to his head as to necessitate his discharge from the service. From these wounds he did not recover to the day of his death. While upon his bed, suffering from his wounds, he joined the Methodist Protestant Church, and in 1865 was licensed to preach. The union of the Methodist Protestant Church in Mississippi with the Mississippi Conference of the M. E. Church, South, was consummated in 1871. Brother Evans was one of the most active and influential promoters of this union, and at the session of the Conference held in Meridian in December of that year he was received into the ministry and membership of the M. E. Church, South. Twenty-three years were spent in the pastoral work of this Conference, confined almost wholly to the south-central section of the State. Nine years were given to Raleigh, three each to the Williamsburg and Cato Circuits, two each to Walnut Grove, Trenton, and Rankin, and one each to Franklinton and Leaf River Circuits. On February 10, 1869, he was married to Miss Rachel J. Franklin. To them were born three daughters: Mrs. S. L. Thompson, of Carlos, Tex., Mrs. Hattie McDonald, of Rankin, Tex., and Miss Beulah Evans, of Collins, Miss. After his retirement from active ministry, Brother Evans settled upon a little farm at Williamsburg, Miss., where he continued to live until 1907, when he bought a little home in Collins, where he resided during the remaining years of his life. The funeral services were held in the Methodist Church in Collins on Christmas day, 1917, conducted by his pastor, Rev. W. M. Williams, assisted by Rev. George H. Thompson, presiding elder of the Meridian District, and Rev. W. B. Jones, presiding elder of the Hattiesburg District. The interment took place in the Collins cemetery with Masonic honors.

Ques. 22. Are all the preachers blameless in their life and official administration? Their names were called, one by one, and their characters examined and passed.

Ques. 23. What is the number of local preachers and members in the several circuits, stations, and missions of the Conference?

WILLIAM SAMUEL HARRISON, son of John E. and Rebecca Harrison, was born in Bedford County, Tenn., July 28, 1834. He was converted August 18, 1853, and was licensed to preach in 1854, joining the Memphis Conference, of which he continued to be a member until the organization of the North Mississippi Conference, in 1870. He was admitted into full connection in 1857 and ordained deacon by Bishop Paine. He received elder's orders at the hands of Bishop Andrew in 1859. He served the following charges: Trenton Circuit, 1855; Dresden, 1856; Middleton, 1857; Richmond, 1858; Concordia, 1859; Cageville, 1860; Oxford, 1861-62; Sardis, 1863; Chulahoma, 1864-65; Cockrum, 1866; supernumerary, 1867; Paducah, 1868; Water Valley, 1869-72; Columbus, 1873-74; Crawford, 1875; Macon, 1876-77; Hebron, 1878-79; supernumerary, 1880-95; superannuated, 1896-99. He again became active in 1900 and took charge of the Orphans' Home until the close of 1901, when he finally retired from active service and remained on the superannuate list until his death, at his home in Starkville, Miss., December 3, 1917. He was twice married: First, to Miss Emma Curtis, of Tennessee, in 1855. Seven children were born of this union, two of whom survive: Walton Harrison, of New York City, and John Moss Harrison, of Washington City. He was married the second time to Miss Eliza Virginia Barnett, of Noxubee County, Miss., on February 2, 1878. Two children blessed this union: William Barnett Harrison, of Belzoni, Miss., and Mrs. Charlie Harrison Reynolds, of Starkville, Miss. These are the annals of a long life, covering eighty-five years. For sixty-two years Brother Harrison was a Methodist preacher. Handicapped by lack of early education, he had a passion for knowledge and an indomitable will to acquire it. He became proficient in his acquaintance with the Greek New Testament. He wrote "Sam Williams—A Tale of the Old South," "Jerusalem Destroyed," and "A Life of Jesus." God gave our Mississippi Milton the rare felicity of an affectionate daughter, who understood his worth and could appreciate his merit. Mrs. Reynolds lovingly ministered to him in his last years and cheered him by her interest in his literary work. To her he appropriately left the disposition of his writings. The illness which eventuated in his home-going was of brief duration, and he was conscious almost up to the moment of his translation. He rounded out the eighty-five years of his life, not with vain regrets nor imbecile complaints, but happy in the Christian hope of the blissful life to come. A large assembly of friends followed his remains to the cemetery, after appropriate services at the Methodist Church in Starkville conducted by the pastor. The choir sang at his funeral an original unpublished hymn, "We'll Conquer There," which he had written, one stanza of which is as follows:

"Let grace and love within us reign
Till sin be dead and passion slain;
In ease or toil, in joy or pain,
We'll conquer there."

—S. A. Steel.

WILLIAM C. LESTER was born in Yalobusha County, Miss., October 29, 1853, the son of Dr. James D. and Lizzie Cook Lester. His own mother died when he was only two years of age. Upon his mother's death he was left to the care and training of his Grandmother Lester, who was nobly furnished for such a delicate and responsible duty. Brother Lester's early years were spent on the farm. The beginning of his education was in the country school. Later on, his grandfather moved to Oxford, and William was put in the State University. From this university his mental training and discipline were obtained which so well fitted him for his life work. Brother Lester was married to Miss Permelia Alice Patterson, of Tula, on August 26, 1875. She is a woman of rare character and common sense, and they made a happy, attractive home, not only for their children but for all who entered it. His faithful wife and six devoted children survive to mourn their loss: Mrs. Capt. Bradford, Miss Daisy, and K. P., of Tutwiler, Miss., Mrs. Thatcher, of Dallas, Tex., Lieut. William C., with our Expeditionary Force in France, and John P. Brother Lester was soundly converted at the Oxford Camp Ground and united with the M. E. Church, South, in 1874. He was licensed to preach in December of the same year and was admitted on trial into the North Mississippi Conference on November 23, 1875. He was received into full connection two years later and ordained deacon by Bishop Pierce. In 1879 he was ordained elder by Bishop Kavanaugh. His entire itinerant life was spent in the North Mississippi Conference, where he served the following appointments: 1876-77, Newport Circuit; 1878-80, Richmond Circuit; 1881, Quincy Circuit; 1882-84, Sarepta Circuit; 1885-86, Benela Circuit; 1887-88, Atlanta Circuit; 1889-92, Chester Circuit; 1893-94, Eupora Circuit; 1895, Ackerman Circuit; 1896, Coffeeville Circuit; 1897-1900, Black Hawk Circuit; 1901, Sidon and Itta Bena; 1902-04, Houston and Wesley; 1905-08, Guntown and Baldwin; 1909, Crawford Circuit; 1910-11, Webb Circuit; 1912-13, Isola Circuit; 1914-16, Arcola Circuit; 1917-18, Tutwiler Circuit. From this latter appointment the faithful itinerant was transferred from the Church militant to the Church triumphant. Suddenly, like a watch in the night, without previous warning and with only a few minutes of violent coughing, on the night of February 28, 1918, at 11:30 o'clock, the wheels of life stood still and the spirit of comrade and loving friend and brother went home to the God whom he adored and served. He was a strong, thoughtful gospel preacher, a man of keen observation, analytical mind, and great spiritual insight into the deep things of God. His life was greater than any sermon ever preached by the most eloquent of men. He was a noble husband, a tender father, a genial friend, a faithful minister of Jesus Christ, and we know where to find him. On the first Sunday in March the writer accompanied the sad members of the household to Ackerman, Miss., where we held the last rites under the tabernacle of old South Union Camp Ground and laid his mortal remains beneath the red hills to await the resurrection of the just.—L. M. Lipscomb.

SAMUEL MONROE THAMES, son of John and Ruth (Cobb) Thames, was born in Shelby County, Ala., January 14, 1835. He was soundly converted when a boy and joined the M. E. Church, South. He attended a high school in Bibb County, in which he was well taught, and where he laid the foundation of the useful life that was to follow. A divine call to the ministry came to him so clearly that he felt, "Woe is me if I preach not the gospel." He "was not disobedient unto the heavenly vision," but set about making ready for his life work. Having been licensed to preach in 1857, he joined the Alabama Conference in 1859 and served the Winston Mission in 1860 and the Murphy Valley Circuit in 1861-62, being ordained a deacon by Bishop Early in 1861. At this time the War between the States was raging furiously, and the young itinerant entered the service of his country, becoming an officer in Company D of the Thirtieth Alabama Regiment. He participated in the siege of Vicksburg and the fighting that led up to it. While he remained ever loyal to the South and the cause for which she fought, he did not carry bitterness in his heart toward the North. He was proud of the glories of the united nation, and there was beneath the Stars and Stripes no citizen more patriotic or more devoted to the welfare of the whole country than was he. Having been honorably discharged from the army, the year 1864 found Brother Thames again at his "loved employ" in the itinerant ministry. In addition to those mentioned, he served the following appointments in the Alabama Conference: 1864, Jonesboro Circuit; 1865, Choctaw Circuit (in this year he received elder's orders at the hands of Bishop Paine); 1866-67, Butler and Mount Sterling; 1868-71, Gaston Circuit; 1872, Suggsville Circuit; 1873-74, Dayton and Springfield. At the close of the latter year, he was transferred to the North Mississippi Conference, where he remained till his death, serving the following appointments: 1875-76, Wood Street, Water Valley; 1877-80, Crawford Circuit; 1881, Hebron Circuit; 1882, Kosciusko and Durant; 1883-86, Grenada District; 1887-90, Sardis District; 1891-94, Winona District; 1895-98, Aberdeen District; 1899, Macon Station; 1900-01, Minter City and Strathmore; 1902-04, Coldwater and Loves; 1905-07, Grenada District; 1908, Durant District; 1909-10, Pickens; 1911-12, Carrollton; 1913-14, Hernando; 1915-18, superannuated. In 1867 he was united in marriage to Miss Mary Elizabeth DeLoach, of DeSotenville, Ala., and this union was in every respect a most happy one. The home of this devoted couple was blessed with four children. The older daughter died in infancy and the younger son, Charles, who was a promising young lawyer at Vicksburg, died soon after his father's superannuation, giving him a shock from which he did not seem ever to wholly recover. The other son, Hon. J. D. Thames, resides at Vicksburg. Mrs. Connie Loyd, the surviving daughter, resides with her mother at Jackson, Miss. The active ministry of Brother Thames covered a period of fifty-five years. He wrought effectively on circuits and in stations, and served for twenty years in the presiding eldership. As a preacher, he was strong, suggestive, and forceful. He was a clear and vigorous thinker, and he dealt with the great, vital themes of the gospel in his discourses. The Heavenly Father honored his pulpit messages and he was not without many seals to his ministry. Best of all, however, he was a good man. He was virile and aggressive. He was bold, outspoken, and incapable of deception. He had an unwavering faith in the fundamental verities of the Christian religion, and was a man of prayer who lived in daily communion with his God. The Bible was to him truly the word of God, and he was willing to stake all upon its teachings. He lived above reproach. His home life was ideal and beautiful. He was a chivalrous and devoted husband, and a kind, tender, affectionate father. In February, 1917, he fell and broke his arm, and was shut in for several weeks as a result. On September 5, 1917, he and Sister Thames celebrated their golden wedding anniversary. A month later he slipped on a banana peel and fell, fracturing his hip. Then followed weeks of painful suffering, until finally he was able to get into a rolling chair and go about the house. But frequently he would complain of being very tired and express an earnest longing for rest. About two weeks before his death he was seized with an attack of influenza. Just as day was dawning, April 11, 1918, he peacefully fell on sleep, surrounded by the members of his family and other relatives and friends. The obsequies took place in Galloway Memorial Church on Friday afternoon. The Millsaps College faculty and the resident superannuated preachers acted as honorary pallbearers. The service was in charge of the pastor, Rev. C. W. Crisler. The body was later transported to Vicksburg and laid to rest in that historic city, Dr. T. B. Holloman officiating.

HENRY CLAY MOREHEAD was born in Tippah County, Miss., June 2, 1848, the son of G. S. and Mrs. R. Morehead. His parents died while he was yet a child and he was reared in the home of "Uncle" Joe Brooks. Here he found foster parents that tenderly cared for him and gave him a high school education. He was converted on the old Hickory Flat Circuit in July, 1865, at sixteen years of age. He soon realized his call to the ministry, and in 1869 made the confirmation of that call in his own decision to preach. He was licensed to preach at Brooks's Chapel on July 4, 1869. He was admitted on trial at the Holly Springs Conference in 1869. He was received into full connection and ordained deacon by Bishop Kavanaugh at Columbus in 1871. He was ordained elder at Corinth in 1872 by Bishop Kavanaugh. His appointments were: Tyro, 1870; Lamar, 1871; Como and Fredonia, 1872; Pleasant Hill, 1873; Cockrum, 1874-75; Longtown, 1876-77; Cornersville, 1878; supernumerary, 1879-80; Caswell Circuit, 1881; Austin and Friar's Point, 1882-83; Concordia and Australia, 1884; Toccopola, 1885; supernumerary, 1886; Grenada Circuit (supernumerary, 1887), 1887-90; Pickens Circuit, 1891; Sardis District, 1892-95; Grenada District, 1896-99; Shaw, 1900; Houston and Wesley, 1901; Indianola, 1901-03; Itta Bena, 1904-05; supernumerary, 1906-10; superannuated, 1911-18. In 1873, while pastor of the Pleasant Hill Circuit, he was married to Miss Eliza P. Fowler, who was his companion of nearly sixteen years, and the mother of his eight children—three boys and five girls. Six survive him: Mrs. Stella Williams, Dallas, Tex.; M. E. Morehead, Courtland, Miss.; Mrs. Mable Barbee, Los Angeles, Cal.; Mrs. Gertrude Gable, Hobart, Okla.; Mrs. Lucile Penn, Colorado Springs, Colo.; Mrs. Nina Kendall, Courtland, Miss. While he was pastor of Grenada Circuit, in 1888, this good wife went to her reward. In 1891 he was married to Miss Mattie Williams, of Grenada. She died June 23, 1913. In 1915 he was married to Miss Mattie Beard, of Shelbyville, Ky. Three times he was forced to take the supernumerary relation. During the last twelve years his health slowly failed him and he was forced to give up almost all his work. He died April 22, 1918. The funeral was held in the Courtland Church by his pastor and presiding elder; then his body was carried to Grenada to the family burying lot and laid to rest. He was a successful pastor and presiding elder, painstaking, thoroughgoing, and energetic. Devoted to his Church, he preached her doctrines, believed her teachings, was loyal to her rules, and always proud to acknowledge himself a Methodist. He was a strong preacher. Even in his old days and enfeebled health, he loved to preach. He lived well, he wrought well, he died in the full triumphs of a living faith. He lives on in the many lives he touched.—J. H. Holder.

CORNELIUS RANSOM A. BRANTLEY, son of Hon. A. H. Brantley, was born April 10, 1866. He was educated at Kosciusko Institute and at Clarksville, Tenn. He was converted when thirteen years of age and was licensed to preach at twenty. He joined the North Mississippi Conference in 1886 and served the following charges: 1887, Shuqualak Circuit; 1888, Ashland Circuit; 1889, Tampico Circuit; 1890, Walthall Circuit; 1891, Jonesboro Circuit. At the end of the latter year he was located at his own request. He was again licensed to preach at Kilmichael during a session of the Winona District Conference in 1912 and joined the traveling connection in 1913. He served the Indianola Mission in 1914-15 and the Okolona Circuit in 1916-17. He was sent to the Vardaman Circuit for 1918, but was physically able to make but one round of appointments; however, he so endeared himself to the people that they loved him and stood loyally by him till his death, August 30, 1918. While on the Walthall Circuit, in 1890, he was married to Miss Mamie Shaeffer, one daughter, Willie, being born to them. On January 16, 1916, he was married to Miss Emma Hudspeth, and to them was born a daughter just two weeks before his death. His faith, hope, and charity all conspired to make him a purer man and a more efficient pastor. He slipped away from us just when it seemed that he was best prepared to serve God and the Church, his last words being: "I am ready to go."—E. M. Shaw.

JOHN CALHOUN PARK was born near Houston, Chickasaw County, Miss., March 27, 1868, his parents being A. A. and Octavia Park. His mother died when he was but an infant, but under the genial influences of a Christian home he was converted at the age of nine and united with the M. E. Church, South. He entered the ministry in April, 1888, when barely twenty years of age, and gave to his chosen work thirty years of zealous and unbroken service. He joined the North Mississippi Conference in the winter of 1888 and was appointed to Houston and Wesley as junior preacher. In the fall of 1889 he was happily married to Miss Bettie Shell. To them were born two daughters, Leonese and Maye, the former of whom is now Mrs. W. H. Robinson. In 1889 he was sent to Prairie and Strong's, where he labored for three successful years. In 1893 he was again appointed to Houston and Wesley as junior preacher, and pursued his studies at Houston, receiving the degree of Bachelor of Arts at the Mississippi Normal College in June, 1893. In the fall of 1893 he was made pastor of the Houston and Wesley charge, which he served for the year 1894. Then followed pastorates at Booneville and Baldwin, Kosciusko, Rosedale, Main Street (Water Valley), and Winona. In 1903-04 he was presiding elder of the Aberdeen District. In 1905 he entered upon a quadrennium of service as pastor of the Church at Greenwood. From Greenwood he went to Oxford, thence to Macon, to Tupelo, to Sardis, and to Starkville, where the grim reaper cut him down in the second year of an active and successful pastorate. His health was never robust, and it is doubtful if he spent a day free from pain and discomfort during the last fifteen years of his life. But if nature gave him a frail body, she endowed him with a strong mind and a great heart. He was diligent both in his study and in his pastoral duties, and made full proof of his ministry. The great truths of the gospel burned so fervently in his own heart that no lukewarm message ever fell from his lips. He knew of a certainty that which he preached, and his hearers were never in doubt as to his convictions. Naturally he was an evangelistic preacher, and the Holy Spirit sealed his work with abundant fruits in souls born into the kingdom under his preaching. He was a recognized leader in his Conference, serving on important boards and in responsible places. It had been the hope of his brethren that under the surgeon's knife and the doctor's healing physic he would live to round out a good old age in his chosen work, but this was not to be. Frail in body, worn by disease, and tired by toils unceasing, the "good minister of Jesus Christ" fell on sleep. After a few days of suffering from pneumonia in his parsonage home at Starkville, his spirit took its flight to the better land, October 10, 1918. His body was laid to rest beside his loved ones gone before, at Houston, Miss., on October 11, the funeral service being conducted by his lifelong friend Rev. R. A. Tucker.—J. R. Countiss.

WILLIAM SYLVESTER LAGRONE, son of Rev. G. M. and Mrs. M. E. Lagrone, was born in Perry County, Ala., on January 27, 1846. He was converted in August, 1865, licensed to preach in 1871, and admitted on trial into the traveling connection in the North Mississippi Conference in 1872. In 1874 he was admitted into full connection and was ordained deacon by Bishop Doggett. He received elder's orders at the hands of Bishop Pierce in 1876. The following appointments were served by him: Bellefontaine Circuit, 1873-74; Attalla Circuit, 1875-78; Liberty Circuit, 1879-80; French Camp Circuit, 1881; Winona Circuit, 1882-85; Grenada Circuit, 1886; Vaiden Circuit, 1887-89; Corinth District, 1890-93; Aberdeen District, 1894; Senatobia Station, 1895-96; West Point Station, 1897-98; Wood Street (Water Valley), 1899; Sardis District, 1900-01; Durant District, 1902-05; Cleveland Station, 1906-07; Conference Missionary Secretary and Evangelist, 1908-09; Greenville Station, 1910-13; Clarksdale Station, 1914-15; Drew Station, 1916-18. He was a member of the General Conference which met in Birmingham, Ala., in 1906. In 1869 he was happily married to Miss Frances Hall, of Alabama, who shared his fortunes in the itinerancy until 1905, when she died at Cleveland, Miss. Of this union ten children were born: W. F. Lagrone, of West Point, Miss.; Mrs. W. W. Lake, of Aberdeen, Miss.; Mrs. E. S. Byers, Marvin Lagrone, and Kenneth Andrew Lagrone, deceased; Mrs. James Henderson, of Charleston, Miss.; Mrs. P. C. Wall, of Drew, Miss.; Misses Beulah and Laura and Mr. C. E. Lagrone, of New Orleans, La. The career of Brother Lagrone as a Methodist itinerant extended over a period of forty-five years, during which time he was on the effective list. When he hearkened to the Master's call and took up his life work, his equipment was very meager, viewed from the standpoint of the schoolmen, his educational instruction having carried him only through the common schools of that day. But he knew the value of books rightly used, and resolved to make the most of his opportunities. He was one of the best-furnished men of his Conference. He had a magnificent physique, being tall, erect, and well-proportioned. His face was frank, benevolent, and winsome; his eyes were bright and wonderfully expressive; his voice was clear, resonant, and musical, and his enunciation could scarcely have been more perfect. He had a clear perception of truth, sound reasoning faculties, an excellent memory, and a large amount of practical sense. To rescue the perishing was the dominant purpose of his life. A still clearer attestation of his call to the ministry is found in the fact that where he preached souls were born anew and those of the household of faith grew richer in the things of the Spirit. He was a fine example of the pastor-evangelist. There were no neglected sheep where he was the shepherd. He loved the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, with a deep and abiding affection, and did not feel that its mission had been fulfilled and that it should cease to be. Though past his threescore years and ten, time had dealt gently with him, so that he had scarcely any of the infirmities of age. One did not think of him as being old. The illness which took him away was of brief duration. For about ten days he suffered with a form of rheumatism, which was not thought to be dangerous, but on November 20, at Drew, Miss., he was seized with an attack of acute indigestion, involving his heart, and almost before those about him could realize that his life was menaced he passed from among them. His body was interred at Winona, Miss., beside the ashes of his beloved companion. The service was conducted by Rev. L. M. Lipscomb.—R. A. Meek.

Ques. 22. Are all the preachers blameless in their life and official administration? Their names were called, one by one, and their characters examined and passed, except J. J. Baird, who surrendered his credentials and withdrew from the ministry.

Ques. 23. What is the number of local preachers and members in the several circuits, stations, and missions of the Conference?

Ques. 21. What preachers have died during the past year? W. H. Kirton, E. E. Rose, C. E. Vale, C. O. Armstrong. 4.

WILLIAM H. KIRTON, for four years a Confederate soldier and for more than fifty years a Methodist preacher, has fallen on sleep. By far the greater part of his long service in the ministry was spent in South Carolina, but for some years before his death he was a member of the North Carolina Conference. He was born in Horry County, S. C., November 3, 1843, and brought up under Methodist influence. He was converted and joined the Church when about twelve years old, entered the Confederate army as a volunteer August 10, 1861, and was taken prisoner March 9, 1865, being released in time to reach home on the fourth of the following July. During these years in the army he lost the consciousness of God's presence, but was again converted April 12, 1866. Soon afterwards he felt divinely called to preach, and was licensed to preach in November, 1866. Except for two years, during which he was unable to preach on account of throat trouble, he served faithfully in the regular ministry until his superannuation in 1908. He filled the following appointments: Whiteville Circuit, in the North Carolina Conference, and Waccamaw Circuit, in the South Carolina Conference, he supplied in 1871 and 1873. In December, 1873, he was received on trial into the traveling connection by the South Carolina Conference and his appointments were: Waccamaw Circuit, 1874-75; Pubu Circuit, 1876; Hanging Rock Circuit, 1877-78; Johnsonville Circuit, 1879; Summerton Circuit, 1880-81; Tumbling Shoals Circuit, 1882-83; Pickens Circuit, 1884-85; Providence Circuit, 1886-88; Blenheim Circuit, 1889; Bennettsville Circuit, 1890; Bishopville Station, 1891-92; Lunondale, 1893; Green Street, Columbia, 1894-95; Hartsville, 1896; Lomar, 1897; Lake City, 1898-99; superannuated, 1900-01, on account of throat failure; Loris Circuit, 1902. He then transferred from the South Carolina Conference to the North Carolina Conference, and filled the following appointments: Pamlico Circuit, 1903; Bethel Circuit, 1904; Mount Tirza Circuit, 1905; Yanceyville Circuit, 1906; Nashville Circuit, 1907-08. Again he asked and obtained a superannuate relation, in which relation he continued and in feeble health until his death, May 13, 1918, in the home of his daughter, Mrs. D. J. Butler, Loris, S. C. On September 29, 1865, he was married to Orilla V. McQueen. To them were born seven children: Rev. Preston L., Charles Wesley, Isadora V., William Marvin, Mary Caroleen, John Powell, and Claudia. Three daughters survive: Mrs. D. J. Butler, Mrs. Russell, and Mrs. Claudia Hubbard. As a husband and father, Brother Kirton was affectionate and kind, and his family indeed hold him in loving remembrance. Brother Kirton was a man of strong personality and great faith in God. He has added his life work to the sum total of human achievement, and gone to his reward.—J. T. Gibbs.

EDWARD EUGENE ROSE was born in Warren County on March 5, 1866. He was born and reared in a Methodist home, where God was honored and served. His father was for many years an honored steward in old Zion Church, on the Ridgeway Circuit. The impress of a Christian home was left on the boy. He was converted in early life and joined the Church of his parents. In his boyhood days he heard the voice of God calling him to the work of the ministry. About this time he was fortunate in having as his pastor the late Rev. John N. Cole, who encouraged him in his efforts to prepare for the great work of the ministry and helped him in every way possible. He was educated in the public schools of Warren County and in Trinity College. He spent about three years in college, leaving there before the completion of the regular course in order that he might respond to the call of his Church to fill a place where his services were needed. In the beginning of 1891 he accepted Person Circuit, serving it as a supply, and at the following Conference was admitted on trial into the traveling connection, and was returned to the same charge. After leaving this circuit, he served the following charges in the order named: Caldwell, Milton, Halifax, Battleboro and Whitakers, Northampton, Williamston and Hamilton, Haw River, Mount Olive and Faison, Carthage and Conway. While on the Carthage Circuit his health failed and he was compelled to give up his work for a while; but after spending some time in a hospital in Richmond, Va., he was seemingly restored to health, and finished his full term on the Carthage charge. At the following Conference he was assigned to the Conway Circuit, and was gladly received by this good people, many of whom had known and loved him when he was on the Northampton Circuit in the same county. His ministry in this his last charge was eminently successful. Large congregations waited on his ministry, and many were won to Christ. But the seeds of death were already sown in that body, which had a few years before been so strong and vigorous, and he was compelled to give up his work and patiently to wait the coming of the end, which he knew could not long be delayed. He was no ordinary man. As a preacher he was earnest, practical, and eminently scriptural. As was said of the Master, "The common people heard him gladly." Brother Rose was ordained deacon by Bishop Duncan in Wilmington in 1893, and elder by Bishop Wilson at Elizabeth City in 1895. On December 20, 1893, he was married to Miss Maggie Waller Umstead, daughter of John W. Umstead, Esq., of Flat River, N. C. To this union four children were born, all of whom are living and give promise of becoming strong and useful men. Brother Rose has wrought well. He has finished his course, and his reward is glorious. We shall meet again, where sorrows never come and suffering is forever unknown.—J. E. Underwood.

CHARLES EDWARD VALE, son of Robert and Jane Bagley Vale, was born in Birmingham, England, May 21, 1876, and died suddenly in the home of Mr. Archie Thompson, Hallsboro, N. C., August 8, 1918, in his forty-third year. He was recommended for license to preach by the Quarterly Conference of Grace Church, Wilmington, N. C., June 2, 1905, and his license was granted by the Wilmington District Conference, in Wallace, N. C., July 1, 1905. He was admitted on trial into the traveling connection in the North Carolina Conference in Centenary Church, New Bern, N. C., December 5, 1907, ordained deacon by Bishop Collins Denny in Hay Street Church, Fayetteville, N. C., December 1, 1912, and elder by Bishop John C. Kilgo in Fifth Avenue Church, Wilmington, N. C., December 5, 1915. When Robert Vale immigrated to the United States, he settled in Providence, R. I. Here he reared a large family. Robert Vale was never a member of the Church, but his wife was a consistent member of the Pentecostal Church and a patient, godly woman. Charles was eight years old when he came to America. He received his education in the public schools of Providence. He had no opportunity to go to college, the financial condition of the family being such that Charles had to work to help support them. He early developed a love for books, and spent the nights and leisure hours in reading good literature. Among other things he purchased books on photography and made a special study of the subject. After reaching his twenty-first birthday, he spent some months in a studio as an assistant, later launching out in business for himself. His work was a success from the beginning; at one time he was official photographer for one of the South's greatest railway systems. Brother Vale was converted at a very early age and connected himself with the Pentecostal Church with his mother. When twelve years old he realized that God had called him to preach the gospel. He was not encouraged in this impression and he soon gave it up; however, the desire remained in his heart, but as the years went by he saw no opportunity to make the necessary preparation. He was fond of reading the biographies of great men, especially preachers and missionaries. If the opportunity had presented itself, he no doubt would have entered the ministry much earlier in life. At Pinehurst, N. C., on June 2, 1900, he was married to Miss Hattie L. Lewis, the daughter of Thomas

D. and Helen Bascome Lewis, of Orwell, Vt., who from childhood had been a member of the Congregational Church. To this union were born three children, two of whom preceded their father to the kingdom above. For more than eighteen years Sister Vale walked by his side, sharing his successes and misfortunes, and proved herself a helpmeet indeed. Like her husband, she was an indefatigable worker, and contributed largely to his success. His desire to preach was confided to his wife, who encouraged him by doing as much of his work in the studio as she could, that he might have time to study and make the best preparation possible. He used the time well, as was evidenced in his after life. After severing his relation with the railroad, he located for a while in Rock Hill, S. C., later going to Wilmington, N. C., where for some years he conducted what was probably the most up-to-date studio in the State. When he came to Wilmington both he and his wife connected themselves with the M. E. Church, South, joining Grace Church. In a short time both became prominent in Church work. On June 1, 1905, Brother Vale was elected superintendent of the Sunday school and served till December 2, 1907, when he resigned to enter the itinerant ministry. Under his leadership the school ranked as the largest and best in the city. So much were his efforts appreciated that members of the school presented him with a beautiful gold watch, which he carried as long as he lived. In 1907 he served for a few months on Carver's Creek Circuit as a supply, filling a place made vacant by the illness of the preacher in charge. His first appointment was Chadbourn Circuit, from 1907 to 1911, where he had five societies and one church building. During his stay there he built three or four new churches and a parsonage, and so enlarged the work that it was necessary to divide it. From 1911 to 1915 he served Jones Circuit. While serving that charge his wife's health broke down, his only daughter was taken ill and died, and he had to spend some time in a hospital, undergoing a serious surgical operation. His next and last charge was Jacksonville and Richlands, serving there during 1916, 1917, and until August, 1918, when his Master called him home. His eleven years as an itinerant preacher were spent on three charges. Brother Vale was a hard student, a strong preacher, and an efficient pastor. As an organizer and leader of men he had remarkable powers. Wherever he went Epworth Leagues sprang up and were maintained. His simple faith in Christ seemed to draw men from all walks of life into his Master's vineyard. Having been deprived of college training, and feeling his great need of it, he resolved to gain as far as possible what he had lost in earlier years. Under the guiding hand of some of the leaders of our Church, he bought only the best books and set himself to master them, often burning the midnight oil, after a hard day's work. He seemed to forget that there was a limit to his strength. The charges he served were all heavy. He often preached three times on Sunday, besides giving his presence to the Sunday school and teaching a class when some teacher was absent. Being a true missionary, he sought out the waste places, organizing classes and building houses of worship. The failure of his wife's health added greatly to his burdens; but with a tenderness born of love and with the light of heaven in his face, he carried his load and did his work without a murmur. While his wife was in a hospital in Wilmington, N. C., he went to visit her, and while there decided to take the advice of friends and rest for a while. After a short stay with his wife, he went to Hallsboro, N. C., to spend a few days in the home of his old friend, Mr. Archie Thompson. On Thursday afternoon he spent the most of his time out in the grove, as it was his custom to seek some solitary spot and spend some time in meditation and prayer. As the sun was sinking in the west he was heard singing some of our great hymns, which were dear to his heart. After spending the evening with the family, he retired as well as usual, but greatly fatigued. The crushing load he had carried too long had made its mark upon him. He did not rise the next morning as early as usual, and when his friend went to call him to breakfast he found him cold in death. He had died without a struggle. The physical machinery had been under too great a strain, and during the night it had broken beyond repair and his imprisoned soul had gone home. In the death of Charles E. Vale our Conference has lost its sweetest singer. He sang the gospel as often as he preached it, and just as effectively. For eleven years he was a member of the North Carolina Conference Quartet, an organization which sang for conferences and conventions on both sides of the continent. He was a delegate to the Eighth International Epworth League Convention, which met in Seattle, Wash., in July, 1909. In his death Brother Vale leaves a wife, who is a helpless invalid, and a son, Charles E. Vale, Jr., two sisters and three brothers. He was buried in Trenton, N. C., Sunday morning, August 11, 1918, by the side of his daughter. The funeral was conducted by his presiding elder, Rev. J. H. Shore.—A. J. Parker.

CLAYTON OTIS ARMSTRONG was born December 1, 1882, at Columbia, Tyrrell County, N. C., and was nearing the end of his thirty-sixth year. He was the son of Leonard and Martha Alexander Armstrong, Christian parents, who sought tirelessly to bring to bear on the life of their son the truths of the gospel. And the life of this boy, when he became a man, was fine evidence that such training is not in vain. Brother Armstrong had his education in the public schools, and then at Ayden Seminary, being a member of the Freewill Baptist Church. Having finished school at that institution, he taught for several years, spending some months each summer in evangelistic work in this and other States. In the fall of 1908 he entered the University of North Carolina, and was graduated with the class of 1912. As a student here, and as a man among the other men of the University, he stood among the first in character and certainty in morals and in sound judgment. On February 22, 1913, he was married to Miss Delia Rice, of Bayboro, N. C. She and their two little boys, C. O., Jr., and William Rice, survive him. After finishing his education at the State University, he resumed his work as a teacher, again spending some time each year in evangelistic work, and always with success. In the fall of 1916, feeling that his service for the Master would be enlarged, and having had from the first a deep admiration for the doctrines and polity of Methodism and a hearty sympathy with them, he sought admission into our Church and Conference, and was received at the session in Durham two years ago. He was appointed to the Stantonsburg Circuit, which charge he served to the time of his death. On Monday morning, October 28, just as the sun was coming up, he slipped away and was gone. The next day the people whom he had served for two years as pastor gathered about the parsonage door and wept while hymns were sung, and while the Scriptures were read which tell of the victory of the Son of God over death and of our immortal snare in that triumph. At noon his body was put away in Maplewood Cemetery, at Wilson, and the words, "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord," seemed to have a new wealth and beauty of meaning.—W. A. Stanbury.

WEMBO-NIAMA, AFRICA.

BISHOP LAMBUTH in Episcopal Charge; D. L. MUMPOWER, M.D., Superintendent.

There was no session and no report of the work of the Congo Mission for the year 1918.

The three young women sent out by the Department of Woman's Work, in company with Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Stockwell, reached their destination in January, 1918.

Early in the year Miss Etha Mills was appointed to open educational work in the new station of Lubefu. Miss Mills also had charge of the medical dispensary for a part of the time. In December, 1918, by her marriage to Rev. T. E. Reeve, Miss Mills was transferred to the Department of General Work of the Board of Missions, leaving the Woman's Department without a representative at Lubefu and with only two of our missionaries in Africa.

Miss Kathron Wilson, a trained nurse, and Miss Etta Lee Woolsey, an educational missionary, were stationed at Wembo-Niama. During the absence of Dr. Mumpower, Miss Wilson had charge of the hospital and medical work in the Mission. Miss Woolsey taught classes of boys, girls, and women, and opened a small boarding department for girls in connection with her school work. She also conducted evangelistic work among the women in Wembo-Niama and near-by villages.
